Dedication

TO the ancient culture and civilization of the Orient, we, the students of Douglas High School, dedicate this Annual, the 1930 Taku. May this year book be infused with the spirit of mutual goodwill and understanding; may it furnish a more adequate appreciation of the wonders of the Asiatic world; may it promote a feeling of co-operation and friendliness and present an intellectual picture of the Orient.

The Orient

Near the old Pacific waters,
Far from icy Alaskan shores,
Dwells a foreign race of people
In their lives of ancient lores.

We with them would join in union
To be friends forever more
If our boundaries were united,
We'd traverse from shore to shore.

Station . S . E . N . I . O . R .

HELLO, everybody! Station De Hi broadcasting the history of the Senior Class.

The opening number this evening will be "Here We Are." And what a class! We numbered thirteen strong! After getting over a slight greenness, we had a very successful year. Henning Berggren, one of our basketball players, moved to Juneau at the end of the term; but Violet Johnson joined us as she was doing four years' high school work in three.

With John Cashen for a leader, the rest of the class will sing "I'm Following You." What an industrious class! Most of us carried five subjects. Not because we were dumb but because we thought we could manage an extra subject, which we did successfully.

"Oh, I Love My Love in the Morning" will now be played. If you saw the Junior Play, "The Terrible Jane," you will recall that song. Some dance numbers will now be broadcasted, among them "Fraser's Frisco," "Saimie's Scottische," and "Violet's Varsity." These were played at the Junior Prom last year and made a big hit.

At the end of the year Tauno Williamson left, reducing us to an even dozen. You will now hear "The Song is Ended but the Melody Lingers On," "A Perfect Day," the closing number, expresses our feeling on Graduation Day.

Before signing off we can proudly add that our class of twelve is the largest that has ever graduated from Douglas High.

Good-bye, everybody.

Senior Class Will

WE, the notorious Senior Class of nineteen hundred and thirty, in sane body and mind, leave to the members of Douglas High School those treasured possessions which we will need no longer. This is to give them an opportunity for great achievements such as we have accomplished.

ARTICLE I

Section 1. To the School Board we will the honors that this class, by skillful cooperation, have conferred upon the school.

ARTICLE II

Section 1. To Mr. Cathcart we will our ability at summing up historical facts rapidly and to the point.

Section 2. To Mrs. Engstrom we will our greatest appreciation for her patient efforts in trying to teach us to remember the "Bright Lights" of English Literature.

Section 3. To Mr. King we leave our ability to overcome great obstacles; also our disposition, on condition he use it in future classes.

Section 4. To Miss Pepoon we leave the accoutrements of the old Physics Room in hopes that she will entirely dispose of them—for the sake of other Senior Classes.

ARTICLE III

Section 1. To the Freshmen we will our pep and jovialty, that they may make old De Hi as lively as we have.

Section 2. To the Sophs we will our means of raising money as we know the up-keep of such a class.

Section 3. To the Juniors we leave our motherly way of keeping the lower classmen from mischievousness; also the patience necessary for performing as students another year. (Buck up, ye Juniors!)

Section 4. To the Faculty we will our enthusiastic attitude toward the school; also our efforts in trying to make the attendance one hundred per cent.

ARTICLE IV

Section 1. I. Urho Kronquist, will my mania for winking in the direction of the Freshman girls to Jack Mills; my Ford bus to Arvo Wahto.

Section 2. I. Aili Niemi, will my permanent wave to Phyllis Lundell; my ability to edit books to Geneva Feero.

Section 3. I. Frank Pettygrove, will my manly physique to Orrin Edwards; to George Guerin my basketball ability.

Section 4. I. Mona Carlson, will my laughing disposition to Bernice Edwards; my position on the basketball team to Stephanie Africh.

Section 5. I. Margery Fox, will my ability of attracting the opposite sex to Helen Baroumes; my belongings I leave to my sister Marie, that they may be carried through another four years of fame.

Section 6. I. Harry Tassel, will my quiet, reserved manner to Frank Stragier.

Section 7. I. Saimie Kronquist, will my boisterous personality to Louise Joseph; my U. S. History accessories to my sister Enne, in hopes that she will gain something by them.

Section 8. I. John Cashen, will my name as "The Sheik" to Harry Lundell. May he profit by it!

Section 9. I. Violet Johnson, leave my ability to draw pictures of the faculty to Rosie Africh; my lovely soprano voice to Effie Fleek.

Section 10. I. Alice Tassel, will my love for studying to Emma Uberti; my example as a student to the whole assembly.

Section 11. I. Elizabeth Sey, will my romantic aspirations to Mildred Shafer; to Rex Fox, my collection of souvenirs.

Section 12. I. Mae Fraser, will my shaggy haircut to Isabell Cashen on condition that she make use of it; my position on the Girls' Team to Hilja Reinikka.

We, of the Senior Class, appoint Y. Shitanda, proprietor of the Owl Cafe in the Town of Douglas, Territory of Alaska, sole executor of this will, and direct that our executor be not required to give any bond or security for the faithful disposal of said trust.

In witness hereof, we do here set our hand and affix the seal of the Class, this first day of May, 1930.

THE SENIOR CLASS

Mae Fraser.

Senior Class Prophecy

HELLO, Everybody, this is station D. H. S. broadcasting the prophecy of the Class of '30.

Our program is dedicated to the little town of Douglas, Alaska, which has so largely aided and abetted us in achieving our present successes.

All you people in the frozen North listen and you shall hear a poem by the lately crowned poet laureate of Alaska, Urho Kronquist. Urho, as you know, was the pride and joy of old D. H. S. He will favor us with a selection entitled "She Was Such a Gold Digger, She Even Dug the Gold Out of My Teeth."

After graduation John Cashen, the sheik of D. H. S., left en route for Hollywood—and to make a long story short—is now the most popular matinee idol in the "audibles." What female in these United States has not sighed over his manly beauty? And believe me, when John looks at you with those fascinating blue orbs you've a mighty funny heart if it doesn't flop over and skip a beat. When interviewed, John gives as the reason for his astounding success, the fact he got his start watching the stars strut their stuff in Bill Ott's "Liberty," where he worked for nine years. John's latest is "The Fool's Triumph," in which he has the title role.

Mae Fraser toured the world in the interests of the Scottish Bagpipe Association, in an attempt to popularize bagpipe music. She finally settled in the Scandinavian countries and was teaching them the gentle art of playing bagpipes, when along came a big Viking. It was a case of love at first sight. The couple now have several little ones all blest with such names as Hans, Jr., Ole and Fritz. And the girl had such high ambitions!

Working in Goetz's Grocery, Frank Pettygrove, our big strong silent he-man, realized there was a strong affinity between himself and those dairy products, butter and eggs. Frank is now known as one of the biggest "butter and egg" men from way out West where men are men. But life is not all a bed of roses. Frank has had his "big sorrow." Remember the little black-haired cutie Frank was so stuck on when he was Senior and she a Frosh? It seems Frank proposed to her years ago and forgot it for she is now suing him for breach of promise. An enormous sum of money is involved. I always knew Frank's affections were worth a lot.

The queerest fate of all has come to Mona, prize athlete. One day as I was strolling along a frequented road I noticed a great commotion and heard a big, booming voice. Who should it be but Mona Carlson, standing on a soap box waving her arms and declaring to the world that woman is the superior of man! In the crowd cheering at the top of her lungs was Aili Niemi, the one-time worthy editor of the "Taku." Aili is working with Mona to further the interests of women. She publishes a periodical called "Man, the Inferior Creature." These two, it seems, have had a great disappointment concerning the male of the species.

A woman's greatness varies inversely with her size. Yes, sir, Saimie Kronquist was small and still is, but so was Napoleon. Saimie is a female combination of Count Luckener and Captain Fried. She has had many thrilling adventures in following the sea. If one wonders why she turned to this profession remember that she once had a sea-roving boy friend who may have turned her thoughts in that direction. Nevertheless, Saimie looks pretty spiffy in her white uniform.

Harry Tassel, though short in stature was broad of shoulder. He thought he resembled Jack Dempsey so followed in that man's profession. Harry is billed as "Tussling Tassel, the battling boy from Alaska," and is champion of the United States and points North, South, East and West. Who ever dreamed Harry would become a "pug"?

I always knew still waters ran deep. Alice Tassel, sister to Harry, has become Superintendent of the Sheldon Jackson school in Sitka. Great improvements in the curriculum and buildings have been made under her supervision.

Our honor student, Bess Sey, sad to relate, did not marry her cherubic boy friend of High School days as was expected. Bess whispered to me that she was "off men for life." She has written a best seller, "My Hi School Daze," and is peacefully living off the revenue derived from it. I haven't read it as yet but it must be good from the comments I've heard.

Here's the surprise of the evening. Folks. Margery Fox is running a matrimonial agency in Tallapoosa. She also runs an "Advice to the Love-lorn" column in Aili Niemi's periodical.

My profession? Years ago Frank Pettygrove told me I ought to be an aviator because I was always in the air about something. The hint sounded all right. Acting upon it, I took a trip in an airplane. Earth felt pretty good again when the birdies stopped singing. Nevertheless, I'm still up in the air broadcasting. Yes, sir.

Good-bye, Everybody, this is Station D. H. S. signing off, May 15.

Violet Johnson, '30.

D. H. S. Broadcasting

Today's program is for the Seniors
Who are about to leave De Hi.
A successful group of twelve members—
Happy and much alive.

They are about to start on "Life's Highway"
Each treading the well-worn way
Achieving fame and wealth untold.
Happy, as of yesterday.

The message we wish to bring to this group
Is to remember to always do right.
For success is not so easily won.
Except through toil and strife.

Memoirs

I was reading the Saturday's Stroller

(It was the third issue of May,
I think)

When I ran across an item

That made me clear my glasses and blink.

Under a heading "Twenty Years Ago,"

Which tells about things gone
by.

Were the names of the class of '30,
That's what caught my eye.

The first name was Elizabeth Sey
Well do I remember that girl;
She was the bright star of our class,
Always in society's whirl.

And Aili Niemi, I liked her too;
She sat just across the way;
And the hours I spent talking to her

Shortened many a long school day.

Mona Carlson, here's her name
too,

By gosh, I've near forgotten the rest—

Oh, yeah, I remember now all right—

She's the one who used to call me pest.

(Only one mind you.)

Saimie Kronquist—my sweet little cousin,

She was a trooper (and how),
She kept us smiling with her
smiles;

With the boys, she was a wow.

Then Margery Fox (I've nearly forgotten her),

She was the cutest of them all;
She had admirers, plenty of them,
To answer her beck and call.
(Remember Johnny's "Lola Pratt"?)

Violet Johnson, she lived by us
A cute little (?) blonde, I believe;

I used to get her mad a lot
But always had sense enough to leave.

And here—near the bottom of the list

I find the name Mae Fraser;
She told me to think of her
As soon as I used a razor.
(S'funny but true.)

