TWENTIETH ANNUAL NUMBER

Published by the Students of the

JUNEAU HIGH SCHOOL

Juneau, Alaska

Foreword

The aim in producing this Totem has been to portray student activities of the Juneau High School during the year of 1925 and 1926. If, in future years, this annual serves to recall these events to our memories, it will have served its purpose.

DEDICATION

To R. S. Reiersen, in appreciation, we, the members of the Totem Staff, dedicate this twentieth volume of the Totem.

SCARLET AND BLACK

Although other schools have colors
For which they bravely stand,
Yet are none to us as splendid
In all our mighty land
As the ones 'round which we rally;
No glory shall they lack
While the High School stands defender
Of the Scarlet and the Black.

In our struggle for true knowledge,
A useful life our aim;
Let us keep with faith and courage
Our colors free from blame,
May our foes be ever noble,
May our victories never lack,
While we fight for Juneau High School
And the Scarlet and the Black.

When our High School days are over,
Should college colors bright
Thrown their glammers all about us,
And to them our vows we plight,
Still our hearts shall beat triumphant
As we turn our memories back
To those days we spent in High School
'Neath the Scarlet and the Black.

Senior Class History

Of the thirty some odd little tots who entered the first grade in 1914, there are only two left to graduate. Edward Naghel and Mildred Warwick have gone through their first twelve years of education in the Juneau Public Schools. Ed Garnick entered in the second grade; Robert Mize during the Sophomore year of High School and Elizabeth Madsen during the Senior year.

During the twelve years of attendance at school many students have come—and gone. What was once the largest class in school is now the smallest.

The Class of '26 has cared more for out of door entertainment than for parties or dances. Their first social event in High School was a Weenie Roast. Later in the year a sleigh ride was staged. During the Sophomore year a number of Weenie Roasts were enjoyed, also several parties. It was during this year that the class gave their play, "The Emancipated Ones." The Junior Prom is always an important event in the life of a Junior. The Prom in 1925 was a success both financially and socially. A Bean Bake, three Bacon Roasts and a skating party were on the society list for the Juniors. As Seniors, many hikes and Bacon Roasts have been indulged in.

Members of this class have taken part in numerous activities. They have been prominent in representing Juneau in both the literary and athletic departments of the Inter School Meets; they have all had positions on the Totem and J Bird Staffs; have taken important parts in the school plays and held responsible positions in various school organizations, during their four years of high school.

The five who are graduating this year have greatly enjoyed the years spent at J. H. S. and hope that their school life in the future will be as successful as that of the past.

Senior Horoscope

NAME	ALIAS	DESCRIPTION	OCCUPATION	FAVORITE EXPRESSION	AMBITION	FATE
Edward Naghel	"Pat"	Unassuming, Silent and Efficient	Looking wise	I tell you that costs too much	To be a second John D.	A Jewish Peddler
Elizabeth Madsen	"Lizzie"	The Senior with the Spatter Sox	Talking of California Staying away from the women	When I was in Los Angeles	To own a Pierce Arrow	Safety pin Manufacturer
Ed Garnick	"Bunn"	Glo-Co Ed	Trying to grow up	Kay Waps!	Absolutely none	A Bigamist
Mildred Warwick	"Tiny"	"Abbreviated"		Huh!!	To be 7 ft. 2 in.	On exhibition at a Circus Side-Show
Robert Mize	"Bob"	A big smile and a gold tooth	Being Chivalrous	Once upon a time a whale had legs	To prove Darwin's Theory	A Lion Tamer

Seniors "Now" and "Then"

Whoever thought that this little fellow would become the industrious and efficient scholar "Pat" Naghel is? Pat has always been known about J. H. S. as an authority on almost any subject, because everyone is sure that Pat knows what he is talking about.

Mildred is called "Tiny" because she didn't have as far to grow as the others. In her extreme youth she was a bundle of joy and now no one can say that she has changed much. One usually finds her busily engaged in J. H. S. activities—everything from Yell Leader to Totem Editor. No job is too difficult for her and she will long be remembered for her spirit of cooperation.

