Senior Class History

Our career in Douglas High School has been a busy one. As freshmen we underwent an arduous initiation at the hands of the sophomores. In our sophomore year we retaliated by initiating the freshmen to the best of our ability.

As juniors we were responsible for publishing the Gastineau Breeze and for giving the Junior Prom. Our Prom was a huge success and was well attended. Decorations followed the Chinese motif.

In our senior year we have been busy producing this year-book, the Taku. As seniors we have a great deal to do with the student government, also. The major offices in the Associated Student Body are held by seniors.

Throughout our high school career we have been prominent in school activities. Members of our class appeared in the school operettas "The Dizzy Baton," "Cynthia's Strategy," and "Radio Maid." Our class has helped also with the presentation of plays such as "Sweet Irish Colleen" and "Three-Cornered Moon." Last year two of our members took places in the Southeastern Alaska Declamatory Contest in Petersburg. During our entire four years our boys have taken part in athletic contests, particularly in the basketball series.

We are looking forward now to our Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises with hopes for the future and glad memories of the past.

Senior Class Prophecy

It was the year of 2036. I, Glenn Edwards, the oldest living man, had just one hour in which to visit the graves of my comrades, the class of 1936. I hurried to the cemetery in order to make the complete rounds before the bus was due.

Near the entrance was the grave of Olavi Wahto. Watt, it seemed, had lived to a ripe old age of one hundred and two but he had been finished off while hunting. The descendants of the many deer he had slain had run him off the top of Mount Jumbo.

Frank Cashel's last resting place attracted me next. He, poor fellow, at the age of ninety-three had got stalled on a side road of the International Highway. After starving for a week he tried to eat the fenders on his car and he died of indigestion.

Atop one stone was a tiny dancing figure. It was Betty Sey. On her ninety-eighth birthday she had tapped on the roof of the Federal Building, now one hundred stories high, and had tapped her way through the floor.

Esther Shafer, it appeared, had passed on at the untimely age of eighty-four. While hiking in a fog she walked off the edge of the Douglas dock.

Poor Irving Fleek. He tried to amuse his great-great grandchildren by cooking all the things he had cooked in the Home Ec class. He couldn't resist eating them and died of overeating when he was only ninety-seven.

Imagine my surprise at finding Gordon Mills sitting on top of a tomb and reading a "thriller" magazine. The attendant said he had died several years before in that position, and they couldn't get him out of it.

One grave was empty, although it was marked with a stone. I found it was Dicky Kilburn's. It seemed that he had taken off in a plane years before and never came down. The attendant was saving space for him, because he knew he'd run out of gas eventually.

My time was just up. The shock of getting through on time was so great that I started to slip to the ground. As I did so I caught a glimpse of a stone marked "Glenn Edwards . . . Died of shock at getting some place on time." As I hit the ground I heard the attendant say, "I knew he'd get some place on time some day!"

Senior Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1936 of the Douglas High School, Douglas, Alaska, being in our right mind (?) and with sorrowful (?) hearts do hereby publish this, our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

Section 1. To the School Board we leave the building still standing but a little the worse for wear after our high school career.

ARTICLE II.

Section 1. To Mr. Bowman we leave our best wishes for the future.

Section 2. To Miss Karnes our thanks that she was blessed with a good disposition. We hope we have not ruined it.

Section 3. To Miss Pepoon we leave our appreciation for her patience in "seeing us through" high school.

Section 4. To Mr. Pedersen we leave our Civics notebooks, any one of which we would feel proud to call a life work.

ARTICLE III.

Section 1. I, Olavi Wahto, leave the word "now" used as an adjective, which was removed from my speech with great difficulty and long suffering by Miss Karnes and Miss Pepoon.

Section 2. I, Frank Cashel, leave encouragement to the freshman class. Look how much I've grown in four years!

Section 3. I, Glenn Edwards, leave my ability to get out of, and in again, the good graces of the teachers to Joe Reidi. May he use it well!

Section 4. I, Betty Sey, am true to my Scotch heritage. I refuse to leave "nobody nuthin', notime and nohow!"

Section 5. I, Esther Shafer, leave my quiet ways to Gerald Cashen—I hope he adopts them.

Section 6. I, Irwin Fleek, leave most of my good nature to anyone who needs it—I'll still have plenty left.