Alice Tassell, let's see now
She was a dignified "Femme";
Quiet, too, if I recollect.
"Femme" means woman, or am I getting dumb?

~~~~~ Taku 1930 ~~~~~

Some boys' names—John Cashen
"Johnny" is what we called him.

His smile was welcome. He was
"Our Man."

Six foot something and full of vim.

(D'you remember Lola, Johnny?)

Well, well, Frank Pettygrove,

I used to know that guy,

I remember one nite I hocked his girl—

Was he mad? You should have seen his eye.

Harry Tassel, yes, sir,

There was a real fine lad!

He was quiet like his sister;

We liked him, he wasn't a bit bad.

And here's my name, Urho Kron-quist;

Gee, that makes me feel fine

"Spunkie" is what they called me
then

They made me write this rime.

Oh, those pleasant memories

I wonder how they are

These friends of mine who've scattered

O'er this earth so far.

I wonder if the "Stroller" reaches them too.

And if they wonder and dream as I so often do?

U. K., '30

Seniors' Farewell

Farewell, our dear old De Hi

To thee we'll say our last good-bye.

Thou future home of memories dear.

Some of sadness, some of cheer.

May all your students bright,

Uphold your shining light.

Commencement Exercises

COMMENCEMENT Exercises of the Douglas High School are to be held at the Coliseum Theatre, Thursday, May 15, at 8 P.M. Everyone has been cordially invited to attend.

A new type of Commencement program is being inaugurated this year. Instead of the conventional kind, in which there is an outside speaker, the Seniors themselves are to do the speaking. It will be youth's product exclusively. The several short orations will be "sandwiched" in with musical interludes. The general program has been built around the theme of current American problems.

The parts assigned to Seniors are as follows:

Salutatory—"Tomorrow's Great Drama"; Elizabeth Sey

Valedictory—"A Plea for Democracy in Education"; Aili Niemi

"Youth: A Prisoner at the Bar"; Mae Fraser

"The Cost of War"; Mona Carlson

"Who Are These Americans?"; Urho Kronquist

"Intolerance Still"; Alice Tassel

Play: "Where But In America?"

CHARACTERS

Mrs. Espenhayne ..... Margery Fox

Mr. Espenhayne ..... John Cashen

The Class will be introduced to the Board of Education by Superintendent Earl Cathcart, and one of the members of the Board will present the diplomas to the Senior Class.

Baccalaureate

BACCALAUREATE Sermon for the Douglas High School Senior Class of '30 is to be delivered by Rev. P. E. Bauer, at the Congregational Church, May 11 at 11:00 o'clock. The public has been invited to attend the farewell sermon.

The Poet's Dream

ONE night I dreamed the sun was rising
Over the top of a hill.
There's nothing much unusual in that
But, oh, it gave me a thrill.

Came morn I looked in a dreambook
The dream's meaning to find
And there, under the title of "Sunrise"
Was the dream, clearly defined:

"If one in a graduating class should dream
A dream akin to this
Let him go tell his comrades
They all shall find success.

But beware of pitfalls on the way
Think clearly, use your brain
And foremost let your motto be,
'Success for pleasure, not for gain.' "

I read the interpretation
Then told it to the bunch,
So now we'll enter life with open eyes
Guided by Brain not "Hunch."

Station . J . U . N . I . O . R .

GOOD evening, everybody. Station J-U-N-I-O-R broadcasting.

The first selection on this evening's program will be a play by the Juniors entitled "The Women's Suffragette Meeting." This play was given in the assembly, Friday afternoon, November 1, and the girls, although hopeless old spinsters, showed their ability to "turn the men down."

While you "Keep the Home Fires Burning" King's Foxy Trio will play a little tune, "Pack Up Your Troubles in Your Old Kit Bag." The Juniors have already done this. They've overcome all the worries and cares of the world and, oh, well—"what's the use of worrying?" "We're Sitting On Top of the World" "just singin' a song like nobody knows."

Next will be a march, "Le Marseillaise," led by the Juniors who are learning to speak "le francais." While we "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp" we'll play as an encore "There's a Long, Long Trail A-Winding." The trail to "the land of our dreams" was long, but by "Dawn of Tomorrow," well—it won't be long now.

Everybody got out their oars and sang "Row Your Boat," for April 11 we all danced to the tune of the "Moonlight Serenaders" at the Junior Prom. As you go "sailing" over the "bounding main," if you don't wreck, you'll find that "life is but a dream." Anyway the Juniors think so.

The next number on this evening's program will be another play, "Heart O'Pat" by the "Jolly Juniors"—a genuine family mixup, we assure you.

And now at the "End of a Perfect Day" as a concluding number on this program the Juniors will sing a song "Till We Meet Again" in the "school of great renown."

We'll be on the air again in the "Sweet By and By," "When the Juniors Come Marching to School Again" as the Seniors of "Tomorrow."

We are now signing off at exactly 3:45 P.M., May 16, 1930. Good-night, everybody.

Station . S . O . P . H .

*H*ELLO, everybody; here we are again. This is Station S-O-P-H broadcasting from the Sophomore Studio at Douglas High School.

The opening number on this program will be a "Negro Minstrel Show" sponsored by the Sophomores.

"Mock Band" will now entertain us with a selection entitled "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia." All right gang, let's go. Boy! Paul Whiteman will have to go some to beat that!

Well, fellows, what is it going to be this time? Oh! a cute little number entitled "Here Comes the Bride." Folks, doesn't that remind you of the Soph Initiation?

Listen, everybody, we have a surprise for you. The famous Soph B. B. Boys' Quartet will delight us with the latest song hit, "Go Tell Ol' Juno."

"On Ye Sophomores" is the concluding number on this program.

Station . f . R . O . S . H .

*H*ELLO, everybody! This is Station F-R-O-S-H broadcasting from Douglas High.

As an opening number on this program we will play "The Prisoner's Song" for the benefit of fifteen Freshmen. After being in High School for a while we were let free and one night under Arvo Wahto, President; Louise Joseph, Vice-President; Phyllis Edwards, Secretary; Marie Fox, Treasurer; and Mr. King, Advisor, we broke our bonds and escaped into the regions of higher ideals. After "Singing in the Bathtub" for a while, all the greenness and freshness, given to the first-year students, was washed away and again we're having "Happy Days and Lonely Nights."

All right! Here's "Am I Blue?" Anyone would be after going through the miseries of our initiation, but not for us, for we're "Sailing on a Sunbeam" on our way through school.

As a concluding number on this program we will play "Following You." Yes, Sophomores, you'd better get going because wherever you go, whatever you do, we want you to know that we're "Following You."

Station F-R-O-S-H signing off at exactly three fifteen P. M., May 15. We are coming on the air again September 2, as Station S-O-P-H.

Station . A . L . U . M .

*H*ELLO, folks; this is Station D. H. S. broadcasting Alumni activities.

Well, well, well, if here isn't a large collection of letters from the graduates of De Hi—some eighty in number. Seeing as we can't read all of them we'll try to give you the latest "sidelights" on a few. Listen in on group one. Here's one from Laina Aalto who has held a Government position as Nurse at Hoonah, Alaska, and now is home on a visit; one from Harold Gallwas, an employee at the Behrends Bank at Juneau, Alaska; another from Martha Brown, teacher at Meridian Union High School, Kent, Washington; one from Alberta Gallwas, teacher at Gustavus, Alaska; one from George Valeson, a recent visitor in his old home town, Douglas, Alaska; still another from Rangnar Kronquist, who is working at the Juneau Hardware Store, and Thomas Cashen, who is employed at the Juneau Empire Office. Here is one from Tanana, Alaska, where Rica Niemi is teaching school; and another from Beth Anderson at Mile Seven.

Well, that's that! and now, folks, for the second group.

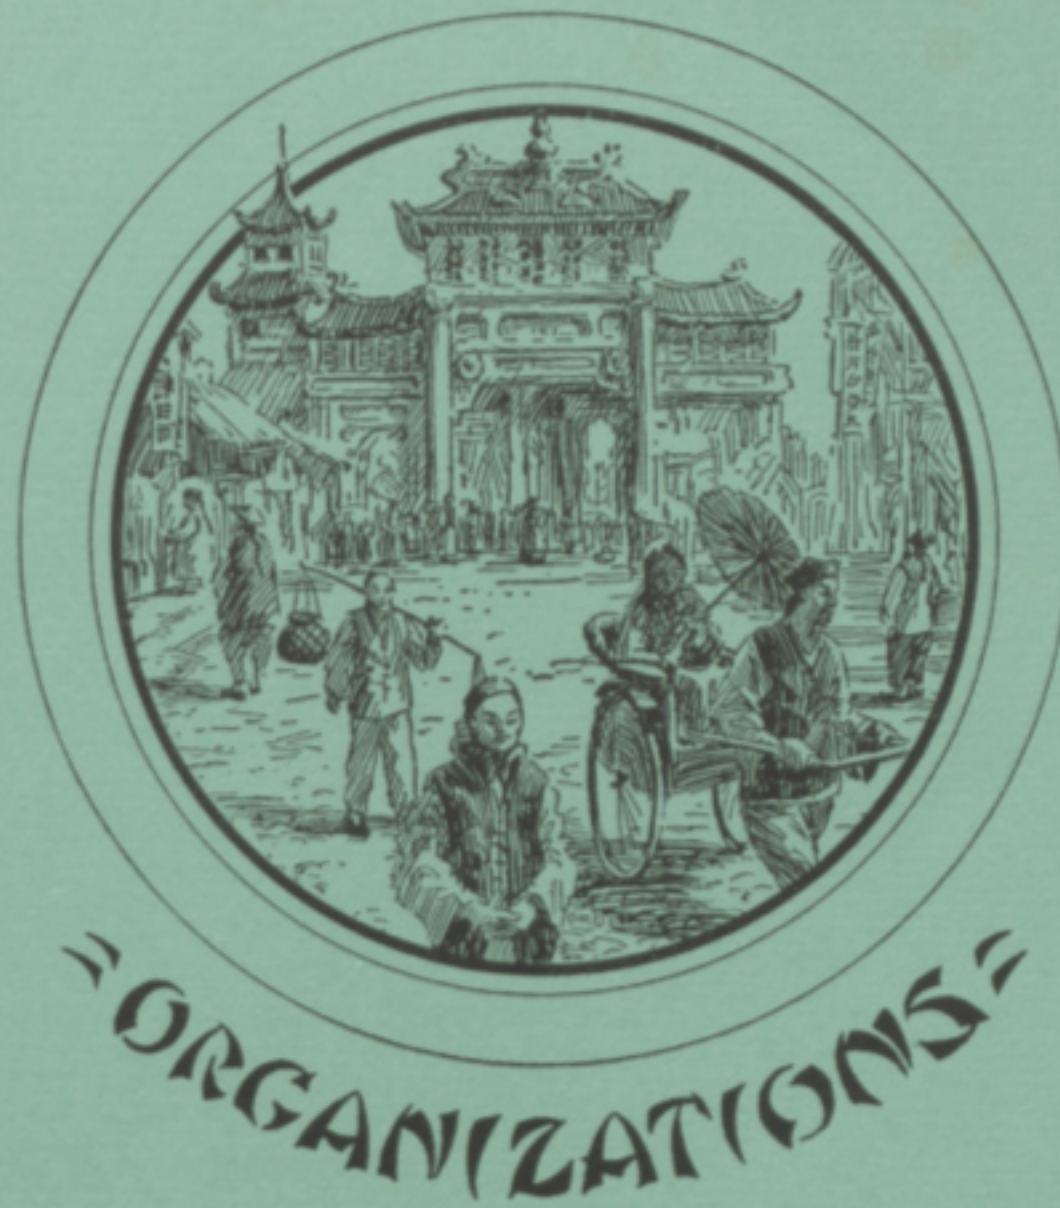

Let's see—there seems to be quite a bunch of letters from the University of Washington. We have heard from Arthur Ness, Ross Fox and Lawrence Carlson, who are making considerable headway in their studies; and from the Alaska Agricultural College, where Violet Lundell and Roberta Fraser are located.

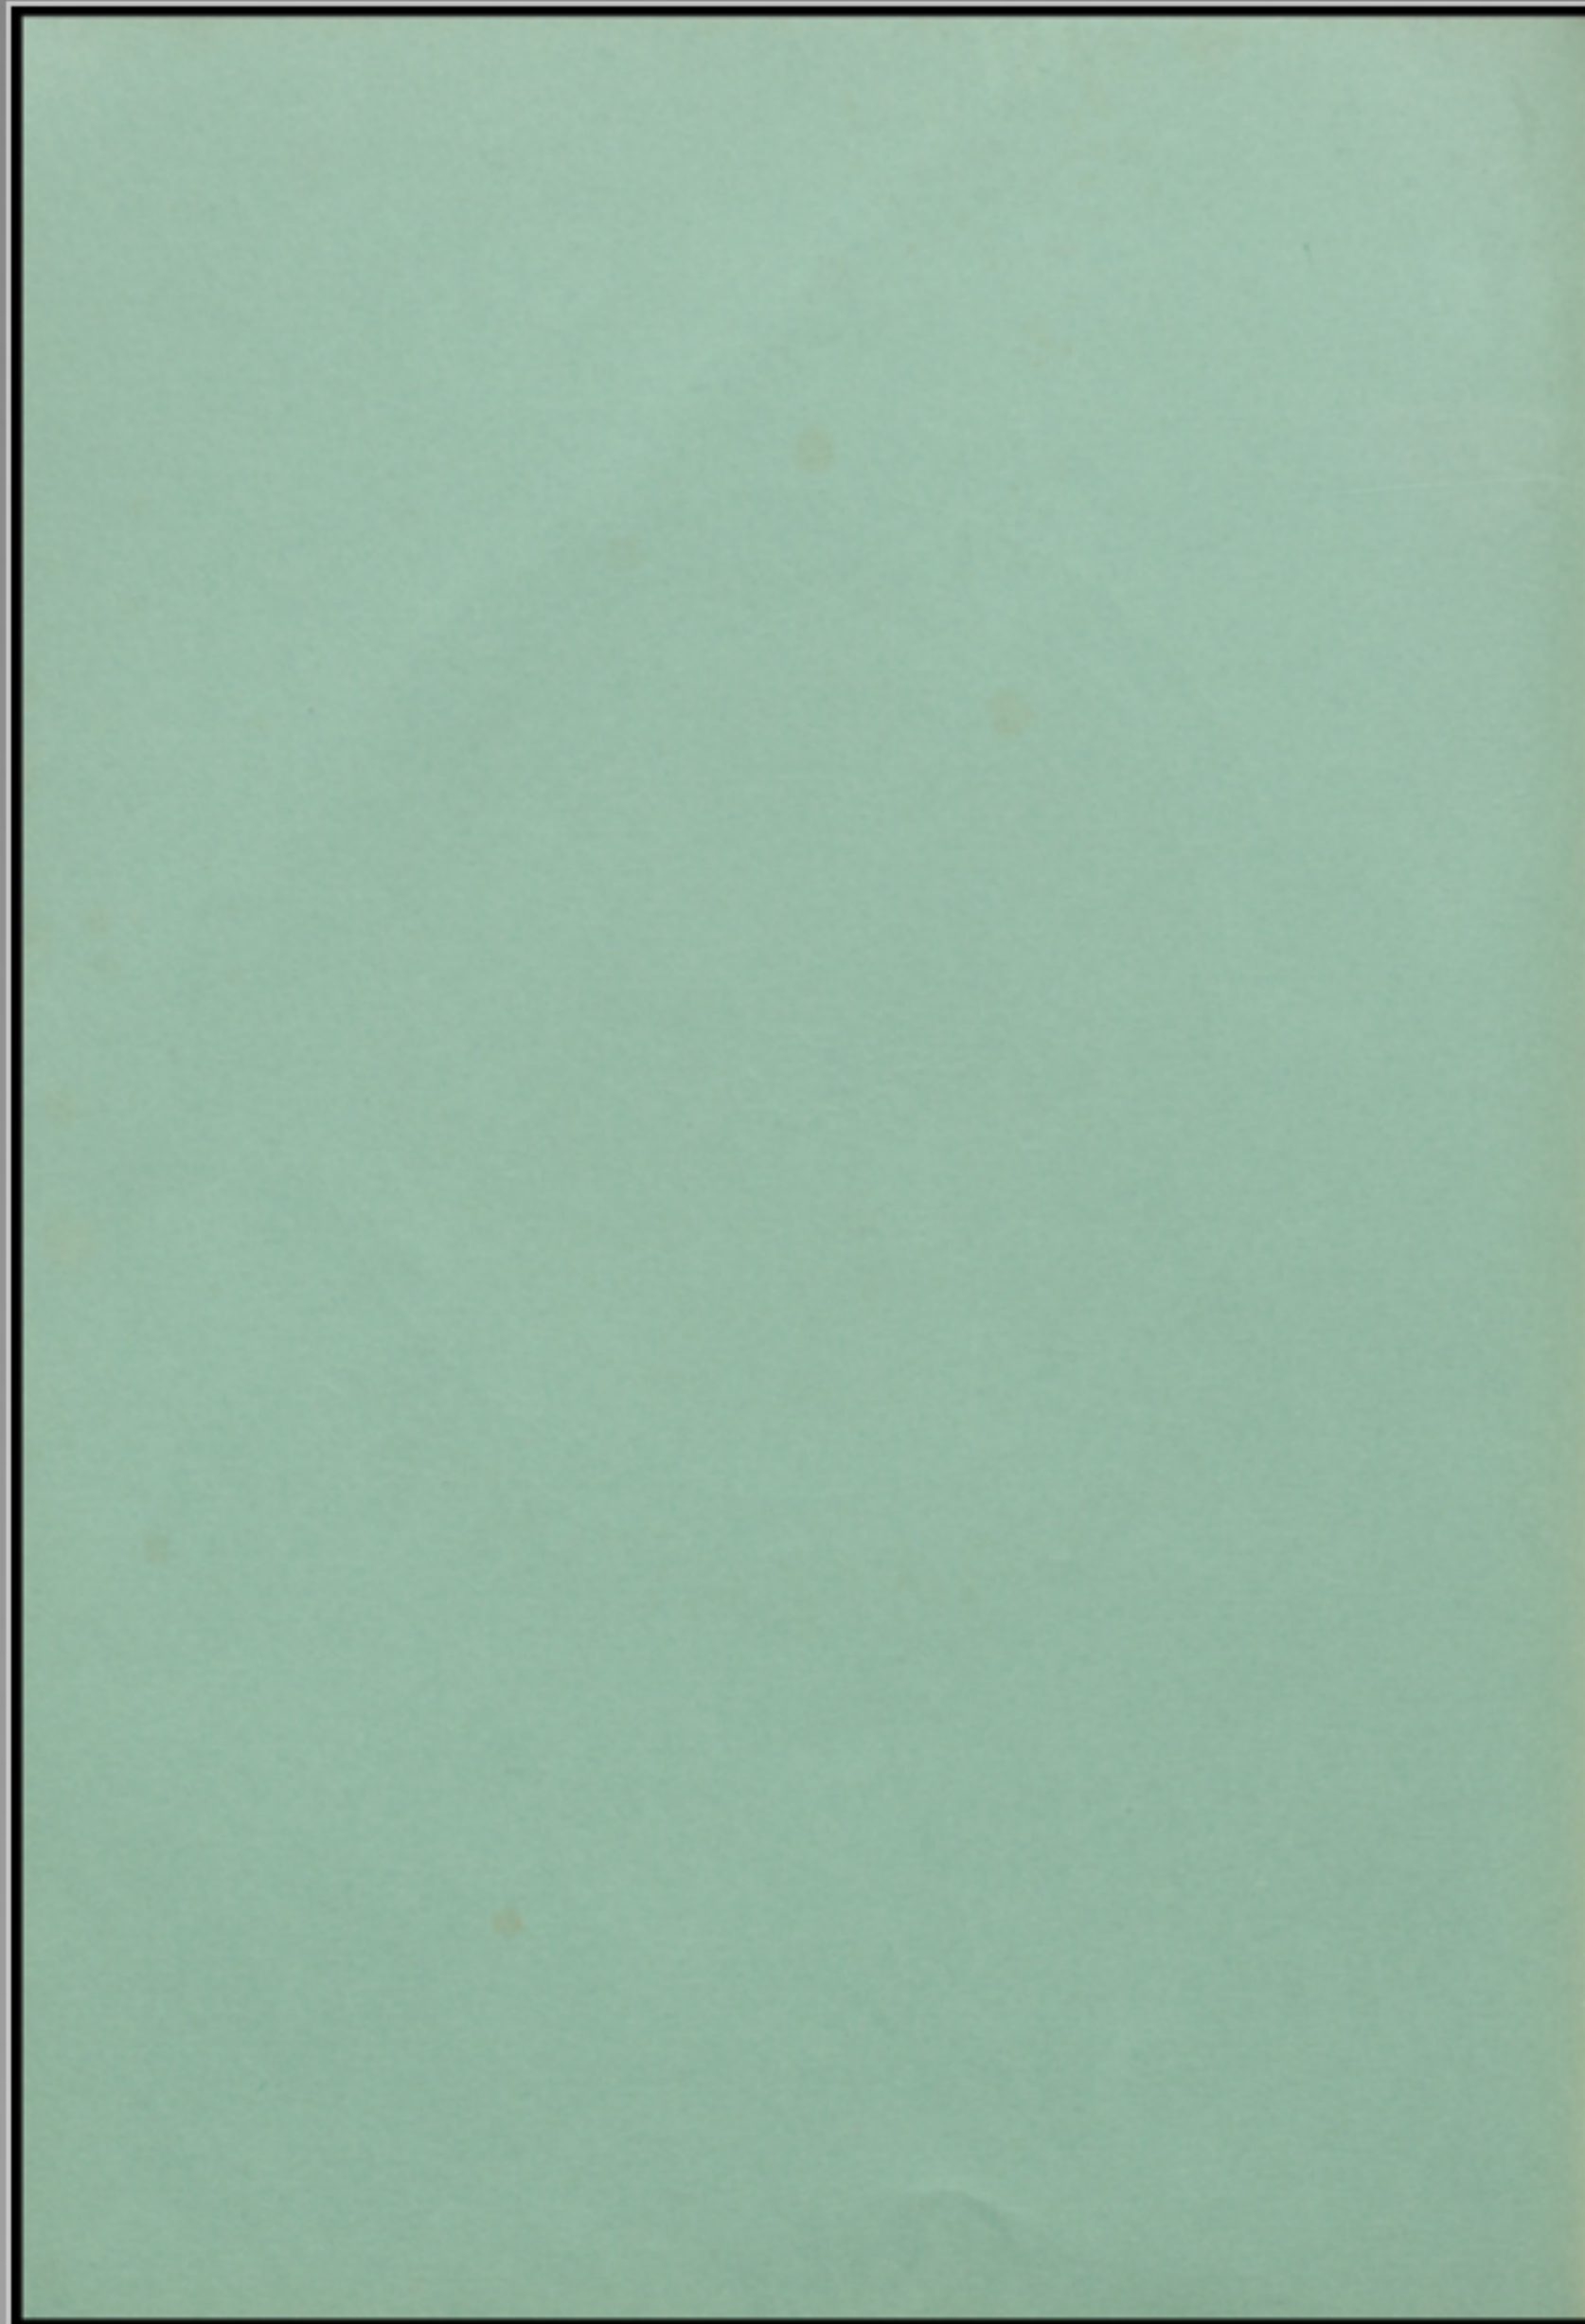

Now we're ready for the last group. You'd be surprised, folks, to see the number of letters from students who have taken up Business Administration. Listen to this list: Cecile Cashen, Lily Kronquist, Ethel Runquist, John Martin, Madeline Riedi, and Lucile Fox. They are attending Business College; or holding various positions.

Well, folks, that finishes the Alumni broadcast. We are now signing off until this time next year.

Good-bye, everybody—see you next year.

Taku Staff

LIKE Alaska, an annual cannot be built in a day, but takes patience and the faithful cooperation of the students.

The staff has used an Oriental Theme for the "Taku," with scenes representing the Orient, for division pages. Since the radio has become the popular recreation, the class and other news have been written in the form of station broadcasting.

A distinct innovation, over the previous annuals with paper covers, is the new soft leather cover.

Much credit is due to the ceaseless, untiring efforts of Mrs. Engstrom, Advisor, and Aili Niemi, Editor.

Other members of the "Staff" are Alma Savikko, Associate Editor; Enne Kronquist, Literary Editor; Elizabeth Sey and William Cashen, Sports Editors; Josephine Kilburn, Snap Shots Editor; Margery Fox, Bernice Edwards, Tauno Niemi and Stephanie Africh, Class Editors; Mona Carlson, Alumni Editor; Alice Tassel, Activities Editor; Saimie Kronquist, Organizations; Isabell Cashen, Grades; and Frank Pettygrove, Jokes and Features.

The Business Staff is composed of the following: Vieno Wahto, Business Manager; Josephine Kilburn, Assistant Business Manager; Ruth Lundell, Circulation Manager; William Cashen, Advertising Manager; and Harry Lundell, Assistant Advertising Manager.

Ours is an annual that was meant to expand, to record clearly the activities of our school; to cleverly and artistically portray its work; then, at its completion, to gain honor and distinction.

Gastineau Breeze A Success

ELEVENTH volume of the "Gastineau Breeze" was published successfully from every standpoint. A special Christmas edition containing two additional pages was printed; the profits, made by the publication of the four issues, will go to aid in the printing of the "Taku," the school annual.

The literary staff of the "Breeze" includes: Aili Niemi, Editor; Alma Savikko, Associate Editor; Ruth Lundell, Literary; Elizabeth Sey and William Cashen, Sports; Frank Pettygrove and Bernice Edwards, Jokes and Gossip; Isabell Cashen, Grades; Alice Tassel, Bernice Edwards, Tauno Niemi, and Stephanie Africh, Class Reporters; Margery Fox and Hilja Reinikka, Odds and Ends.

Business Staff of the "Breeze" is composed of Mae Fraser, Business Manager; Vieno Wahto, Assistant; Ruth Lundell, Circulation Manager; Elizabeth Sey and Mae Fraser, Typists; and Mrs. E. E. Engstrom, Advisor.

"A Successful High School Paper Through Cooperation," is the motto of the paper, written by Ruth Lundell and adopted this year.

Associated Student Body

ASSOCIATED Student Body, High School organization, is a club composed of both High School students and instructors.

Regular monthly meetings, beside special ones, are held by the A. S. B. Semester dues are required of each member. The two most important functions performed by the A. S. B. are issuing the school paper, "The Gastineau Breeze," and the annual, "The Taku."

Several A. S. B. dances have been given this year which have proved successful both socially and financially. The first dance was given in order to help defray expenses for the boys' basketball trip to Skagway. The second A. S. B. dance was given March 11, for the purpose of swelling the A. S. B. funds. As in former years, the annual picnic will take place the last day of school, Friday, May 16.

The retiring officers and their successors are as follows:

P.-T. A.

P.-T. A. is an organization composed of both parents and teachers of Douglas. On the first Tuesday of each month, this body meets to conduct its business and for social purposes. After the business meeting, a program is given featuring the talents of the students of Douglas School and members of the P.-T. A. Usually an outside speaker gives the main address.

At the April meeting officers were elected for the ensuing year. The retiring officers and their successors are as follows:

1929-30

|                   |                |

| Mrs. Elton Engstrom | Secretary      |
| Mrs. Jack Sey       | Treasurer      |

Reception for Teachers

In the Eagles' Hall, September 3, a reception was given in honor of the faculty of the Douglas Public School. Part of the evening's entertainment was a well-rendered program of the following numbers:

|                    |                     |
|--------------------|---------------------|
| Address of Welcome | Mayor L. W. Kilburn |
| Response           | Supt. Earl Cathcart |
| Songs              | Girls' Glee Club    |
| Reading            | Bernice Edwards     |

After the program, members of the P.-T. A. served refreshments.

Exchanges

"GASTINEAU BREEZE" has an exchange list of seventy schools, in both the United States and Alaska. That the "Gastineau Breeze" is welcomed by other schools can readily be seen from the various comments in the other high school papers. "Kayhitems," Ketchikan, Alaska, says:

"The 'Gastineau Breeze,' Douglas, Alaska, is one of the most interesting and well-written papers on our exchange list. The school news is exceptionally well covered."

"Fads in Dress," an article that appeared in the first issue of our paper, is commented upon by several school papers, among them "The Grizzly," Fort Smith, Arkansas, and "High Times," Lynchburg, Virginia. The former paper says, "That the girls in Alaska were wearing sun-tan back dresses in October is incredible but true."

The Mechanics Arts High School, Boston, Massachusetts, says: "It is remarkable that a school with so small an enrollment can publish such a fine paper. Your motto for a successful paper is very fitting."

That the "Gastineau Breeze" has a sister paper can be seen by the letter D. H. S. received from the "Western Breeze," Washington, D. C., asking to join our exchange list.

"Breeze" staff and students welcome all exchanges and appreciate receiving them.

Some of the best papers on our exchange list are "Roosevelt News," Seattle, Washington; "Artisan," Boston, Massachusetts; "The Augustan," Augusta, Kansas; "The Olympus," Olympia, Washington; "Spartan Shield," Huntington Park, California; "Lewis and Clark Journal," Spokane, Washington.

Girls' Glee Club

UNDER the supervision of Miss Katherine Shier, a girls' glee club was organized. Practically all of the High School girls turned out. The glee club has sung at Parent-Teacher meetings and the Church Bazaar.

Both popular and classical music has been learned by the students. Some of the songs studied are "Four-Leaf Clover," "My Song of the Nile," "She Sang Aloha to Me," "Maria Marie," "Neapolitan Nights," and "Carolina Moon."

Boys' Glee Club

WITH Supt. Cathcart as leader, a boys' glee club was formed. All of the High School boys joined. The glee club has performed at the Parent-Teacher meetings.

Both classical and popular music has been studied by the boys. Some of the songs that have been sung are "Dream Train," "Utah Trail," and selections from the book, "Boys' Own Chorus Book."