Bobby closely resembles, today, the curly headed little boy of yesterday. Bobby's love for bacon roasts is very evident as he is generally the instigator of every Senior indulgence of that sort.

There is quite a vast difference between the young lady in the perambulator and the one with the smile. Elizabeth intends to become a teacher. Lucky are the little tots who will spend their first year of school under her supervision.

As much much of a regular boy "then" as he is "now." J. H. S. will lose a good athlete when Ed leaves the field of action.

—E. M., '26.

Class Will

Knowing that only the memory of our good points will exist when we depart from the fold of J. H. S. and wishing to leave some of our good traits, and class relics, to the surviving members of the High School, and being of sound mind and apparently good health, we do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

Section I. To the Class of '27, our successors, we bequeath the "Old Camping Grounds" on the beach near Salmon Creek, providing they promise to make good use of the inexhaustable supply of wood.

Section II. To the President of the P. T. A. we generously wish to bestow the "Senior Mallet" salvaged on the beach near the foresaid Camping Grounds.

Section III. To the members of the Faculty we leave our peppy dispositions and our unusual love and ability of aesthetic dancing.

ARTICLE II.

Section I. To the five Juniors, who are capable of stepping into our shoes, figuratively speaking, we willingly leave our five artistically decorated desks near the northwest windows, provided they in turn leave their signatures upon the surfaces.

Section II. To N. I. Baker, we, the Senior Bacon Roasters, leave a quarter of a pound of butter and an eighth of a can of coffee which are at present located at the cabin near the Mendenhall School House, knowing he will have future use for both. We also leave to him the whole sum of twenty-six cents (26c) that remains in our treasury after paying our bills, provided he spends this sum on bacon for future Bacon Roasts.

Section III. To all students taking Typing we leave our well developed vocabularies, providing they use them in a way not disgraceful to their present owners.

ARTICLE III.

Section I. I, Robert Mize, soon to leave for parts unknown, will to Judson Whittier, my abhorrence for shiek trousers; to Marvan Chase my gold tooth, provided he makes room for it; to one of next year's Biologists my ability to start an argument on evolution. I do bequeath one weenie stick, the same to be found at Bachelor's cabin, to the brightest of next year's Seniors as a fitting token of my regard. To Iris Gray, I hereby will my ability to do the Charleston, provided she uses it next year.

Section II. I, Elizabeth Madsen, being in a good humor, make my will upon leaving this institution. To Brownie, I bequeath my desk provided that he occupies the one directly in front of it. This is for reasons best known to myself. Anyone attempting to sit behind him will soon learn the reason. To Walter Heisel, I leave my boyish hair cut.

Section III. I, Mildred Warwick, feeling in an uncommonly generous mood, leave my flowered Chem apron to Phat Orme, knowing how well it will fit and how becoming it will be. To "Sally" Waltonen I leave my yell leading ability so that she may be able to live up to our reputations. To Harry Krane I bequeath my size one-and-one-half rubber boots providing he promises to wear them out. To my successor I willingly leave the title of the shortest person in school from the seventh grade up.

Section IV. I, Edward Naghel, will my specs to Grace Vivian Davis, hoping they will be as becoming to her as they were to me. To Art Judson and George Mock I leave my ability to execute the latest dance steps, so they may be able to use them in some of their theatrical productions, and to James Connors I leave my love for frivolous escapades.

Section V. I, Ed Garnick, do bequeath to Dave Ramsay, my love for the women; to Walter Heisel my ability to talk in the study hall and get away with it, also to receive E in citizenship; my green and yellow sweater I do pass on to Clarence Dunn, provided that he does not stretch it. To Wolf Larsson, I do give my carefully selected assortment of bright colored neckties. To Henry Pigg I do bequeath my shiek haircut and gallon bottle of Gloco. To Mildred Morrison I do leave one profile, the same being my own, carefully sketched opposite the northeast door of the Assembly.

