C. EXPENSES

These are the annual expenses necessary to maintain the production of income from operation of the property. Do not include under any expense category items such as ground rent, mortgage interest or amortization., personal property tax, depreciation, income taxes, or capital expenditures. These are not operating expenses. Capital expenditures include investments in remodeling, or replacements which materially add to the value of the property or appreciably prolong it's life.

7. Amount paid to a management company or self for operating the complex. Should be management expense only. Do not report management expense under payroll or administrative.
8. Administrative expenses should include; advertising, office supplies, accounting, legal fees, liability insurance and furniture rental costs.
9. Payroll expenses. Itemized list required if applicable. If security payroll is included, do not double report.

D. UTILITIES

This section applies to the utility expenses associated with operating and maintaining the property. This may include heating and cooling of common areas such as hallways, foyers, office space for management etc. Utility services as they pertain to HVAC are excluded if associated with tenants who are responsible for paying own utilities.

- 10. Heating fuel. Specify primary fuel used for heating common or office areas.
- 11. Electric service. To maintain common and office areas.
- 12. Water and sewer service to maintain common and office areas. Do not include services paid by tenant.

E. REPAIRS MAINTENANCE AND CONTRACT SERVICES

- 13. Payroll expenses for maintenance staff and maintenance supplies.
- 14. Maintenance and repair expenses associated with heating, ventilation, air conditioning, plumbing or electrical. Do not include capital improvements/expenditure items.
- 15. Roof repairs; include repairs and routine maintenance expenses to roof. Do not enter replacement cost for entire roof. Roof replacement is a capital expense.
- 16. Elevator expenses. Include cost of maintenance (parts, labor) to maintain or repair and contract services if applicable.
- 17. Redecorating Costs (carpet, paint, drywall repair etc.) This could also include exterior repairs not covered elsewhere. The costs should be cosmetic items only. Do not include any capital expenditures or short lived items. A detailed list is required to be submitted. Please reference your list as "line 17 redecorating cost".