~~~~~ Taku 1930 ~~~~~

"Bits of Blarney"

UNDER the leadership of Miss Shier, the Glee Clubs will produce "Bits O' Blarney," an operetta in two acts, at the Coliseum Theatre, May 10. The time is present and the setting is laid in the roadway leading into a private estate with the caretaker's cottage at back left.

The plot running through the operetta is that the girls are telling their troubles to Mike O'Noole, the caretaker. Peggy has charmed all their sweethearts away from them. Patrick, who is very much in love with Peggy, also finds in Mike a sympathetic listener to his problem of how to win her away from all her admirers. Patrick and Peggy decide to disguise, one as a girl and the other as a doctor. Mike is the humorous character, matchmaker, and philosopher. Everything works out for a happy ending, largely due to Mike's shrewd strategy.

Station . E . I . G . H . T .

HELLO, everybody! This is Station E-I-G-H-T broadcasting the news of the year.

"Merrily" our class, numbering six boys and six girls, come eagerly to school to continue the studies of the year.

We have studied mathematics, French, English, History and Civics. For literature we studied "Julius Caesar," Old Testament Stories, "Ivanhoe," "Evangeline" and "Midsummer Night's Dream." For history we each wrote an essay on "Forests of Alaska" and collected specimens of different trees to make our illustrations more complete. We also made geography and French projects.

We had a Hallowe'en party, at which the Freshmen were present; and also a Christmas party.

At the P.-T. A. meeting in February we sang songs, and two of our pupils, Wilma Feero and Violet Runquist, gave a play entitled "Jealousy." At the March P.-T. A. we sold refreshments.

Our class is going to have Graduation Exercises this year, which will be the first in a number of years. The violin quartet will play at the exercises. The girls will make their own dresses of white voile.

Good-bye, "Till We Meet Again." Station E-I-G-H-T now signing off at exactly 3:45 P.M., May 15.

Stations. S. D. X. & S. E. V. E. M

HELLO, everybody! This is Station 6 and 7 broadcasting from the Douglas School.

As an opening number on this program we will play "Wouldn't It Be Wonderful?" Yes, wouldn't it be, if we could keep up our record. Thirteen members in each grade is a lucky number, isn't it? But we've lost two already as Catherine Brown left for Station SHELDON JACKSON at Sitka, and August De Roux left for Station BEAR CREEK.

The next number will be "Smile and the World Smiles With You." It was hard for us to believe that at first when we had so much home work to do. We thought the song should be changed to "Frown and the World Frowns With You," but we changed our opinion when we found out we could be "Painting Those Clouds With Sunshine."

Just listen to these broadcasts: "Little By Little" our thermometer chart in spelling is rising and soon it will be "High Upon a Hilltop." Here's "Yankee Doodle" for history. We are now taking Study Guide tests in the seventh grade and are getting along nicely. But here's our "Geography Song":

"We could cross the burning desert; Cross the mighty ocean wide; We could climb the highest mountain, if we had our geography books by our side."

On literature we have been memorizing poems written by great authors and "We'll always be in love with them." As a closing number on this program here's "The Sixth and Seventh Grade Revue of 1930." Station 6 and 7 signing off at exactly 3:45 P.M., May 15. We will come on the air again September 2 as Stations 7 and 8.

Stations T.H.R.E.E, f.O.U.R and f.I.V.E

HELLO, everybody! This is Station 3-4-5 broadcasting the program of the year's activities.

"At the Break of Day," we studious pupils begin our daily duties. To brighten up "School Days" we had a Mask Party, October 29.

Because of the departure of Miss Brennecke, on account of her sister's illness, Miss Johnson arrived October 30 to fill the vacancy.

The fourth and fifth grades began arithmetic races which were held 20 minutes every morning for two months. In December we made booklets, posters and cards, and a North Pole scene showing Santa's work shop. December 24 we gave a Christmas program.

In January we published two booklets, "Pet Tales" and "Study of Madonna." In February we displayed pictures of Washington and Lincoln with many historic scenes. February 14 we had a Valentine Party. We published patriotic booklets in March and initiated daily mail service, which kept us in touch with all parts of the world.

In April we had a display of bunnies, eggs, chicks and Easter necessities. Now that we are through with our activities we are "Breezing Along With the Breeze."

Third Grade: Albert Savikko, Douglas Wahto, Raymond Seferovich, George Stragier.