Section 7. I, Richard Kilburn, leave my ability to change the subject to Ben Shitanda. It's most useful in oral examinations.

Section 8. I, Gordon Mills, leave my Western magazines to the school furnace. Maybe they belonged there all the time anyway.

In witness thereof we have signed our name and set our seal.

JUNIORS

Class History

The junior year of almost any high school class is a busy one, and our has been no exception to the rule. Our activities have been numerous.

As juniors we have been responsible for the publication of the Gastineau Breeze, high school paper. Some of our members are also on the Taku staff.

The big event of the year is the Junior Prom, given in the Douglas Natatorium. As this book goes to press the Prom is still in the future, but we are planning it for April 25. The motif is a Spanish one, and Clarence Rands' orchestra will furnish the music.

Our members have been active in school activities, also. Jennie Johnson, Ruth Langseth, Vera Kirkham, and Arthur Reinikka appeared in the high school play, "Three-Cornered Moon," and all the boys have been connected with basketball.

Class History

The big event in this year was our successful initiation of the incoming freshmen. Although we were smaller in number than the freshmen we feel satisfied that the latter will never forget their official initiation and welcome into Douglas High School.

This spring, under the sponsorship of Miss Pepoon, advisor, we managed a very successful raffle. In order to raise money for our treasury we raffled off a bridge lamp, purchased in Juneau.

We also helped in the business management of the high school play. Our members served as ushers and usherettes at the performance.

Our one boy has been a member of the basketball team during the past year, and our girls have turned out loyally in support of the team at the various games.

Class History

Five frightened freshmen entered Douglas High School in September, 1935. To date, we have neither lost or gained members.

The most important event in this year was our initiation as newcomers in Dehi by the sophomores. The tragic affair took place in the Odd Fellow's Hall. We were subjected to many strange cruelties, but we came up smiling. Following our grueling experience we were admitted into active high school life with the customary banquet, attended by members of the school board, faculty, and high school.

Our last official act as freshmen will be to provide the refreshments for the high school picnic, May 22.

First Row—Billy Spain. Elmer Savikko. Glenn Kronquist, Doris Cahill. Borghild Havdahl. David Smoot

Grades 7 and 8 GIFFORD CARTER, Teacher

Members of Mr. Carter's classes maintain a library table in the back of the room. New magazines and books of interest are placed on this table, and armchairs are grouped about it.

Intensive work in art has been done during the past year. Individual work is displayed on a large mat in the room. Some of the drawings are in pen and ink, others are done in colors.

The students participated in a play, "Sauce for the Gosling," which was presented at the April P.-T.A. It concerned the problem of two modern parents whose children insisted on using slang. The parents unite and find a unique way of curing their children of this habit for all time.

Grades 5 and 6

Grades five and six maintain various committees to take charge of the various duties connected with the room. This spring a Garden Committee was organized to take care of the window boxes made by the students. Members of this committee are changed every week, in order to give everyone a chance at the work.

Students have been occupied with individual projects during the year. One project has been the re-painting and varnishing of their desks, after the desks had been sand-papered. Other projects included the making of model airplanes, boats, automobiles, etc.

Members of the classes presented a play and Indian dance at the Thanksgiving Day program. They repeated their performance at the Community Church later.

Grades 3 and 4 RUBY SUMMERS, Teacher

When school began on September 5, there was an enrollment of eighteen. In October a Hallowe'en party was enjoyed with the first and second grades. For Thanksgiving, the third grade made booklets which were judged at a Thanksgiving program in their room for visitors.

Together with the first and second grade room, the third and fourth grade room gave a short play for the Christmas program. A Valentine party was given in honor of the boys by the girls on February 14. This room also presented the February P.-T.A. program.

The class made cardboard waste paper baskets in March and also studied a dairy unit, building a dairy farm on the sand table. For Easter, the class had an Easter egg hunt. The last event of the year was the school picnic on May 22 with the first and second grade room.

Grades 1 and 2 ELIZABETH FRASER, Teacher

Enrollment of these two grades decreased to eight when Dickie Kareen and Rosie Doogan transferred to Juneau and Betty Kibbe left to reside in the States.

Patsy Andrews, Peggy Cochrane, Dick McCormick, Lucille Goetz and Lindy DuPree have done commendable work. Lindy also has the only perfect attendance record in the room.

