TYPE OF EXEMPTION REQUESTED

> Non Profit Religious:

Property used exclusively for religious purposes includes the following: places of worship, the residence of bishop, pastor, priest, rabbi, minister of a recognized religious organization and lots required by local ordinance for parking.

> Charitable

Perform activities which relieve the government of its burden through benevolent acts from citizens in the community, serves a public benefit serving the public at large, service available to public regardless of user's ability to pay. There is no dominant profit motive, income derived does not exceed operating expenses (debt service not allowable expense) and must be actively engaged in the charitable programs or functions as stated in the Articles of Incorporation.

Education

Activities which educate, edify, train and develop individuals. The institution must have improved classroom space or the property must be primarily and substantially used for educational purposes. Systematic instruction including written course descriptions, instructions given which lead to certification, a degree or qualification to move to higher level of former education, regularly scheduled classes and be open to public. Substantial public benefit derived and must be approved through Alaska Commission of Post Secondary Education, professional organizations or other nationally recognized organizations that certify educational programs.

Hospital

For hospital use, that property owned by a nonprofit corporation and which is used to provide medical, surgical or psychiatric care, including necessary administrative, maintenance, parking and similar improvements and which is licensed as a hospital by the state; but not including space leased to medical doctors or other health or medical practitioners.

> Community Purpose (Obtain form on file with the Assessor's Office)

Organization cannot be organized for business or profit making purposes and the property is to be used exclusively for community purpose provided that income derived from rental of the property does not exceed the cost to the owner by use of the renter. The property must benefit a significant portion of the public and the organization must have a current 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4). Application must be filed no later than January 31 of each year for which the exemption is sought. By-Laws and Articles of Incorporation are required.