Fourth Grade: Patty Brown, Helen Edwards, Mary Ellen Spain, Le Roy De Roux, Hjalmar Savikko.

Fifth Grade: Agnes Baroumes, Marjorie Doogan, Jennie Johnson, Vera Kirkam, Ruth Langseth, Jacnyth Sey, Gerald Cashen, Teddy Doogan, Wilfred Fleck, Robert Feero, Rudolph Pusich, Joe Riedi, Arthur Reinikka, Albert Uberti.

Stations . O . M . E . and . T . W . O .

HELLO, everybody! This is Station 1 and 2 broadcasting from the Primary Room of the Douglas Public School.

Life isn't monotonous in our room for one dozen boys and five girls keep us interested and busy. Nine beginners came to keep the eight pupils in Grade II company. It seemed as if we all entered with the determination to read, write and do number work as well as our brothers and sisters, so progress was very rapid. Not only did we complete the course required in Reading, but have read two additional readers and several library books. Grade II have done equally well. Following phonics, and with a speller, spelling was fun. Number work was given without games, consequently we learned the "cold facts" from the beginning.

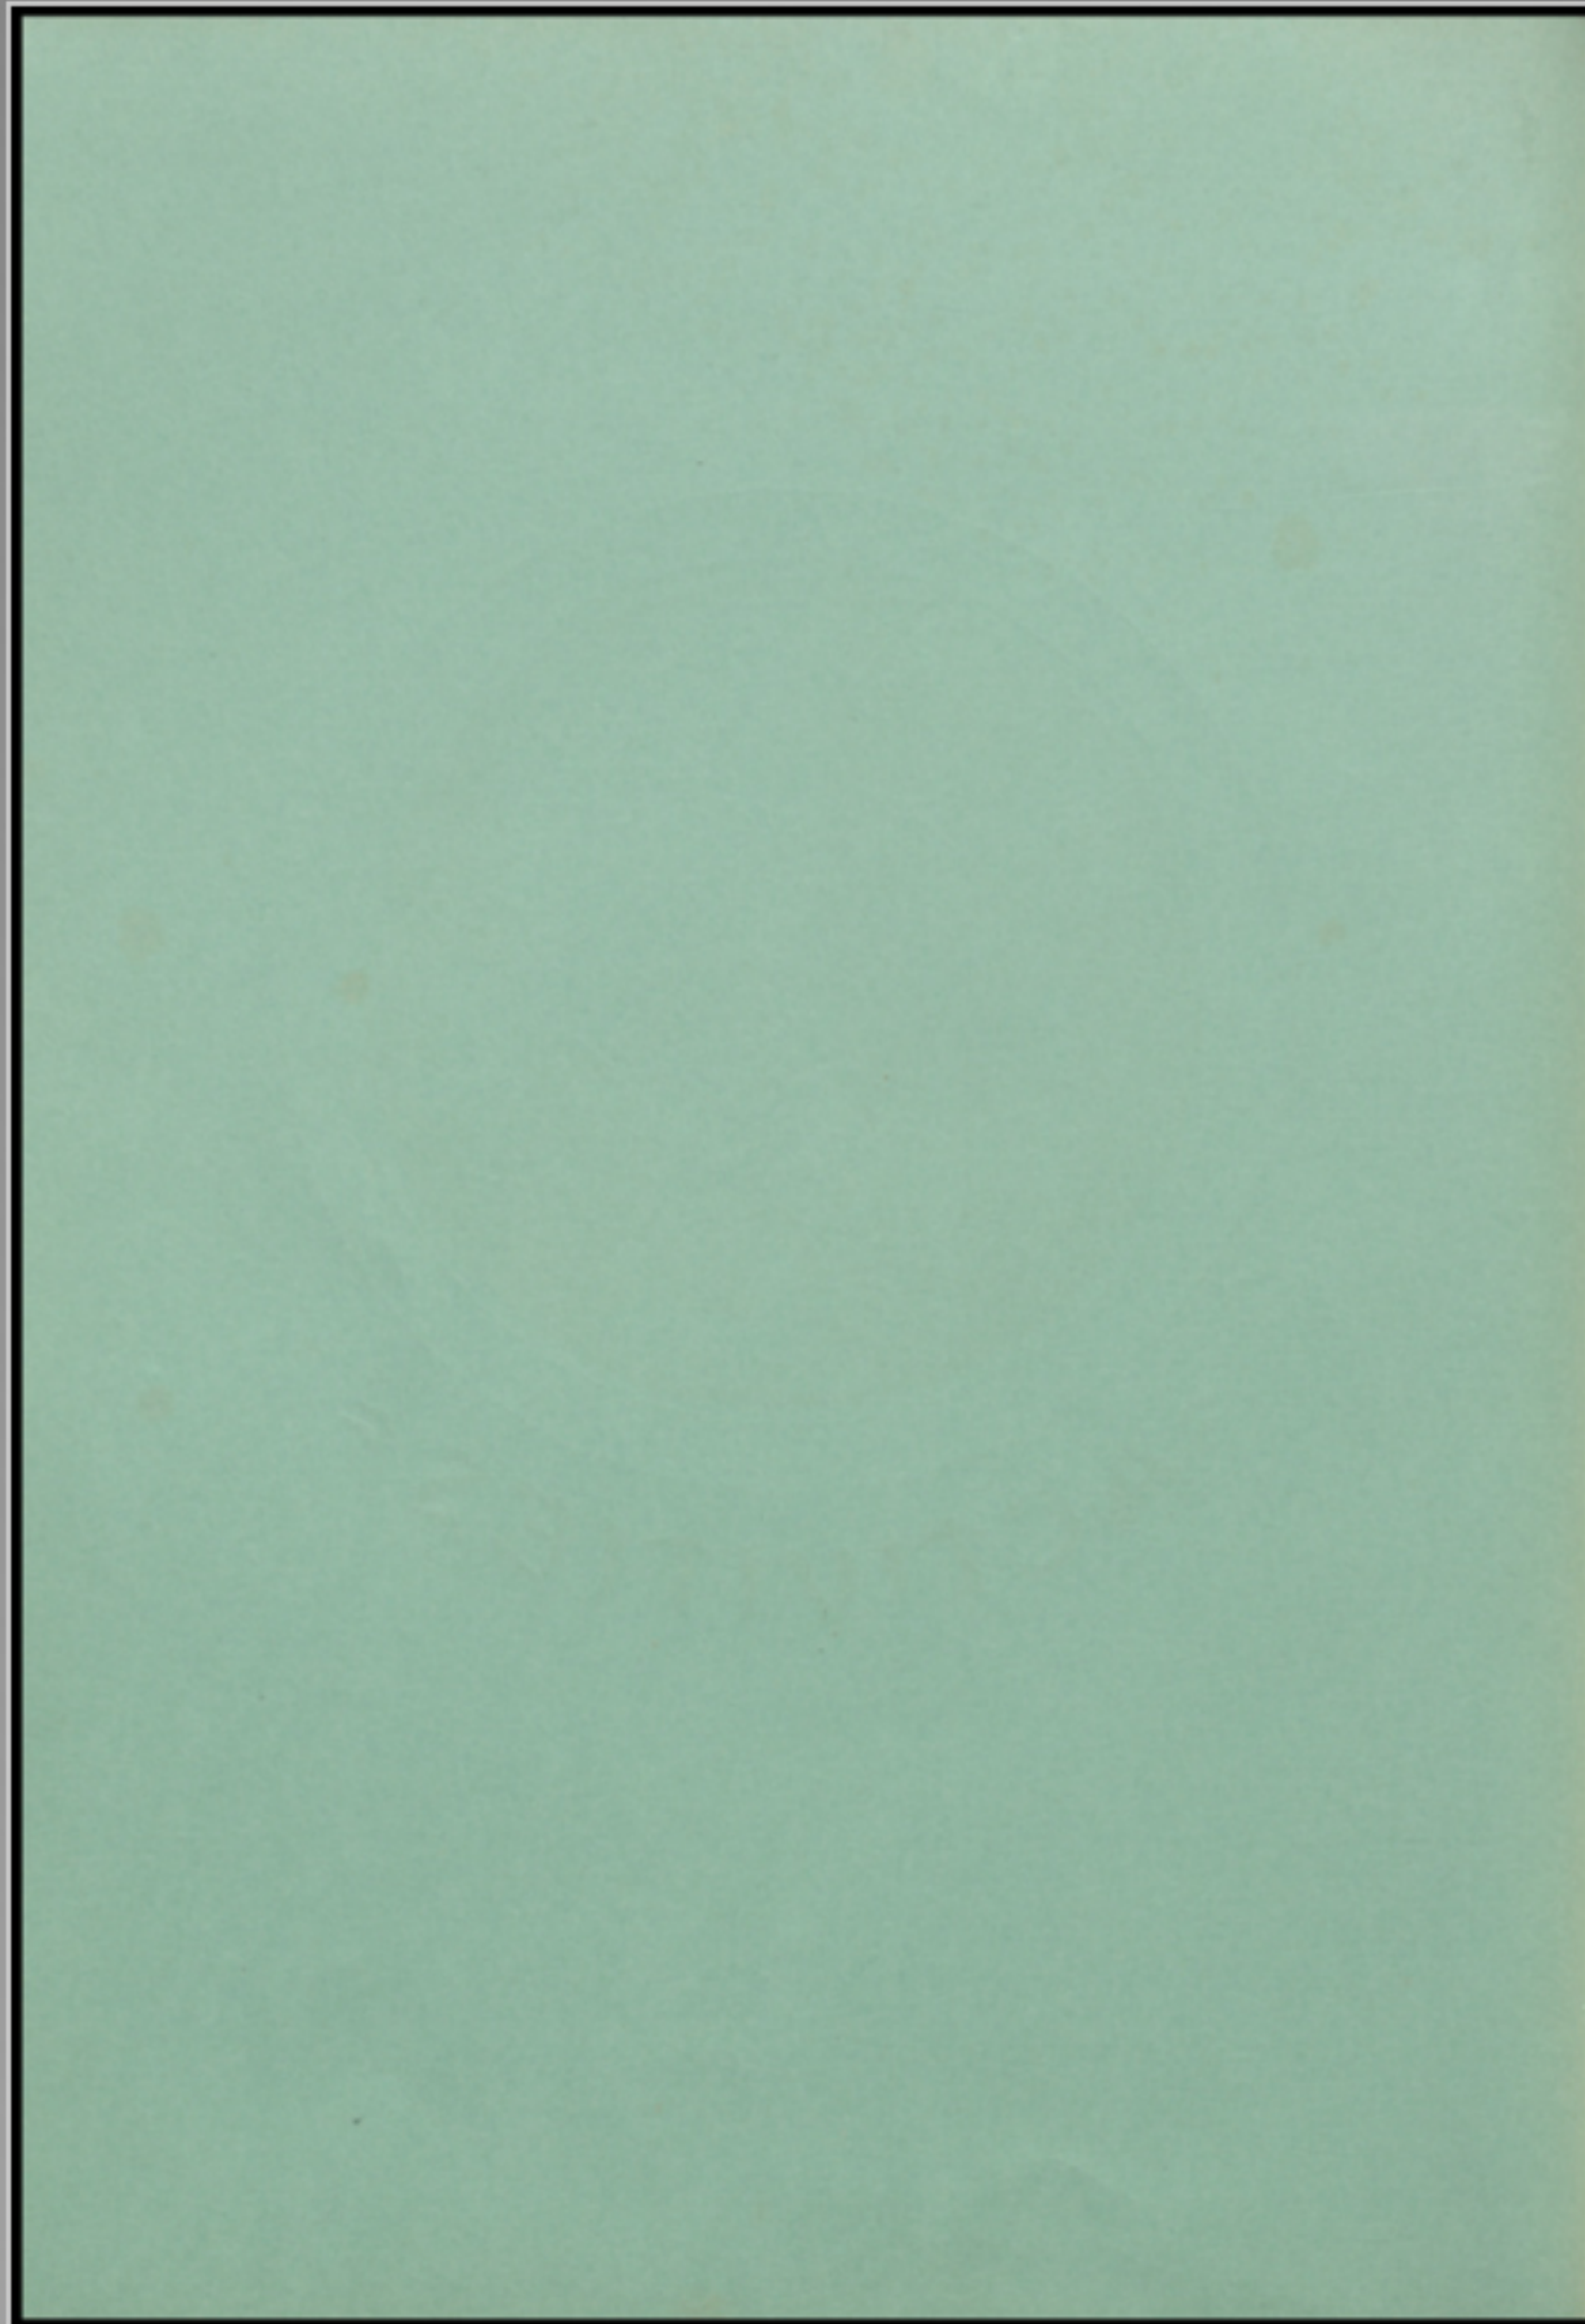

Different booklets on Hallowe'en and Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays have been made, but the desert, Christmas and Holland scenes in the sand-table proved most interesting. We were allowed to play at the table so words like "dyke," "canal," and "oasis" were easily learned.

Our social activities centered around birthdays, for each was celebrated. Usually there was a "hunt" for the gift, then refreshments. We had a Christmas tree and small program. An afternoon of plays, recitations, and songs was given for the parents and then, last but not least—the picnic on the last day of school!

First Grade: Billy Feero, Glen Kronquist, Dayton Fleck, Francis Doogan, Yolanda Uberti, Billy Spain, Kenneth Loken, Roy Brown, Florence Brown.

Second Grade: Gordon Wahto, Henry Shittanda, Grace Pusich, Virginia Langseth, Daniel Krusal, Louis Shaffer, John Doogan, Ethel Loken.

"Heart O'Pat"--- Junior Play

|                               |                         |                |
|-------------------------------|-------------------------|----------------|
| Mrs. William Livingston ..... | Billy Marshall .....    | Harry Lundell  |
| ..... Josephine Kilburn       | Phil Clark .....        | William Cashen |
| Bill Livingston .....         | F. P. O'Flannigan ..... | Tauno Niemi    |
| Gladys Livingston .....       | Peggy Middleton .....   | Ruth Lundell   |
| Patricia Livingston .....     | "Trip" Busty .....      | Angus Gair     |

Juniors presented "Heart O'Pat," their class play, a lively, amusing comedy in three acts, April 26, in the Coliseum Theatre. The action takes place in the living room of the Livingstons, a prosperous but not wealthy family living in a small town near New York.

The play concerns Patricia Livingston who "runs second" to her older sister, Gladys, a selfish, overbearing girl. Mrs. Livingston, the mother, favors Gladys, always taking her part when any disagreement arises between her two daughters. Bill Livingston, the "Pop" of the family, is a good-natured, easy-going husband except when his petulant, tearful wife prods him too far and arouses his ire. "Pop," seeing that "Pat" is treated unfairly, thinks it is time to take a part in righting things.

Of course, there is a hero to the piece. Phil Clark thinks he is in love with Gladys, in spite of her inconsiderate treatment of him, until Patricia, who really loves him, persuades him differently. However, Billy Marshall provides a solution for Gladys' future after she tries to take Phil away from "Pat" and finds it is too late.

The play, which was full of action and laugh-provoking situations, immensely pleased the large audience which witnessed its staging. A matinee was given Saturday afternoon for children.

To Mrs. Engstrom, coach, much is owing for the success with which the Junior Play was staged.

