RESOLUTION OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH OF JUNEAU, ALASKA

Serial No. 1266

A RESOLUTION ESTABLISHING OCTOBER 26, 1987, AS "JUST SAY NO" PLEDGE CHALLENGE DAY AND URGING THE PEOPLE OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH OF JUNEAU TO JOIN THE NATIONWIDE ANTI-SUBSTANCE USE CAMPAIGN.

WHEREAS, the City and Borough of Juneau, Alaska, has recognized that substance abuse is a threat to the health, safety and well-being of the youth of Juneau, and

WHEREAS, the city and borough has established a Blue Ribbon Commission on Youth to report to the city and borough on the status of its youth, and

WHEREAS, the City and Borough of Juneau, Alaska, has been selected as one of 150 cities to participate in a national "Just Say No" Back-to-School Pledge Drive, and

WHEREAS, "Just Say No" clubs have proven to be an effective means of educating youth to the dangers of drugs and assisting them in resisting harmful peer pressure and other influences;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH OF JUNEAU, ALASKA:

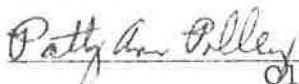

That October 26, 1987, is established as "Just Say No" Pledge Challenge Day in the City and Borough of Juneau, and is intended to encourage school students throughout our Capital City to affirm their position against the use of drugs and alcohol and to urge all youth, teachers, and the general public to join in this nationwide anti-substance use campaign.

Adopted this 5th day of October, 1987
