PROPOSED MANAGER'S REPORT

Resolution 1430:

The Assembly Human Resources Committee met on February 28, 1990, to review proposals for community development block grants. The committee recommended that the CBJ sponsor the following grant applications:

Community Development Category: Gastineau Human Services Reception Intervention Center - remodeling to create four beds for alcoholism treatment.

Economic Development Category: Douglas Harbor Expansion and Waterfront Industrial Park Development - soils investigation.

Planning Category: Tlingit-Haida Regional Cultural Center - feasibility study.

The CBJ is eligible to submit a grant application under each of these categories. The maximum grant award is $100,000 in each category. This resolution, which authorizes the manager to submit the grant applications, is a required step in the grant application process.

I recommend that this resolution be adopted.