The first "get-to-gether" of the Junior class was for the purpose of electing class officers. After the campaign was over it was found that the following were chosen:

President Chris Ellingen
Vice-President Gertrude Waltonen
Secretary-Treasurer Evelyn Judson

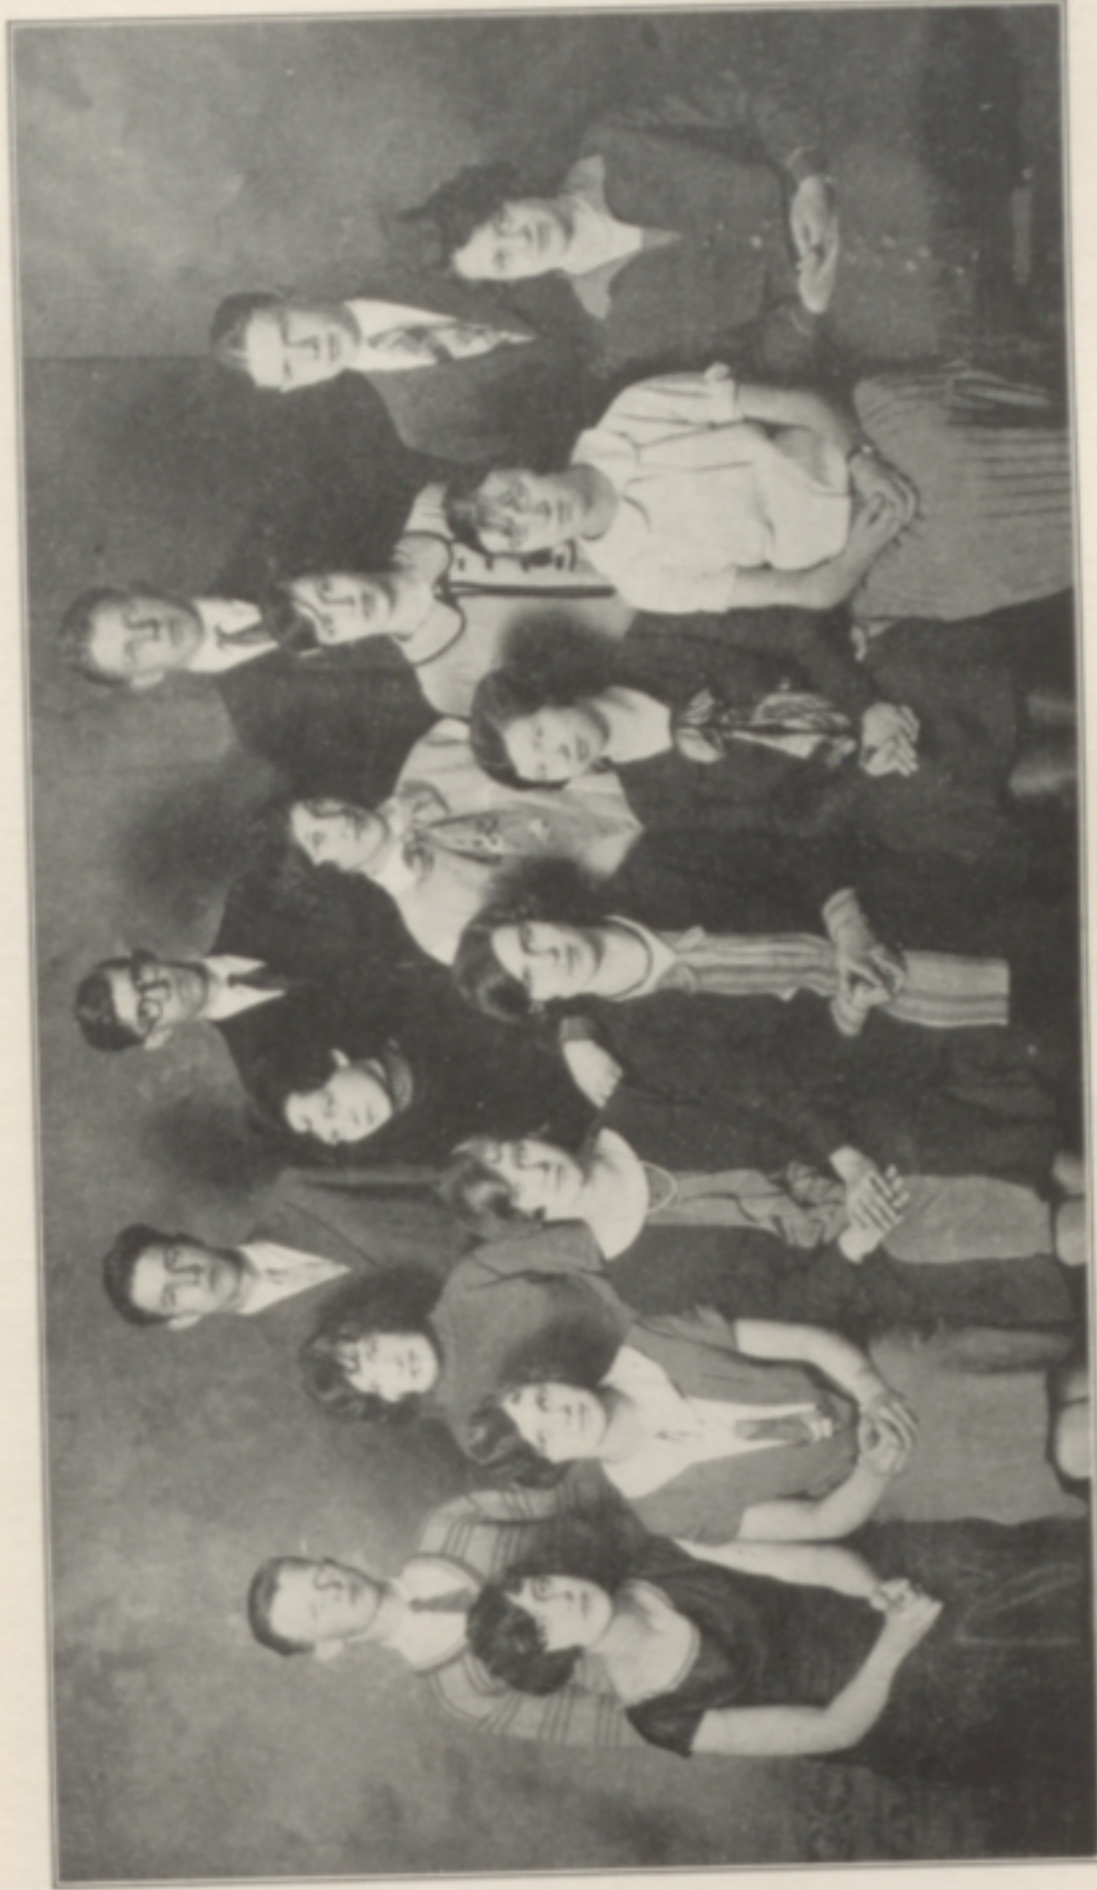

Miss Cook was chosen class advisor. Upon her departure Mr. Keller assumed the responsibility of guiding the Juniors.

The one big event of a Junior's life is the Prom. This year the Prom was given on the 3d of March in the Elks' Hall and was a great social success. The class colors, red and white, were used effectively in the decorating. The "Alaskans" furnished the music.

The Juniors tried many times to go on a weiner roast but due to the inclemency of the weather were unable to go until March 25 when the weather was perfect. They went to Salmon Creek point and had a glorious time.

The class has been represented in all school activities and next year will be known as "those industrious, dignified Seniors."

—M. P., '27.

President Fred Orme
Vice-President Judson Whittier
Secretary-Treasurer Agnes Pademeister
Class Advisor Miss Myhre

