¹ On January 12, 2011, Alaska Cruise Association wrote to the CBJ Mayor to express its concern that CBJ will use the MPF and PDF to “develop projects that do not meet the legal test for appropriate use of passenger fees and fund projects that have excessive costs.” CBJ Exhibit FC. In the letter, Alaska Cruise Association noted the then-recent enactment of Resolution No. 2552, which repealed the sunset date on the PDF.

² The June 5, 2000 Letter from North West Cruiseship Association to the CBJ Mayor and Assembly expressed concern that the allocations of the first year of the MPF revenues did not “reflect the spirit or intent of the ordinance.” North West Cruiseship Association objected to CBJ’s allocation of MPF funds to general government operations, stating that the use of MPF revenues for general government operations was not consistent with CBJ’s constitutional obligation to confine the use of fee proceeds to compensation for costs directly attributable to cruise ship traffic. North West Cruiseship Association asserted its position that the U.S.
