

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH OF JUNEAU, ALASKA
Serial No. 265

A RESOLUTION COMMENDING THE YOUTH CONSERVATION CORPS AND OTHER INDIVIDUALS WHOSE GENEROSITY MADE POSSIBLE THE SUCCESSFUL CAMPAIGN TO CLEAN UP DUCK CREEK AND TO LANDSCAPE THE GLACIER VALLEY SCHOOL.

WHEREAS, the Alaska Department of Natural Resources, Division of Parks, sponsored a Youth Conservation Corps for the State of Alaska, and

WHEREAS, John Halterman, Project Leader, David Harris, Mike Murray, Paul Ferriz, Pat McCorkle, John Miller, Margaret Swanson, and Shelley Winegar were members of the Youth Conservation Corps in the City and Borough of Juneau, Alaska, and

WHEREAS, Joe Smith donated trees, and Glacier Village Supermarket, Inc., Mrs. Vivian Erwin, and Dwain Reddekopp donated soil, manpower, and equipment, and

WHEREAS, the services rendered by the Youth Conservation Corps in conjunction with the above donations made it possible to achieve an outstanding success in the project to clean up Duck Creek, and in the project to landscape the Glacier Valley School, and

WHEREAS, the successful completion of these two projects has bettered the quality of the City and Borough environment;

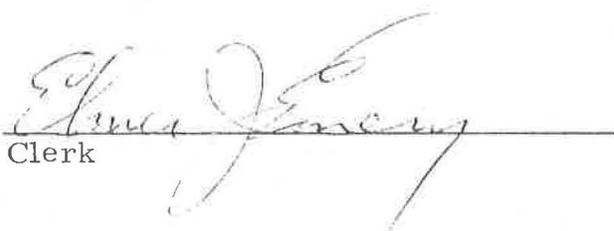

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH OF JUNEAU, ALASKA:

In recognition of the outstanding services rendered, the above-named individuals and organizations are commended for their generosity and successful efforts in making the City and Borough of Juneau a better place in which to live.

Adopted this 28th day of August, 1974.