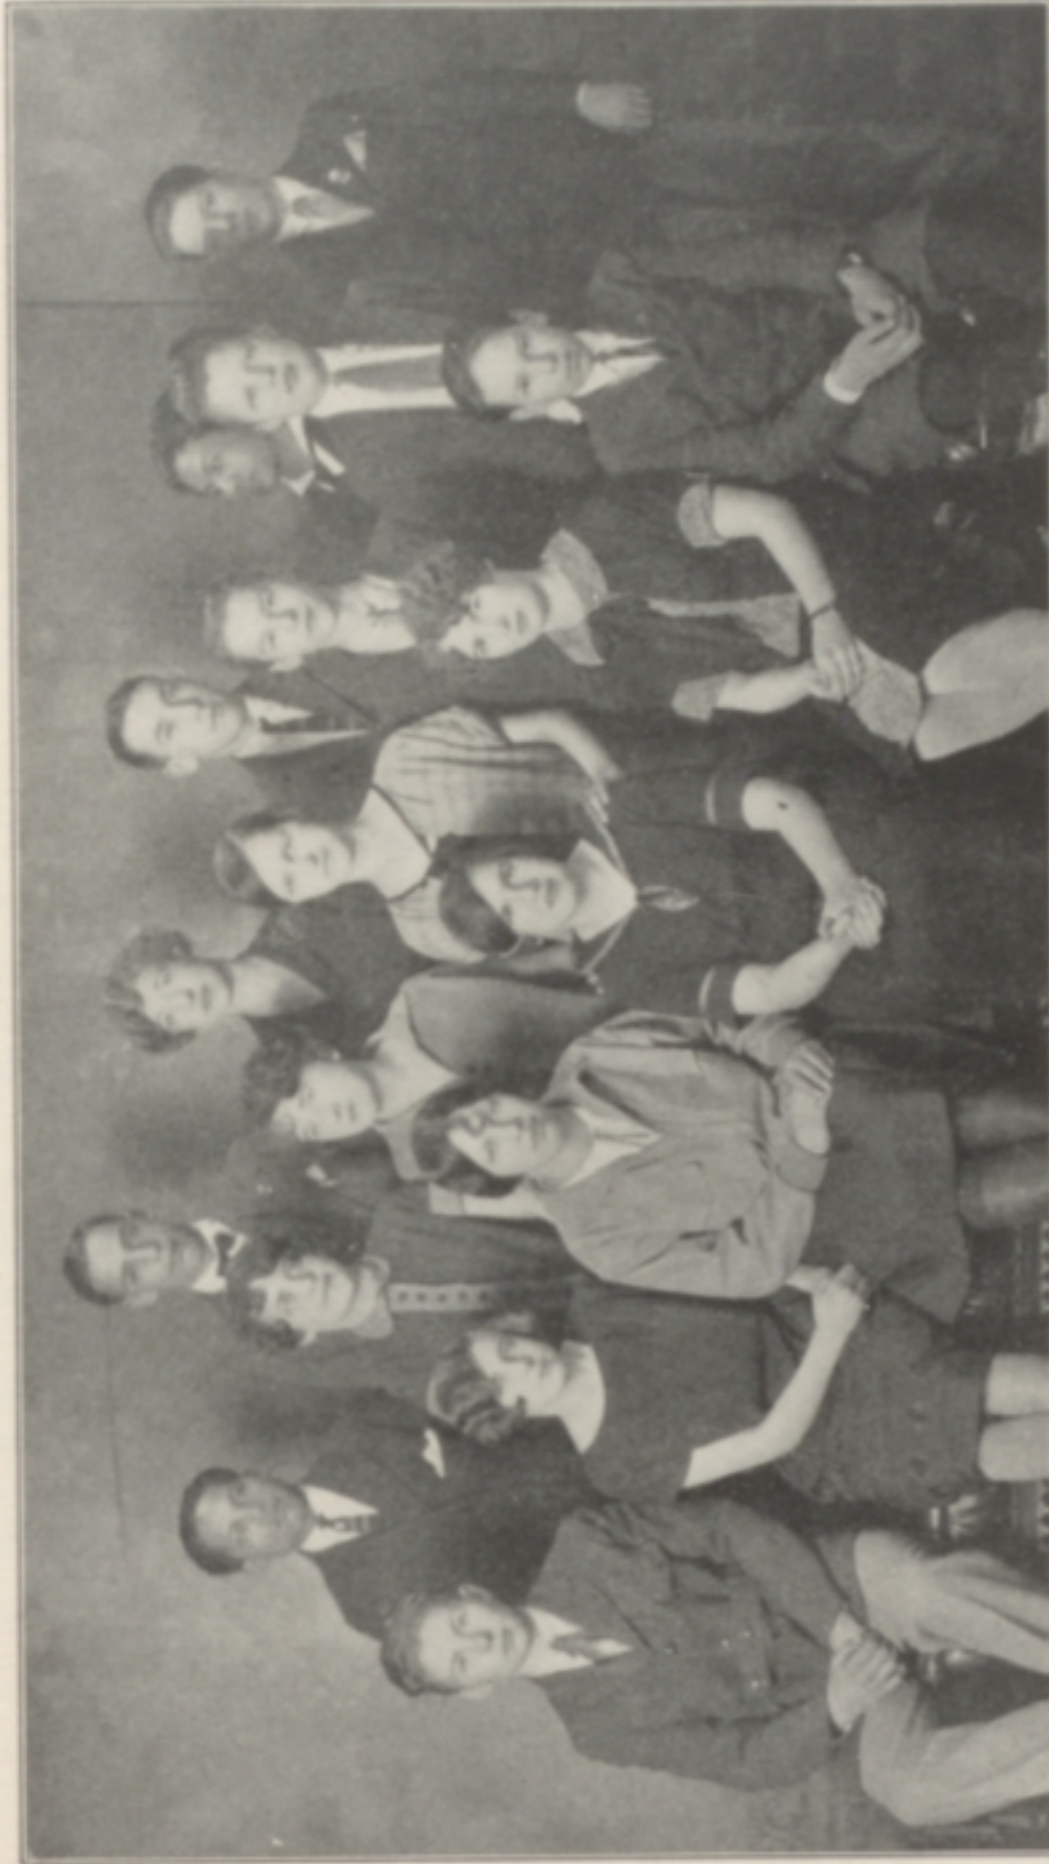

The Sophs in spite of the loss of several of their members, are continuing to hold their reputation of being one of the largest classes in high school.

The first event in society was the Sophomore Hop given in the School Gym. The hall was attractively decorated with the class colors, blue and white, and the music was furnished by the "Alaskans." It was attended by both Douglas and Juneau students who voted the dance a complete success.

In March a weinie roast was staged and the Thane road was chosen for the site. Seated in a circle around a large bon fire the Sophs shed their dignity and allowed their appetites to have full sway. The result was that an unmentionable number of weinies and cups of cocoa were consumed. After the refreshments were exhausted the remainder of the evening was spent in "swapping" stories and songs.

The Sophomores are well represented in most of the school activities. Several are members of the School Orchestra and Glee Clubs five of the girls and two of the boys play basketball. They have also taken part in all of the school operettas that have been given.

Freshmen

President	Harry Krane
Vice-President	Grace Davis
Secretary	George Hall
Treasurer	Robert Waggoner
Class Advisor	Miss Gray

The Freshmen class began its fight toward the coveted goal with twenty-four members, seven of which were girls.

Alex Kiloh, Alex Sturrock and Margaret Stanyar from Thane; Esther Davis from Douglas; Edward Poole from the States; Harry Krane from the westward; two boys from the Native School; Julia Stragier from the Parochial School and last year's Eighth Grade entered High School under the banner of orange and black.

The only social events on the Freshies calendar were a very successful dance given for the High School and a weiner roast which was held in the rain, much to the delight of the revelers.

The Freshmen show a good school spirit as it is noticed that they take part in all scholastic events possible.