"Bungalow Bride"

Coached by Mrs. Engstrom, the first-year students presented "Bungalow Bride," a one-act play, December 13, in the High School assembly hall.

Cast of the play was:

|                         |                 |                   |                |
|-------------------------|-----------------|-------------------|----------------|
| Elfreda Bailey .....    | Marie Fox       | Lula .....        | Helen Stragier |
| Claribel Hastings ..... | Phyllis Lundell | Paula .....       | Erne Kronquist |
| Mrs. De Vere .....      | Nina Baroumes   | Mary (Maid) ..... | Emma Uberti    |
| Stanley De Vere .....   | Arvo Wahto      |                   |                |

Briefly, the plot was this: The marriage of Stanley De Vere upsets the plans of Claribel Hastings, a snobbish young lady. Immediately after the news of the wedding, Miss Bailey, a maid, dignified and mannerly, appears at the De Vere home. Miss Hastings incessantly snubs and ridicules Miss Bailey, who, despite all this, succeeds in winning the love and esteem of Stanley's mother.

Seniors Present Comedy

Seniors gave a realistic presentation of the comical, two-act play "Arrival of Billy," in the assembly room, January 24.

Cast of characters follows:

|                                        |                |
|----------------------------------------|----------------|
| Margaret .....                         | Aili Niemi     |
| John, her husband .....                | John Cashen    |
| Miss Flint, a gossip old maid .....    | Violet Johnson |
| Mrs. Nelson, a friendly neighbor ..... | Elizabeth Sey  |
| Margaret's mother .....                | Mona Carlson   |
| Miss Wright, a nurse .....             | Mae Fraser     |

Seniors Hold Kangaroo Court

FRIDAY afternoon, October 11, the Seniors held a "Kangaroo Court" in the Assembly room. Officials were:

|                  |                      |
|------------------|----------------------|
| Frank Pettygrove | Judge                |
| Elizabeth Sey    | Prosecuting Attorney |
| Urbo Kronquist   | Attorney for Defense |
| Mae Fraser       | Clerk                |
| Other Seniors    | Jury                 |

Two cases were brought before the court, namely: the marriage of Helen Baroumes and John Mills; and the criminal trial of Orrin Edwards, suspected of trying to poison Mr. Cathcart.

As would be expected, the participants in the first case left the court joyfully. In the second, Orrin Edwards was found guilty and was sentenced to sing "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," while sitting on a certain young lady's desk.

Negro Minstrel Show

SOPHOMORES gave a colorful and fantastic negro minstrel show in the Assembly room, November 15. Outstanding characters were:

|                              |                           |
|------------------------------|---------------------------|
| Orrin Edwards                | Mr. Bones                 |
| Tauno Niemi                  | Sambo                     |
| William Cashen               | Mr. Johnson               |
| Frank Stragier               | Ima Bigfellow             |
| Angus Gair and Harry Lundell | Rosie, the trick horse    |
| George Guerin                | Leader of the "Mock Band" |

"Rosie," the trick horse, and "Ima Bigfellow" were exhibited. A speech, "De Squegee," was given by Florence Peterson; while the "Mock Band," directed by George Guerin, played "Nobody Knows." Vocal choruses were: Girls, "Mighty Lak a Rose"; and Boys, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia."

Sophs Initiate Frosh

SOPHOMORES gave an enjoyable party for the first-year students in the Odd Fellows' Hall, October 11. The high school and faculty were also present. In response to the Sophomores' command that they give a play at the party, the Freshmen, coached by Mrs. Engstrom, presented the "Coontowns' Wedding."

While undergoing a series of initiation tortures, the guests of honor showed much pep and sportsmanship. Delicious refreshments were served after the initiation. Dancing ended the delightful evening.

Student Body Gives Apron Dance

IN order to raise funds for school activities, the Associated Student Body gave an apron dance at the "Nat." November 8. The "prize waltz" added much to the evening's fun. Music was furnished by King's Orchestra.

Frosh Frolic

ANNUAL Frolic of the Freshman class will be held May 4. A boat will be chartered to take the picknickers to Shelter Island. The eats will be furnished by the Freshman class. The entire high school is invited to attend.

Adolph Engstrom Host At Banquet

A BANQUET was given at the Arcade Cafe Saturday, March 1, in honor of the Girls' Basketball team. Mr. Adolph Engstrom of Wrangell was the host, although he was not able to be present.

Covers were laid for twelve. The guests included Supt. Earl Cathcart, Miss Pepoon, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Engstrom, Mona Carlson, Mae Fraser, Vieno Wahito, Ruth Lundell, Joe Kilburn, Rosie Africh, Effie Fleek and Elizabeth Sey. Speeches, appropriate to the occasion were made by all those present.

Basketball Squads Entertained

SUPT. Earl Cathcart and Seniors gave a lively party for the boys' and girls' basketball squad, at the former's residence Saturday evening, December 14.

Cards, with whist and bridge in play, occupied the first part of the evening. Urbo Kronquist and Rosie Africh won prizes for whist; Effie Fleek and Mr. King for bridge. Then delicious refreshments were served, after which the guests' attention turned to dancing. School songs and cheers ended the party. Everyone enthusiastically declared that the evening was well spent.

Basketball Dinner For Girls

MR. William Haynes, of Juneau, was host to the girls' basketball team and Coach Pepoon with a dinner at Mabry's Cafe, Friday, February 21.

