(c). Daily Ticket Discounts. Discounts on daily tickets may be given as follows:

(1) Number in group	Discount
20 through 39	5%
40 or more	10%

(2) Discounts shall be available only for all-day or for night lift tickets and only when the sale is arranged in advance of the day for which the discount tickets are to be issued.

(3) Discount tickets will be issued only on the day of skiing and only to the person designated to represent the group.

(4) To qualify for a discount, the group must be one which is formally organized, has adopted a constitution and bylaws, has elected officers and holds bona fide meetings of the membership, or it must be a group assembled as a part of an advertised tour group or plan. The manager or his designee may demand proof of qualification of any group prior to authorizing a discount.

(5) The manager or his designee may establish such procedural and other requirements as deemed necessary to administer the sale and issuance of discount tickets and may make special arrangements to accommodate individuals who are participating in advertised tour packages which allow skiers to participate on an individual or other basis.

(d). Season Ticket Discounts. Season tickets may be purchased on or before November 15 for the coming ski season at a 10% discount.

(e). Complimentary Breakdown Tickets. All-day complimentary tickets will be issued to all patrons holding All-Day, All Lifts tickets if mechanical shutdown of both chair lifts occurs within one hour after the time designated as the beginning of skiing for that day. All-day complimentary tickets will be issued to all patrons holding All-Day, Surface Lift tickets if mechanical shutdown of any surface lift scheduled for operation occurs within one hour after the time designated as the beginning of skiing for that day. Half-Day complimentary tickets will be issued similarly for shutdowns which occur between one and four hours after the time designated as the beginning of skiing for that day. Swing Shift complimentary tickets will be issued to all patrons holding Swing Shift tickets if mechanical shutdown of both chair lifts occurs within one and one-half hours after the beginning of sale of the swing shift ticket. Night Lift complimentary tickets will be issued to all patrons holding Night Lift or Swing Shift tickets if mechanical shutdown of the lift occurs within one and one-half hours after the time designated as the beginning of night skiing. Purchased lift tickets must be turned in for complimentary tickets within one hour of shutdown. Complimentary tickets must be used during the season in which issued unless otherwise noted on the ticket.

(f). Complimentary Promotional Tickets. Complimentary lift tickets for one day only may be issued by the manager or his designee to persons who are visiting Eaglecrest for tour or promotional purposes and represent tour, tour-related or promotional organizations.