These grades took part in "The Christmas Path," a Christmas play, a short Thanksgiving program, the operetta and gave several musical numbers at the last meeting of the P.-T.A.

1935-36 was not a very busy one for the Associated Student Body of Douglas High School. Early in the year it was decided that a limit should be placed on the number of school dances given during the year since expenses are seldom made when many are given. This matter was agreed upon by the student body as a whole.

Student body officials have been most efficient in collecting A.S.B. dues this past year. At the beginning of the year the treasury was badly depleted. A drive to further the payment of dues was started and was quite successful.

The A.S.B. contributed to the fund to buy "Dutchy" Martin, janitor of the school for many years, a new radio. In this matter, A.S.B. officials cooperated with the faculty and the Alumni Association.

The school picnic, to be held on May 22, will be the last activity with which the A.S.B. is connected this year. Plans for the picnic are indefinite as yet.

TORCH SOCIETY

President	Olav	i Wahto
Vice-president	Arthur	Reinikka
Sec'y-Treasurer	Jennie	Johnson

The Torch Society is the honor organization of Douglas High School. It is sponsored by Miss Pepoon.

This year the following people have been members of the society: Olavi Wahto, Arthur Reinikka, Jennie Johnson, Ruth Langseth, Bob Feero, Helen Edwards, and Ben Shitanda.

Each year the Torch Society awards membership pins indicative of school ranks. Seniors are given gold pins with a torch encircled in purple and gold. Seniors are permitted to keep their pins.

Juniors and sophomores are awarded purple badges, banded with gold, which they return at the end of the school year. Junior badges have two gold bars; sophomore badges have one bar.

The Torch Society in Douglas is affiliated with those societies of other schools.

PARENT-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

	1935-36		1936-37
Mrs.	Kirkham	President Vice-president Secretary Treasurer	Mrs. Kirkham
Miss	Pepoon		Mrs. Fleek

The Parent-Teachers Association, as usual, had an active year. In addition to their regular work the organization sponsored various activities.

Early in the year the P.-T.A. donated money to the showers fund for the showers in the Natatorium. Later they united in writing Delegate Dimond for funds for a new school building.

As is customary, the P.-T.A. purchased a picture to be awarded to the room showing the highest number of parents attending organization meetings each month. Miss Fraser and Miss Naghel kept the picture throughout the year. It will be awarded to one of them for final possession at the last meeting in May.

The October meeting, held October 4, had a lengthy program. It included piano solos by Margaret Pearce, an address of welcome to the teachers by Arne Shudshift, a response by Superintendent Bowman, readings by Miss Karnes, and musical selections by Martin Pedersen, Gifford Carter, and Glenn Edwards.

The program for November 6 was handled by the high school teachers. Following piano selections by Minnie Brown the meeting was turned over to those in charge. A "Back to School" night had been arranged. Parents attended ten minute classes, thus getting a sample of the school day.

On December 4 the program was presented by Miss Naghel's room. A detailed account of this will be found on the page headed "Grade School Programs."

The program committee for the meeting on March 4 arranged several numbers. The school orchestra played several selections, followed by a program presented under the direction of Miss Summers. The program ended with an accordion solo by Mr. Pedersen.

On April 1 the program was arranged with the help of Mr. Carter. In addition to the program presented by members of his classes, Reverend Kendall spoke on the "Boy Scouts and Education."

As this publication goes to press, the May meeting has not been held. The program will consist of selections by the school orchestra, readings by Miss Karnes, a tap dance by Betty Sey, a trumpet solo by Annabelle Edwards, a program by the first and second grades, and dances by Annabelle Edwards, Dorothy Langseth, and Catherine Campbell.

The Gastineau Breeze is the oldest high school paper in Alaska. It is published three times a year, and it is printed by the Daily Alaska Empire Printing Company. Each year it is entered in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Contest, and it has taken places with each entry. Last year our paper took second place. This year, unfortunately, the results of the contest have not been announced as this book goes to press.

FRESHMAN INITIATION

Early in October the freshmen underwent a grueling initiation at the hands of the sophomores. Odd Fellows Hall was the scene of the festivities. Freshmen were judged for entrance as De-hi-ites by their ability to use accurately the senses of sight, touch, taste, smell, and hearing.