"Pie and Cootie" Party

MEMBERS of the girls' basketball squad were invited by Miss Pepoon to a "Pie and Cootie" party, Monday, March 3. Invitations were shaped like basketballs. Covers were laid for twelve. Afterwards a "Cootie" game was enjoyed. Mae Fraser was the best "Cootie" drawer, receiving first prize; while Elizabeth Sey won the consolation.

~~~~~ Taku 1930 ~~~~~

Boys' Basketball Treats

JANUARY 26, the basketball boys were guests at a waffle feed at Tom Cashen's. After staging a waffle endurance race, the "dieters" played cards and checkers and got their pictures "took."

February 3, the boys forgot training rules and indulged in pineapple nut cake with whipped cream, at Engstroms'. After about three hours of eating the "in training" lads felt sufficiently nourished to walk home.

After the basketball game February 7, the boys were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Engstrom and Mr. Cathcart at the Engstrom apartment. After filling up on ice cream, cookies and coffee and a general discussion of the topics of the hour, the boys filled their pockets with the remaining cookies and got out under the midnight sun.

Junior Prom

JUNIOR Prom was held April 11, in the Douglas Natatorium. A novel boating plan was used as a decorative scheme. The hall was festooned with black and white streamers. Port-holes along the balconies gave the appearance of a ship, and even a light-house was constructed in the middle of the floor.

In the entrance was a gangplank leading to the dance floor. Different signs such as "Purser," "Upper Deck," "Lower Deck," "Social Hall," and "Observation Room" served the dancers as meeting places in different sections of the hall. Moonlite Serenaders furnished the music. The spotlight played on the dancers during the waltzes. Each dance was named after some town between Juneau and Seattle. Committees were as follows: Decorating Committee, Josephine Kilburn; tickets, Isabell Cashen.

Senior Sneak

SENIORS and their advisor, Mr. Cathcart, went on the annual "sneak" in April. They journeyed in cars to Auk Bay, where a bonfire was built and lunch served. A very enjoyable outing was reported.

Poetry Contest

POETRY contest sponsored by the Fairbanks P.-T. A. has been entered by both the grade and high school students of Douglas. Douglas entrants submitted one poem each; the best of which were sent to Fairbanks. In this contest, subjects dealing with some phase of life or activity in Alaska are preferred. Prizes for each division, grade and high school, are as follows: first, $5.00; second, $3.00; and two honorable mentions, $1.00 each.

Typing Awards

TWO students, Isabell Cashen and Mae Fraser, won typing awards presented by the L. C. Smith Typewriter Company. Both girls made above the minimum speed of 40 words, Isabell making 49 words a minute and Mae 46.

School Exhibit

GENERAL exhibition of work which has been done by the grades and high school will be held at the P.-T. A. meeting, May 6. The public will be invited to inspect the exhibit before and after the meeting. Among the high school displays will be note books, maps, drawings, Home Economics work and projects completed as part of English Literature. Executive Committee of the P.-T. A. are arranging for refreshments to be served to compliment the teachers.

Essay Contest

AMERICAN Problems Class entered the contest, sponsored by the D. A. R. at Fairbanks, on the subject "How High School Students Can Aid in Developing a Sentiment for Law-Enforcement." The essays chosen were those written by Aili Niemi, Orrin Edwards and Margery Fox. After the best essay has been chosen from the territory it will be submitted in a National Contest.

Taku 1930

Declamation Contest

DOUGLAS did not enter the Declamatory contest which was held at Ketchikan, April 10. But there will be a local contest Saturday, May 3. Prizes will be $5, $3 and $1 for those placing first, second and third, respectively.

Those taking part in the contest with their selections are:

Elizabeth Sey—"The Chariot Race."

Tauno Niemi—"The Traitor's Death-bed."

Mae Fraser—"Scene on a Battlefield."

Vieno Wahto—"The Money Spider."

William Cashen—"Crimson Shroud of Olaf Guldmar."

Phyllis Edwards—"Sergeant Prentiss' First Plea."

Bernice Edwards—"Michael Strogoff."

The Honor Roll

AFTER figuring up the scholastic standing of the various classes, De Hi takes pride in broadcasting the Honor Roll. Seniors have an average of 50%; Juniors 61%; Sophomores 41%; and Freshmen 25%.

Each class has had the name of several of its members on the Honor Roll, which placement requires a "B" average, every six weeks. To have one's name on the distinctive Special Honor Roll, one must have an "A" average. Elizabeth Sey, Senior, has been on the Special Honor Roll every time, while Isabell Cashen and Vieno Wahto, Juniors; Hilja Reinikka, Sophomore; and Stephanie Africh, Freshman, have won places on it several times.

Sweater Awards

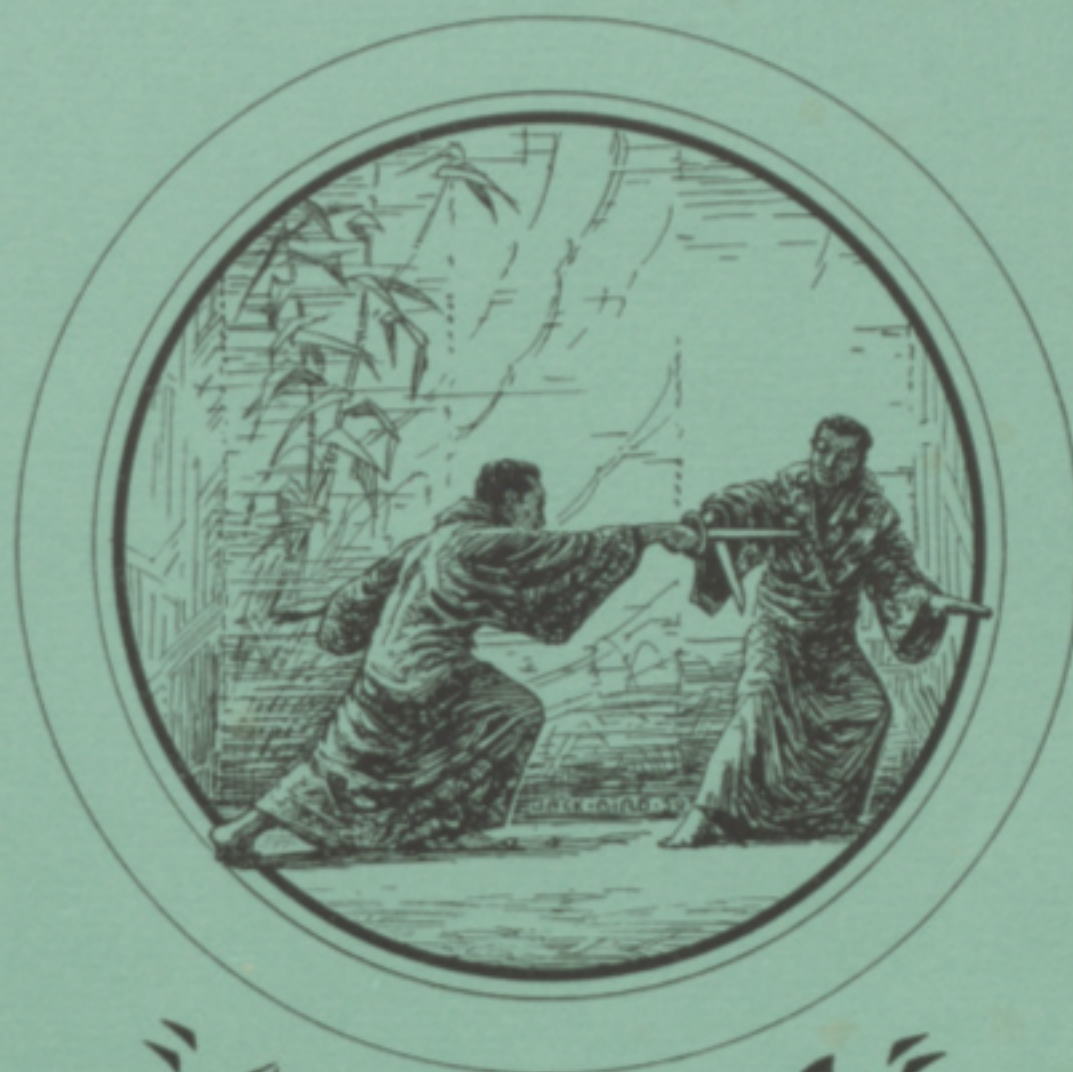

FOUR Seniors receive sweaters this year. To earn a sweater the student has to be on the first team three years and have three letters. However, three of those eligible this year have played four years. The sweaters are navy blue with gold stripes on the arm. The students receiving them are: Mae Fraser, Mona Carlson, John Cashen, four years; and Elizabeth Sey, three years.

"Gastineau Breeze" Entered in Contest

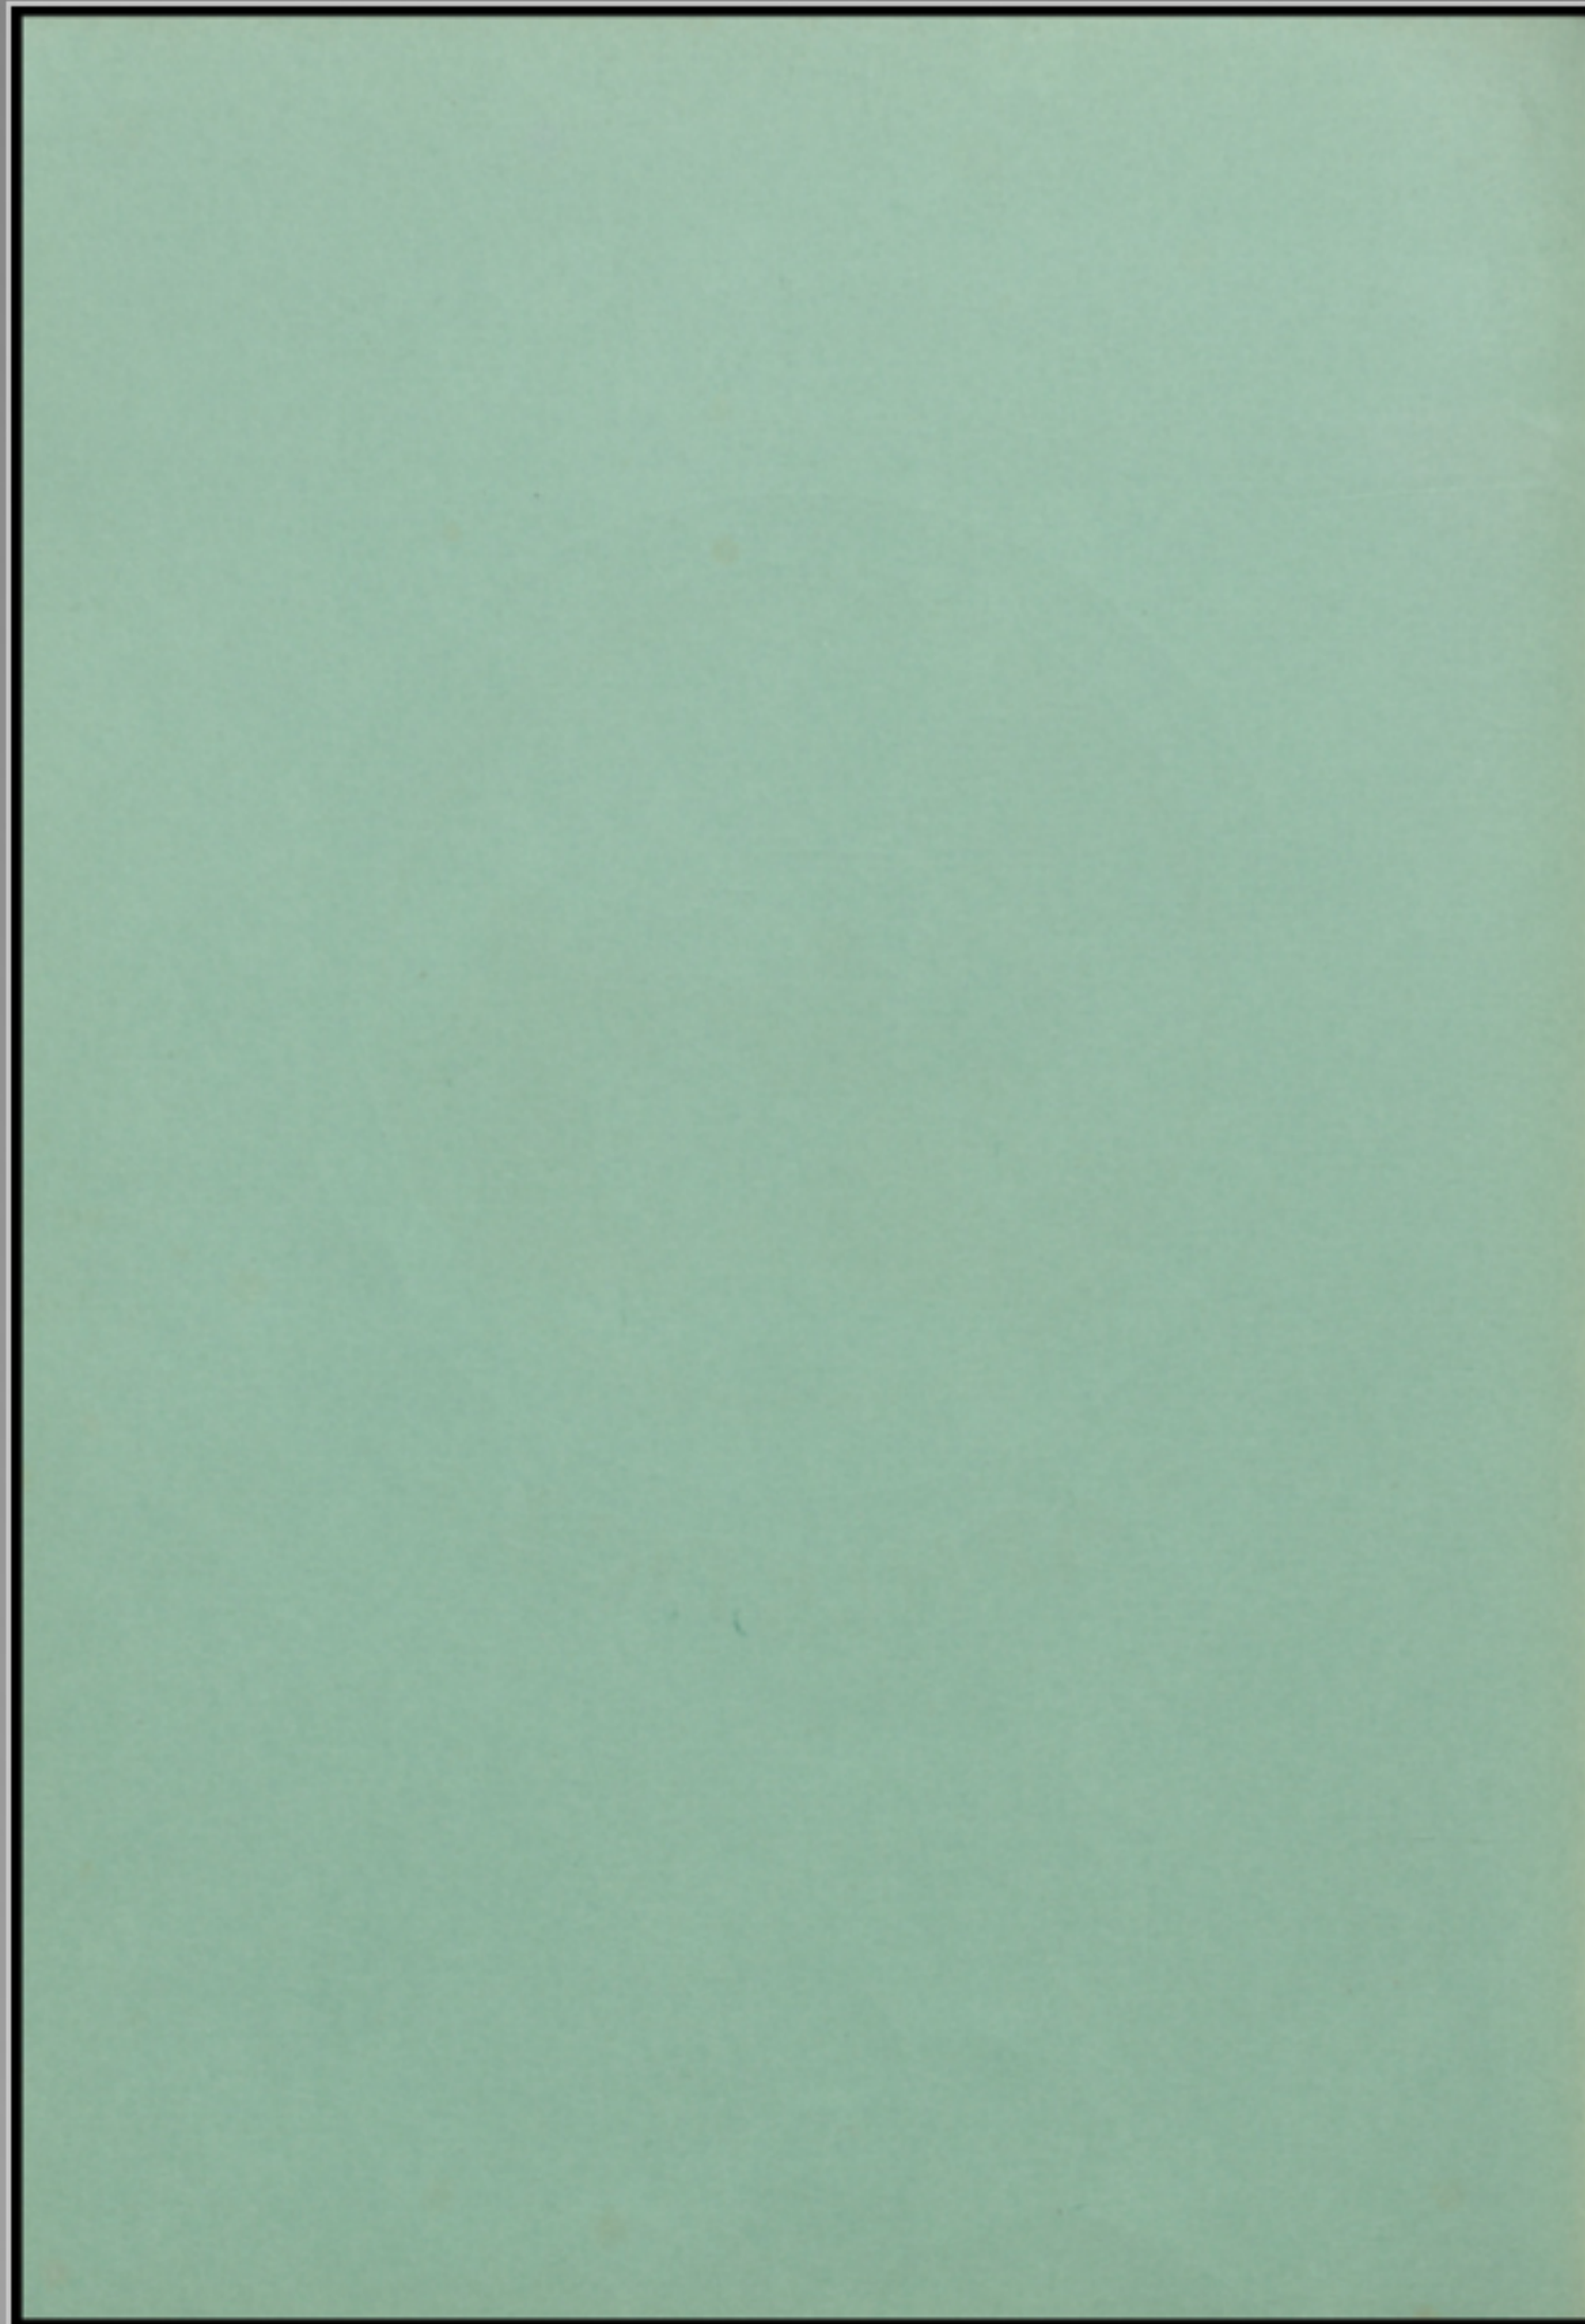

THREE copies of the "Gastineau Breeze" were sent to the Columbia Scholastic Press Association which is conducting a high school newspaper contest to adjudge the best paper in five or six classes. The "Breeze" won first place two years ago for the best paper in a class including all U. S. Territories.

"A Women's Suffragette Meeting"

DRESSED in quaint and comical old-fashioned garments, the Junior girls gave a stunt, "A Women's Suffragette Meeting," Friday, November 1. At the meeting, which opened with the rally song of the organization, the chairman, Vieno Wahto, called upon each sister to give her experiences with and her views of men. All the speakers agreed that man was fickle, inferior and worthless.

Boys' Athletics

BASKETBALL practice, under the supervision of Coach King, began October 14. Although they did not win the trophy this year, the boys made a fine showing, winning 9 out of 12 games.

Coach King

SUMMARY OF GAMES

D. H. S., 27—D. F. D., 25

The boys won their first games of the season at the Nat. November 22, by defeating the Firemen 27-25. It was a hard fight but through an early lead, the high boys were victorious. The score at the half was 11 to 9 in favor of the high school.

D. H. S., 19—Alumni, 13

By a sudden rally and three field goals in the overtime period, the high quintet won their second game of the season from the Alumni team, November 29. It was a close game throughout, the Alumni leading until the last minute of play.

D. H. S., 23—Skagway, 18

After a rough trip up Lynn Canal, the high quintet met the Skagway high school team on the latter's floor, December 6, and defeated them 23-18. In the first quarter the boys were lost and Skagway led 12 to 0. The half, however, found Douglas but one point behind, 15 to 16. In the last half the boys got their shooting eye and put the game on ice.

D. H. S., 15—Unalga, 11

The next victims to fall before the Douglas squad were the sailors of the Cutter Unalga. The teams clashed at the Nat. and after a hard fight—with the Unalga leading 5-3 in the first quarter and the score tied 7-all at the half—the boys finally pulled through with a four-point lead.

D. H. S., 25—Haines Hi, 14

De Hi hoopsters met and defeated the Haines High School team at the Nat. December 21. The first quarter ended 6-6, but in the second quarter the Island lads broke loose and ran their score up to 25, holding their opponents at 6. Coach King used his second team in the last half and the visitors made 8 points more.

D. H. S., 25—Haines Hi, 14

December 23, the Douglas squad had a return game with the Haines team. Playing fast ball, the regulars ran up a 24-8 score in the first half. The second squad was again used for the last half and scored 1 point to Haines' 6.

D. H. S., 42—A. N. B., 22

De Hi basketballers began the New Year right by defeating the A. N. B. team at the Nat. January 4. The regulars played the first three cantos and the subs the last. The final score was 42 to 22.

D. H. S., 16—Ketchikan, 12

By accurate passing, close checking and excellent shooting, the boys defeated the strong Ketchikan Town team, January 11, by the score of 16 to 12. Taking advantage of their opponents' errors, Douglas ran up a 9-2 score in the first half. In the third frame, however, Ketchikan came back strong and scored 6 points to the high school's 3. The last quarter was one of the hardest fought and best played cantos of the season. But try as they might, the visitors could not take the lead. The final whistle found the high school still four points ahead.

Basketball Letter Men

FRANK PETTYGROVE—CAPTAIN AND GUARD

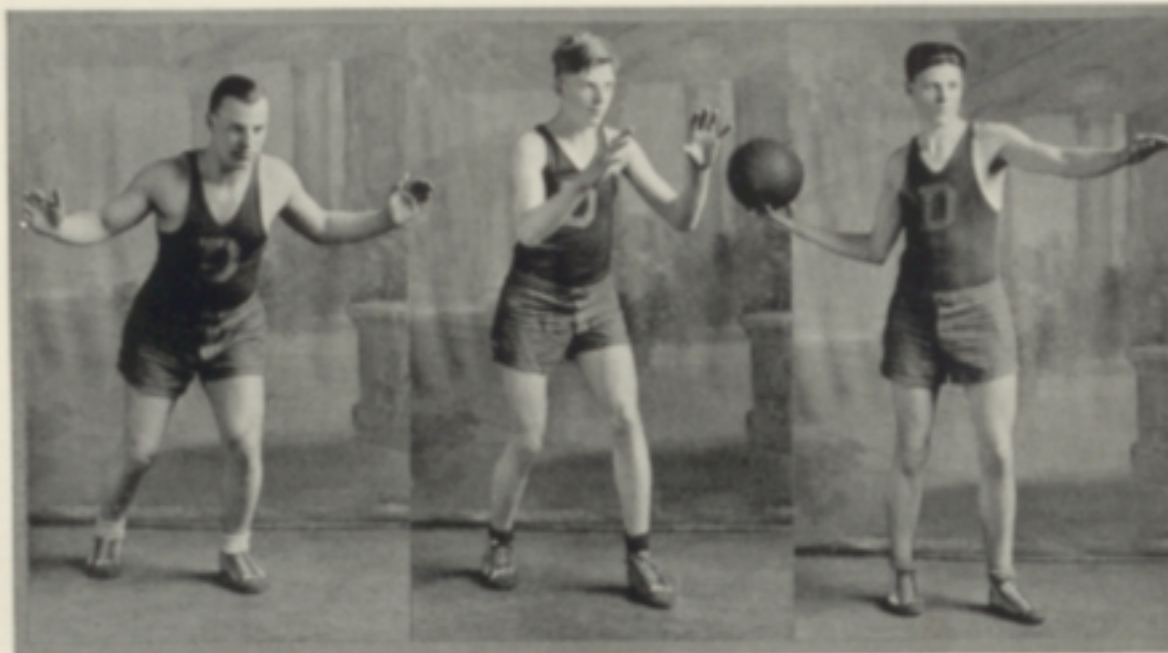

This is the second year Frank has held down the stationary guard post. His ability to break up plays and get the rebound stopped the opponents time and again. It will be hard to find someone to fill Frank's place next year.

HARRY LUNDELL—CENTER AND GUARD

Harry played center the first half of the year and guard the last half. He played both positions excellently. His fast floor work and his checking and shooting ability make him a valuable player. Harry has still two years to play for De Hi.

JOHN CASHEN—CENTER

Although he did not play basketball until the middle of the season, John played good ball and got the tip-off from opposing centers most of the time. This is the fourth year John has played basketball and his loss by graduation will be felt keenly next year.

Basketball Letter Men

TAUNO NIEMI—GUARD

This is the first year Tauno has been on the first team but he has shown remarkable guarding ability. Tauno has a good shooting eye and his talent in intercepting passes and checking helped greatly in keeping down the opponents' score.

WILLIAM CASHEN—FORWARD

Billy was second high-score man this year, making 73 points. His shooting skill and his ability to convert foul shots make him a valuable forward. Being only a Sophomore, Billy has still two years to play basketball for D. H. S.

ANGUS GAIR—FORWARD

Angus was high-score man this year, making 97 points. His remarkable shooting as well as his floor work make him invaluable on the offensive. This is the second year Angus has been on the team and since he is a Sophomore, he has still two years to play basketball for Douglas.

Girls' Athletics Channel Series

First Game

FIRST game of the Channel series took place at the Juneau Gym, January 17. This year the teams were evenly matched which made all the contests exciting. In a close game the Douglas girls won by a two-point margin. The score was 37-35.

Second Game

As in the first game, the Douglas girls were victors over their J. H. S. opponents, when they met at the Nat. January 24. Score, 22-17.

Third Game

The third game, played in Juneau, January 31, was the deciding one of the series. Both teams were out for the "Bacon"; however, the Douglas Sextet brought it home. The D. H. S. girls kept the lead throughout the game, which ended 25-23 in their favor.

Fourth Game

A fourth game was played at the Nat. February 7. Although nothing was at stake, this game was probably the most exciting of the series. The final score was 30-28 in Douglas' favor.

Mae Fraser, Douglas, and Elsie Jenson, Juneau, were high scorers for their respective teams. The total points of all four games made by Mae Fraser were 89; by Elsie Jenson, 59. Mona Carlson, Senior, played forward and center during her four years on the team. As captain of the team, Mona proved her worth by being elected for three years.

Mae Fraser, Senior, has been on the team for four years. As a Freshman she played as side center but for the last three years has played forward. Mae will be missed next year. Elizabeth Sey, Senior, has only been on the team three years. When a Freshman she was substitute. Elizabeth played guard and center. Who will move into her place next year?

DE XI Wins Cup Permanently

AS a result of winning the Goldstein trophy for three successive years, the Douglas High School girls' basketball team has gained permanent possession of the cup.

The cup was presented in 1921 by Charles Goldstein of Juneau. Although it has been contested by Wrangell, Ketchikan, and Petersburg, the trophy has never been off the Channel. Juneau won it three times—1923, '25, '27; while Douglas has had it seven times—1921, '22, '24, '26, '28, '29, '30.

Wrangell Trip

D. H. S. Girls' Basketball Team embarked for Wrangell, Friday afternoon, February 14, on the Steamer Queen, to play a series of two games with the Wrangell High School girls' team. On arriving at Wrangell, Saturday afternoon, the Wrangell team was down to meet them.

Miss Pepoon, Mona Carlson, Effie Fleek, Rosie Africh and Elizabeth Sey stayed at the Engstrom cottage, while the other four—Mae Fraser, Vieno Wahito, Ruth Lundell and Joe Kilburn—remained at the hotel. The girls said they had a great time getting their own meals, although it is rumored Miss Pepoon did most of the cooking.

The first game was played Saturday night in the Wrangell gym. The Douglas girls outplayed their opponents, as shown by the 38-9 score. In the second game, played Monday night, both teams roughed it up in the last half. However, the Douglas sextet was victorious. Score, 27-8.

A dance was given by the Wrangell girls in honor of the Douglas team. The Steamer Alaska sailed at 11 o'clock, so they didn't have much time to dance.

Tennis Tournament

URHO KRONQUIST became tennis champ of D. H. S. when he defeated Ruth Lundell by the score of 6-2, 2-6, 6-3.

The tournament began September 10, under the supervision of Miss Pepoon. The players were divided into divisions. Rosie, Ruth and Nina, winners of the three divisions, played together. By defeating Rosie, 6-3, 6-1, and Nina 6-0, 6-1, Ruth Lundell became girls' tennis champion.

In the boys' series George and Urho were victors of their respective divisions. However, Urho met and defeated George by a score of 6-3, 6-2, thus becoming boys' champion. The two champions, Ruth Lundell and Urho Kronquist, played for High School championship. The latter won the series.

Douglas-Juneau Series

D. H. S., 15—J. H. S., 27

The Douglas squad met their first defeat at the hands of Juneau High, January 17, at the Juneau Gym. Playing fast ball, the Hilltoppers took an early lead and had little difficulty in winning. The score at the half was 12-8 in favor of Juneau.

D. H. S., 7—J. H. S., 23

The second game of the Channel Series was played at the Nat. January 25. Playing excellent ball, the Juneau team ran up a 9-3 score in the first half and scored 12 points to Douglas' 4 in the last half.

D. H. S., 17—J. H. S., 21

Determined to make a comeback, the Island team journeyed to Juneau, January 31, and again met the Hilltoppers. Douglas showed excellent teamwork and, although weak on their shooting, scored 7 points to Juneau's 6 in the first half. They kept a one-point lead until the last two minutes of play, when Juneau broke loose and scored three field goals.

D. H. S., 14—J. H. S., 7

A fourth Douglas-Juneau game was played at the Nat. February 7. The Hilltoppers' second squad played the first half and that period ended 5-3 for Douglas. In the last half the Juneau regulars played, but they could not stop the sudden spurts of the Islanders nor could they score more than two baskets. The game ended 14 to 7 in favor of Douglas.

Southeastern Alaska Championship

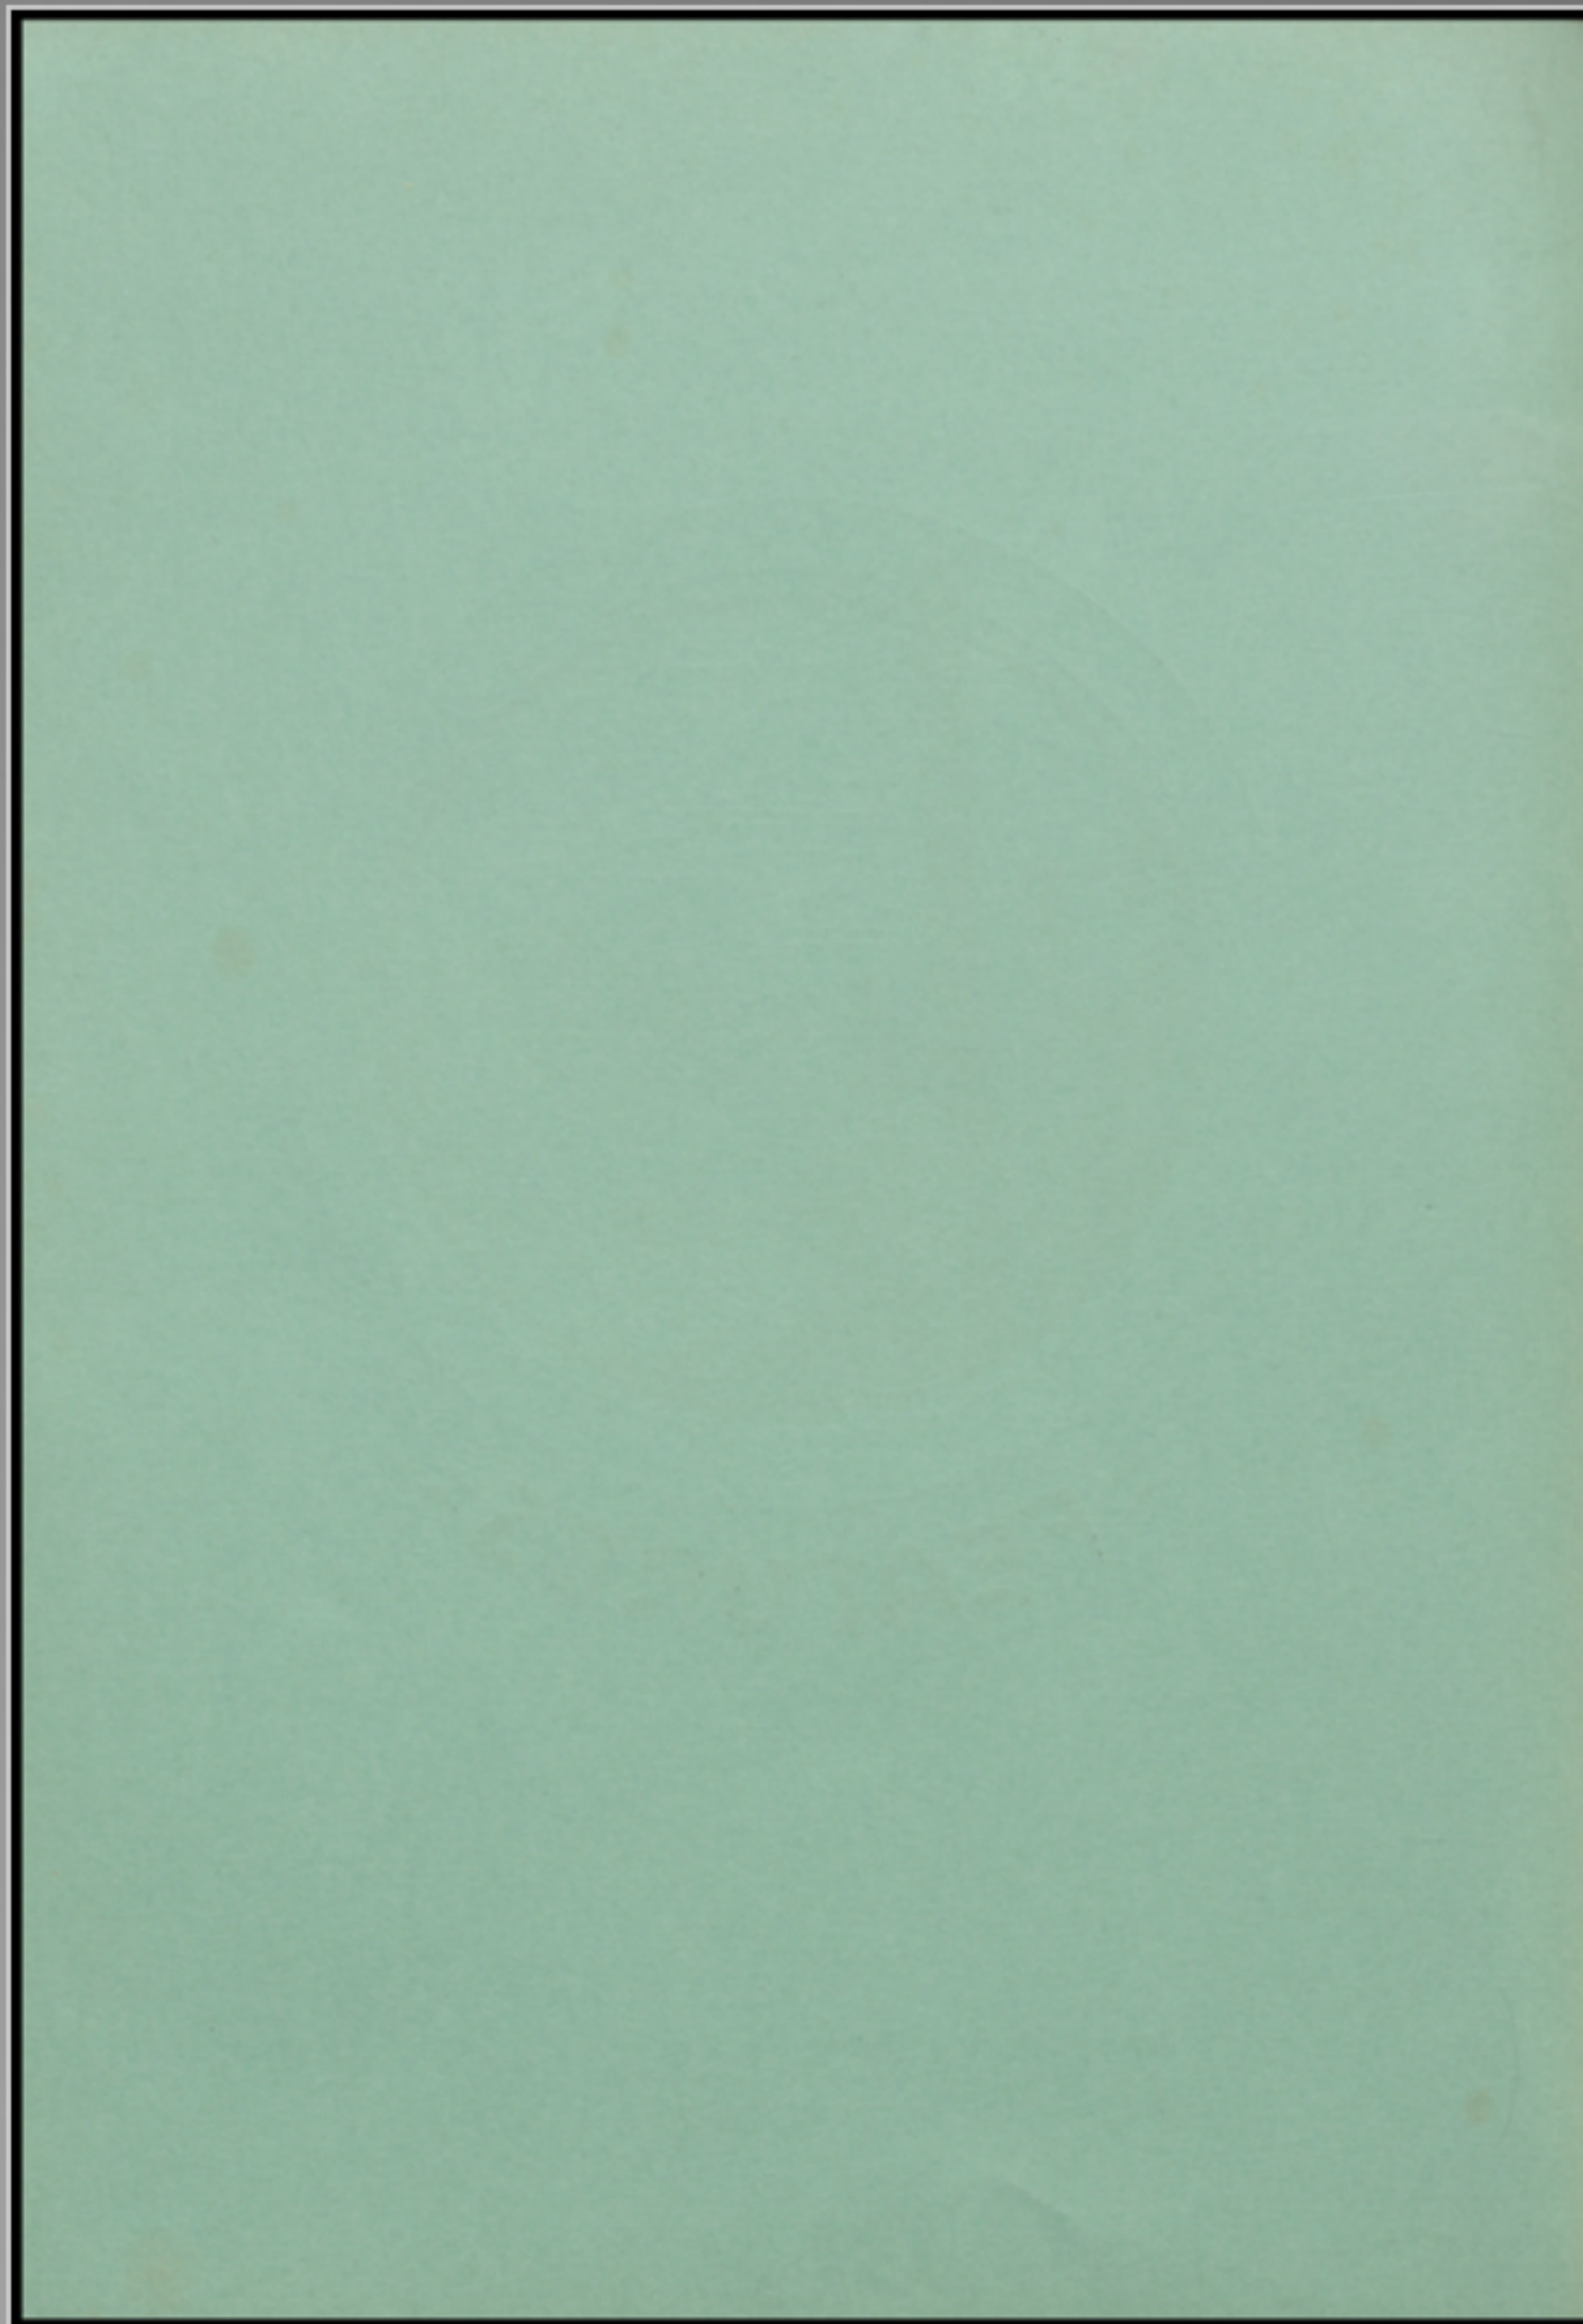

Ketchikan High School basketball team this year won the championship of Southeastern Alaska. Juneau, having won the Channel series, and Ketchikan having defeated Wrangell and Petersburg, it was decided that a Juneau-Ketchikan series would be played at the First City. Ketchikan was victorious in four straight games and thus won the trophy.

Grade School Athletics

Boys of the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades, under the supervision of Mr. Cathcart, organized two basketball teams, the "Blues" and the "Browns." Basketball suits were purchased and regular practices were held at the Nat. The future De Hi players gained much experience this year and prospects for basketball teams in coming years seem good.

Jones' Radio

At last the Jones' had their radio, after everyone else in the community had succumbed to the radio bug.

After it had been installed in the front room, Mr. Jones began tinkering with the dials. A burst of static, the roar of a baseball crowd and then a shrill shriek came to his ears.

Mrs. Jones came rushing into the room, saying:

"You big lubber; of all the racket. Now you've awakened Junior just when I finally got him to sleep!"

A cry came from the next room to confirm her complaint, as the baby howled lustily.

Mr. Jones tore his hair as he dashed out, leaving the radio to broadcast what it would.

"Down with the White Socks! Up with the Green Socks! Eat them up; eat them; lick the plate clean. Rah! Rah! there's another home run for the Green Socks! Come on, Greenies. We've won, we've won!"

"We won, we won! Atta boy, Greens," shrieked the parrot in imitation of the radio.

Mrs. Jones came dashing frantically into the room. Now the radio is silent and the parrot is no more.

*Now listen here, Ma Nature,
Why can't you treat us right?
Withdraw this rain and snow and slush
And give us something bright.*

*This winter's gettin' tiresome,
We'd like to have some fun;
So won't you please withdraw this snow
And try a little sun?*

*We hope this don't sound nasty,
You've always known what to send;
But if you don't come through darned quick,
You'll never be our friend.*

Alaska

Let me relate very shortly
The tale of Alaska dear,
And show you a few of her struggles
During her brief career.

Seward strived sturdily
To gain the ends he sought;
At last he persuaded the people,
And from Russia, Alaska was bought.

Men clambered o'er the hillsides,
And followed the icy trail,
They fought against all obstacles
With pick and shovel and pail.

Like wild beasts untamed they came
And forced their way abroad.
They delved through hills and mountains,
To gain gold from the precious
sod.

On came the men and women
To fish and trap for life;
And out of the seas and oceans
They gained compensation for bitter strife.

A valley changed to a village,
The village to a city or town;
And out of the wilderness of
Alaska
There grew beauty, wealth and renown.

Forever Free

"Forever Free," by Honoré Willie Morrow, is a realistic novel of Abraham Lincoln during the trying times of the Civil War. The work gives a different view of the Lincolns than any other. In the novel the author describes the difficulties of the Lincolns' arrival at the White House; the attitude of the society people toward the "backwoods president" and his family; the terrible embarrassment they suffered. The nation soon discovered that the new president wasn't such a fool as many presumed.