After all the freshmen had proven themselves worthy of admission, refreshments were served in the banquet hall. The feast consisted of sandwiches, ice cream, cake, and coffee. The evening concluded with dancing to the music of Glenn Edwards, Gifford Carter, and Dick Kilburn.

SOPHOMORE RAFFLE

To add money to their treasury, the sophomores, under the direction of Miss Pepoon, managed a raffle this spring. A colonial floor lamp was purchased in Juneau to be raffled. Tickets were sold at fifteen cents each, or two for twenty-five cents.

JUNIOR PROM

Juniors of Douglas High School are presenting their annual prom on Saturday night, April 25. This annual affair will be given in the Natatorium. As usual, the seniors will be guests of honor. Students who are in the Music Festival for Southeastern Alaska will be guests also.

Spanish designs are being carried out in the line of decorations. Arches and small fences will adorn the dance floor. Fans, large and small, will be suspended from the ceiling. A background of paper is being constructed for the arches.

Clarence Rands' orchestra will supply the music for the dance.

Miss Grace Naghel has arranged special dances with pupils from her dancing school. Those who will dance are: Dorothy Langseth and Annabelle Edwards an "Argentine Tango," and Doris Cahill, Catherine Campbell, and Arline Rice doing the "National Dance of Mexico." Glenn Edwards will accompany the dancers.

SENIOR SNEAK

The Senior Class with their advisor, Miss Elizabeth Karnes, had their annual sneak on Thursday, April 23.

Bernhart Savikko took the class in his boat to Marmion Island. They left at six-thirty in the morning and returned at six in the evening.

Weather on that day was perfect and all members had an enjoyable outing. The day was spent in eating, hiking, playing baseball, sleeping and all voted it was a huge success.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY

"Three-Cornered Moon"

Mrs. Rimplegar	Jennie Johnson
Douglas Rimplegar	George Stragier
Kenneth Rimplegar	Arthur Reinikka
Jenny, the maid	Ruth Langseth
Ed Rimplegar	Frank Cashel
Elizabeth Rimplegar	Betty Sey
Donald	Glenn Edwards
Dr. Alan Stevens	Olavi Wahte
Kitty	Vera Kirkham

"Three Cornered Moon" was the title of the three-act comedy presented by the students of the Douglas High School on the evening of February 28 in the Douglas Coliseum. It concerned the affairs of the irresponsible Rimplegar family when they were suddenly confronted by poverty.

The family set out to conquer the depression in various ways. Elizabeth went to work in a department store and studied shorthand and typing. Kenneth started "cramming" in order to pass the bar examinations. Ed took up life-guard work. Even Mrs. Rimplegar, likeable but rattle-brained, tried to economize. The love interest centered about Elizabeth, who had to choose between Donald, the dreamer, and Alan, the doer. For three acts the Rimplegar's and their friends and loved ones provided a hilarious time for Douglasites, winning through to a happy ending, eventually.

The play was directed by Miss Elizabeth Karnes, high school instructor. The stage crew was under the direction of Martin Pedersen. The crew was composed of Joe Reidi, Bobby Feero, Albert Brown, and Gerald Cashen.

The play was presented by special arrangement with Samuel French and Company, New York.

GRADE SCHOOL OPERETTA

At eight o'clock on the evening of May 15, the grade school operetta, "Magic Gingerbread," will be given under the direction of Gifford Carter, music instructor. It will be presented in the high school auditorium.

The first act of "Magic Gingerbread" will show the lawn where the little girls are making gingerbread. The second act shows the lawn at which the Gingerbread Family will come to life.

The cast of characters is as follows:

The Cook	Billy Feero
Molly	Grace Pusich
Jane	Annabelle Edwards
Nan	Borghild Havdahl
Susie Jane	Doris Cahill
Susie Ann	Patsy Fleek
Ginger Man	Glenward Kirkham
His Wife	Evelyn Spain
Bridget Ann	Evaline Feero
The Twins	Peggy Cochrane, Patsy Andrews
Witch
Doris Balog, Jac	Shudshift, Elmer Savikko, Roy Brown, equeline Michaels, Robert Fleek, Gor- a Kronquist, Lewis Shafer, Arline Rice.

HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAMS

Thanksgiving Program

The Thanksgiving Program was given in the high school auditorium on the day preceding the holiday. The program consisted of two talks on Thanksgiving by Jennie Johnson and Olavi Wahto, followed by a play presented by the English III class under the direction of Miss Karnes. The play, "The Diabolical Circle" was cast as follows:

Cotton Mather	Arthur Reinikka
Betty, his daughter	Vera Kirkham
Adonijah Wigglesworth	Joe Reidi
Charles Manning	Gerald Cashen

Christmas Program

The school presented a Christmas program on the evening of December 23. Both the grade and the high schools took part in this celebration. The program included the following numbers:

Piano Selection	Helen Edwards
The Path to Christmas	Lower Grades
Making the Most of Christmas	Upper Grades
Reading	Helen Edwards
Tap Dance	Betty Sey
Reading	Jennie Johnson

Following the program a radio was presented to "Dutchy" Martin by the faculty, students, and alumni. Mr. Martin had been janitor of the school for many years.

GRADE SCHOOL PROGRAMS

Throughout the year the grade school teachers and pupils have been of great help in presenting the P.-T.A. programs. Under the guidance of the grade school teachers the many programs have been quite varied.

At the March P.-T.A. meeting the program was presented under the direction of Miss Summers, third and fourth grade teacher. It consisted of the following numbers:

Piano Selections	Melvin Shudshift
Recitation	Robert Savikko
"Trials of School Life"	Mickey Pusich
Valentine Song	Patsy Fleek, Evelyn Spair Billy Devon, Billy Rice
Song Drill	Members of the Class

The December meeting featured a program arranged by Miss Naghel. It included:

Reading			Dor	is	Cahill
Songs	Fifth	and	Six	cth	Grade
Reading	- At	nnabe	elle	Ed	lwards
One Act Play	Mer	nbers	lo i	the	Class

The program in April was arranged under the direction of Mr. Carter. It included a song by the seventh grade boys, solos on the piano by Catherine Campbell, and a play by the seventh and eighth grades.

The final program, under the direction of Miss Fraser, will be given May 6. It will feature a pantomime, songs, a recitation, and a lollypop drill, all by the first and second grades.

GASTINEAU CHANNEL BASKETBALL SERIES

Although the Douglas High School basketball team plays many games throughout the basketball season, the highlight of the season is still the playing of Juneau for the championship of Gastineau Channel. This year the contest went to its full five games, so strenuously did the two teams combat each other. The games were played alternately on the Juneau court and in the Douglas Nat. Juneau took the championship at the end of the fifth game, but Douglas had put up a game fight. The scores were as follows:

First Game—Juneau, 25; Douglas, 21. Second Game—Douglas, 20; Juneau, 14. Third Game—Juneau, 37; Douglas, 22. Fourth Game—Douglas, 32; Juneau, 20. Fifth Game—Juneau, 27; Douglas, 20.

This year Douglas loses several good men by graduation. Gordon Mills, Olavi Wahto, and Dicky Kilburn will be missed on the first team. The second team is losing Frank Cashel and Irwin Fleek, both valuable players.

Next year's team will still have some good players, however. Bob Feero and Joe Riedi both proved their worth this year, and Gerald Cashen has always been an important member of the team, as has Albert Brown. This year's freshmen, although small, have proved that they are good candidates for better things, and they will probably get a good workout next year. All in all, things point to an interesting season next year.

COMMENCEMENT

The Class of 1936 will be graduated by the Douglas High School in the Coliseum Theatre on the evening of May 21, 1936. The exercises will commence at eight o'clock.

The program will be as follows:

"Pilgrim's Chorus", Tannhauser	School Orchestra
Invocation	Reverend Glasse
Salutatory	Irvin Fleek
Song, "Spring Time," Rubinstein	Sextet
Presentation of Gift	Betty Sey
Acceptance of Gift	Arthur Reinikka
Song	Mrs. Kirkham
Valedictory	Olavi Wahto
Song, "Singing To You, Old High"
Commencement Address	George Folta
Presentation of Class	Supt. Bowman
Awarding of Diplomas A. Shudshift,	President of Board
"Assembly Grand March"	School Orchestra

BACCALAUREATE

The Baccalaureate Services will take place in the Douglas Community Church at eight o'clock on the evening of May 17. The service has not been definitely decided upon at this time, but it is known that the sermon will be given by Reverend Olafson of Juneau.