The whole work abounds in vivid, breath-taking incidents. The thrilling tales of negro sacrifice, spies, anxiety and of superb devotion to the cause, make the novel a real, absorbing, living thing which moves the reader from laughter to tears and vice versa.

Chasing all the gloom away,
That's the Boy Friend.

His Supreme Moment

Blithely he took her arm as he led her into Westbrook's Palace of Sweets. Jaunty was his air as they passed several other boys just leaving. Yes, sir, this was Roy's triumphant moment. Did he not have the town's prettiest girl, Judy Winslow, with him? He noticed with a smug feeling the looks of envy that the other boys wore. Sure, Bob Preston had beaten him in the foot-race they had had last summer, and Billy was the best student in Math—but what were these compared to dating Judy?

Yes, this was worth running around the town delivering groceries for Ikey Cohen and receiving only a dollar for his labors. How carefully he had pocketed that coin and how carefully he had attired himself for this—his big date. He had even "borrowed" some of his brother Willie's perfumed grease to make his unruly red hair stay in place.

Judy smiled warmly into his eyes as she ordered and still more warmly with the first sip of the luscious confection. She chattered amiably and was very friendly to the last spoonful of ice cream. Now was to be his moment supreme. Maybe if he impressed her enough she would let him take her to Flo Marston's party. He had carefully rehearsed this scene in front of the mirror at home. He would put his hand in his pocket, draw out the dollar, carelessly flip it on the counter and nonchalantly remark "Keep the change, boy," to the duly astounded soda clerk.

Oh horrors! Putting his hand in his pocket, Roy's face suddenly blanched and beads of perspiration stood out on his forehead. His hard-earned money! gone!

He had left his dollar in the pocket of his working trousers.

Where the Blue Begins

Christopher Morley has given us in "Where the Blue Begins," a story that is tender, humorous, and quaintly absurd.

Gissing, the hero, is a dog who wonders about God and freedom. He leaves his comfortable home to go out in the world and investigate. After searching the world for an ideal, he finally returns home to find in his own furnace fire a hint of the heavenly blue which he had been seeking.

Longings

*I long for a cabin in the wilderness,
Near ONE Alaskan shore
A couple dogs and a gun
And then—something more.*

*I long for a boat of husky build,
No speed or fame or renown;
Some miners' supplies—a pick and such
And grub, of course, from town.*

*I long for a cabin in the wilderness
A fishing outfit, too—
Then, after I've gotten all these
I'll want—a pal like YOU!*

U. K., '30

Wishing

*I want to be a gypsy,
To wander life's long road;
I want to travel everywhere
Bearing my share of the load.*

*I want to be a missionary
And teach the heathen love;
I wish to teach them glorious things
And most of all—of God above.*

*I want to be a prima donna
And make an audience sway,
To have them list to my every note
And think on it day by day.*

*I want to be a millionaire,
To give to the hungry crowd,
Some health, some wealth, some understanding,
And save them from a miserable shroud.*

*But best of all, I wish to be
A woman worthy in all!
Who fears not the life's hard trials;
Who'll answer duty's call.*

*Then, at the end of everything,
Pass quietly on my way;
To take my seat of Judgment,
And be gone before a new day.*

What is Alaska?

*A land of ice and wind and snow,
Inhabited by the Eskimo?
Snow huts, wolves and malamutes?
Howling, moaning, lone coyotes?*

*Complete darkness all year 'round?
Freezing men and dying hound?
Dangers many, pleasures few?
Sam McGee and Dan McGrew?*

*This jumbled mass of scattered thought
Is but the mind of any lot
Of people in the South who talk
But yet know nothing of the North.*

*They read wild fiction of Alaska cold,
Of desperate men and the "lure of gold."
Of "Chilkoot Pass" and "Klondike Rush"
Of "Soapy" Smith and "mush, Buck, mush!"*

*They realize not the land of gold,
Their only thought is of the cold.
Alaska still, with all its wealth,
To them is but a land of stealth.*

Alaska

*Beautiful Nature with her skillful hand
Was extravagant when she painted our land,
Tinting the mountain tops with snow;
Painting the valley green below.*

*Painting with silver our beautiful streams—
Surely our land is the land of dreams.
Filling the mountains with golden treasure;
Truly! Alaska is a land of pleasure.*

A Tin Lizzy

A rattling tin lizzy came up the road
With a jerk and a bounce and shiver,
It stopped at my door, 'cause strength was gone
And it'll not go, no, niver.

The rattling tin lizzy's a pile of junk
Parked at me own back door,
And what is the use of having it there?
What is that lizzy for?

The children they will toot the horn
And turn the crank all day;
But for the very life of me
I can't see why it's made that way.

But God made everything, I hear,
To serve a purpose worthwhile,
And when I need a crank or bolt
That junk is a good old pile.

Orrin: "Because the other end is too dangerous."

Young Suitor: "Mr. Sey, I love your daughter more than words can tell."
Mr. Sey: "Well, maybe you can state it in figures."

Phyllis: "I don't like Frank. Last night I wanted to show him how well I could whistle, and when I puckered my lips real nice—"
Enne: "Well, what then?"
Phyllis: "He let me whistle."

Saimie: "Did he threaten you when he kissed you?"
Elizabeth: "Yes, he said: 'If you scream I will never kiss you again.'"

Quick Thinking

Miss Pepoon (in Physics): "Why are the days longer in the summer?"
Harry T.: "Because the heat expands them."

Scalps at Her Belt

Mae: "You may not believe it, but I said 'No' to seven different men during the summer."
Margery: "Oh, I don't doubt it. What were they selling?"

Star Part Comes Easiest

"Mayn't I be a preacher when I grow up?" asked the small boy.
"Of course, you may, my pet, if you want to," his mother replied.
"Yes, I do. I s'pose I've got to go to church all my life, anyway, and it's a good deal harder to sit still than to stand up and holler."

Life Is So Short

Arvo rushed home.

"Ma!" he gasped, "I'm in an awful state. I don't know what to do next!"

"Whatever is the matter?" asked his mother, worried.

"I've just had a terrible warning of approaching death."

"Goodness me! What do you mean?"

"Well," said Arvo, "I bought one of those lifetime fountain pens the other day, and now it's broken!"

The Student

A little Freshman boy was he,
As green as Freshman boys can be.
Next year he'll be a Sophomore,
For him more troubles are in store.
His Junior year is harder yet,
He has such hard studies to get.
He's in his Senior year at last,
He'll try his very best to pass.

For he doesn't want to be held back
In his march on the graduation
track.
He's graduated now, you see,
And a very happy man is he.
For on to college he will go,
And spend another year or so.

C. E., '32

The Talkies

To the "Talkies" we will go,
Even through the deepest snow;
Bring the folks and boy friend,
too,
They'll enjoy it 'cause it's new.

Hear and see them sing and dance
These "Stars" so full of romance;
There's something realistic in its tone.
What say we go to the Vitaphone?

M. F., '30

Conclusion

THE work of the annual has come to a conclusion. Due to the faithful support and cooperation of the Juneau and Douglas business men, and the unfailing efforts of the students, we may consider it a success. To these business men and students we wish to give our appreciative thanks, and also to express the desire to have their cooperation in the coming year.

THE BETTER
yearbooks of the Northwest show the fine artistry and craftsmanship of the Western Engraving &
Colortype Company.
Schools that demand
the best year after year have found that
"Western Service"
insures a Better Annual.

Attend Douglas High School

*The institution which, for a quarter-century,
has fostered that indomitable Douglas Spirit, helping those to climb the mountain, who desire a higher and broader outlook on life.*

We seek not the gold of mountains,
Nor riches their bosoms enfold,
But from this small, red school house
Education more priceless than gold.

So join us on our conquest,
Leave implements of toil to the rust,
Do not falter at the doorway,
But rush in as the northern gust.

Nature supplies the Pictures

and we provide the Cameras which enable you to make a permanent record of the entrancing vistas that greet you on every hand as you motor or hike through this scenic wonderland of ours. City life, too, with its bustle, industry and human interest, holds many an inspiration for the camera-worker who is properly equipped.

BOX BROWNIES for beginners, $3.00 to $6.00.

FOLDING KODAKS with carrying cases, $7.50 to $20.

VOIGTLANDER CAMERAS, with high speed F. 45 Skopar anistigmat lenses and new model Compur shutters, $30, $33 and $39.

MOTION PICTURE CAMERAS and Projectors: Cine-Kodak, Bell & Howell, and DeVry.

Our Camera and Finishing Departments are headed by specialists who are prepared to assist you competently in choosing equipment and in solving your finishing problems.

A SAVINGS ACCOUNT

There are no "depressions" in the investment values of a savings account. The account does not fluctuate with business. Over a period of time the income return is equal to that of most high grade stocks and bonds. The man who regularly invests part of his earnings in a savings account is assured that he is building an estate of the greatest security with a sure investment return on every dollar added to his account.