J. H. S. Happenings as Seen by Abe Lincoln's Bust in the Assembly

- Sept. 7—School again. Well, it seems good to see all the kids back again. Only four mighty Seniors! What is J. H. S. coming to? There are enough Freshmen to make up for the lack of Seniors, although they seem "greener" than ever to me.
- Sept. 9—The Seniors are planning a Bacon Roast already. They are surely an industrious bunch.
- Sept. 15—Chris is already showing his ability as a chemist, saw Mr. Baker give him a "P." Does that mean perfect?
- Sept. 20—The "Faculty Big Game Club" is showing up quite prominently. Up to date they have six ducks, one-half deer, one ptarmigan and a countless number of fish ducks to their credit.
- Sept. 24—A new class has been established—Biology. Something more for the "Chem" class to kick about.
- Sept. 26—Freshmen were initiated last night out near Salmon Creek. All the Freshies looked paler and weaker than usual this morning. Too much garlic and NaCl I guess.
- Sept. 30—The Biology Class took their first field trip today. Bet all the students wish they were taking Biology.
- Oct. 8—The P.-T. A. is contemplating buying a bass horn for the Orchestra. Gee, don't they make racket enough as it is?
- Oct. 20—There's a lot of talk about "Eliza Coming to Stay." Don't know who she is, where she came from, or where she is going to stay, but I guess she's here.
- Oct. 28—First "J" Bird issue is out. Pat is surely some Editor.
- Nov. 2—Biology Class had another field trip. Some people are lucky.
- Nov. 8—Some queer things happen during play practice. And—Oh, yes, by the way—I found all about that Eliza. It wasn't anything but a play.
- Nov. 17—Marvin Chase is sporting some real brilliant socks. He nearly shocked me, they hurt my eyes so badly.

Juneau-Douglas City Museum

- Nov. 25—The Soph's and the Juniors are fighting it out in basketball. From what I have heard the Juniors are winning.
- Dec. 11—Whew!!! Two feminine yell leaders! I bet there will be enough noise this year at the basketball games
- Dec. 14—Ed hasn't quit blushing yet from the embrace he received during the Play Friday night. "'Smatter, Ed, bashful?"
- Dec. 18—The Hi team beat the Alumni all to pieces tonight. Oh, Boy!
- Dec. 20—"J" Hi has the first Juneau-Douglas basketball game to her credit. That's the stuff!
- Dec. 22—I heard the "Operetta" was fine, especially "Coal" and "Charcoal."
- Dec. 24—Oh, Boy! Christmas vacation starts! Now I can peacefully have a few days' sleep.
- Jan. 4—School again. Lots of things happened during vacation. Best of all "J. H. S." beat Wrangell High in basketball. Santa must have been pretty good to some of the boys around here. I see many a new sporty tie, even some of the members of the faculty.
- Jan. 9—Those girl yell leaders surely go through enough motions to make any gang of kids yell. You should see them.
- Jan. 14—Examinations! Oh———! I'm glad I'm not one of those kids who are diligently laboring for three hours straight. Nothing doing!
- Jan. 22—There are four turning out for debate—two girls and two boys. If there is any arguing to be done, I'm betting on the women.
- Jan. 26—The Sophs gave their "Hop" tonight. The building shook at the attempts of some people to "Charleston." Glad I don't have to stomp around like that.
- Jan. 29—Gee, even turtles go chasing around on the premises of J. H. S. I thought my eyes were deceiving me for sure when I saw that "thing" in the Assembly this morning. What won't those biologists do next?
- Feb. 5—Oh, Boy! "J" Hi won the basketball series from Douglas! Fifteen Rahs for Juneau!
- Feb. 10—The boys never are original. Here they came to school this morning wearing Spatter sox after seeing one of the girls attired in them.

Juneau-Douglas City Museum

Feb. 15—Gee, the Freshmen have taken to writing poetry. What next?

Feb. 20—Prom date has been set for March 5th. Judging by the arguments, and talking that has been going on at every Junior Class meeting, it sure will be some Prom.

Feb. 25—Everyone is getting ready for the first events of the Meet. Those Debaters have been trying to raise the roof with their lusty voices, but they haven't quite succeeded as yet. I told you I was betting on the women.

Mar. 10—Gee, I've been so excited over the outcome of the Meet that I almost forgot to record the happenings. Sorry to say, but Ketchikan won the first events of the Meet. Only four points ahead of Juneau, however. Those girls I was betting on tied with Ketchikan in Debate. That's the stuff! Believe me, from what I heard about Aggie and Mildred M. they are surely keen basketball players.

Mar. 15—The Seniors had the first Bacon Roast of the season at the "Old Camping Grounds of the Class of '26." Judging by the comments made they must have had a good time.

Mar. 20—Another Biology field trip! They found a member of the "Limacide" family. I never heard of that family around Juneau before.

Mar. 22—The Sophs had a Weenie Roast last night. From all indications a good time was had by all.

Apr. 1—April fool!

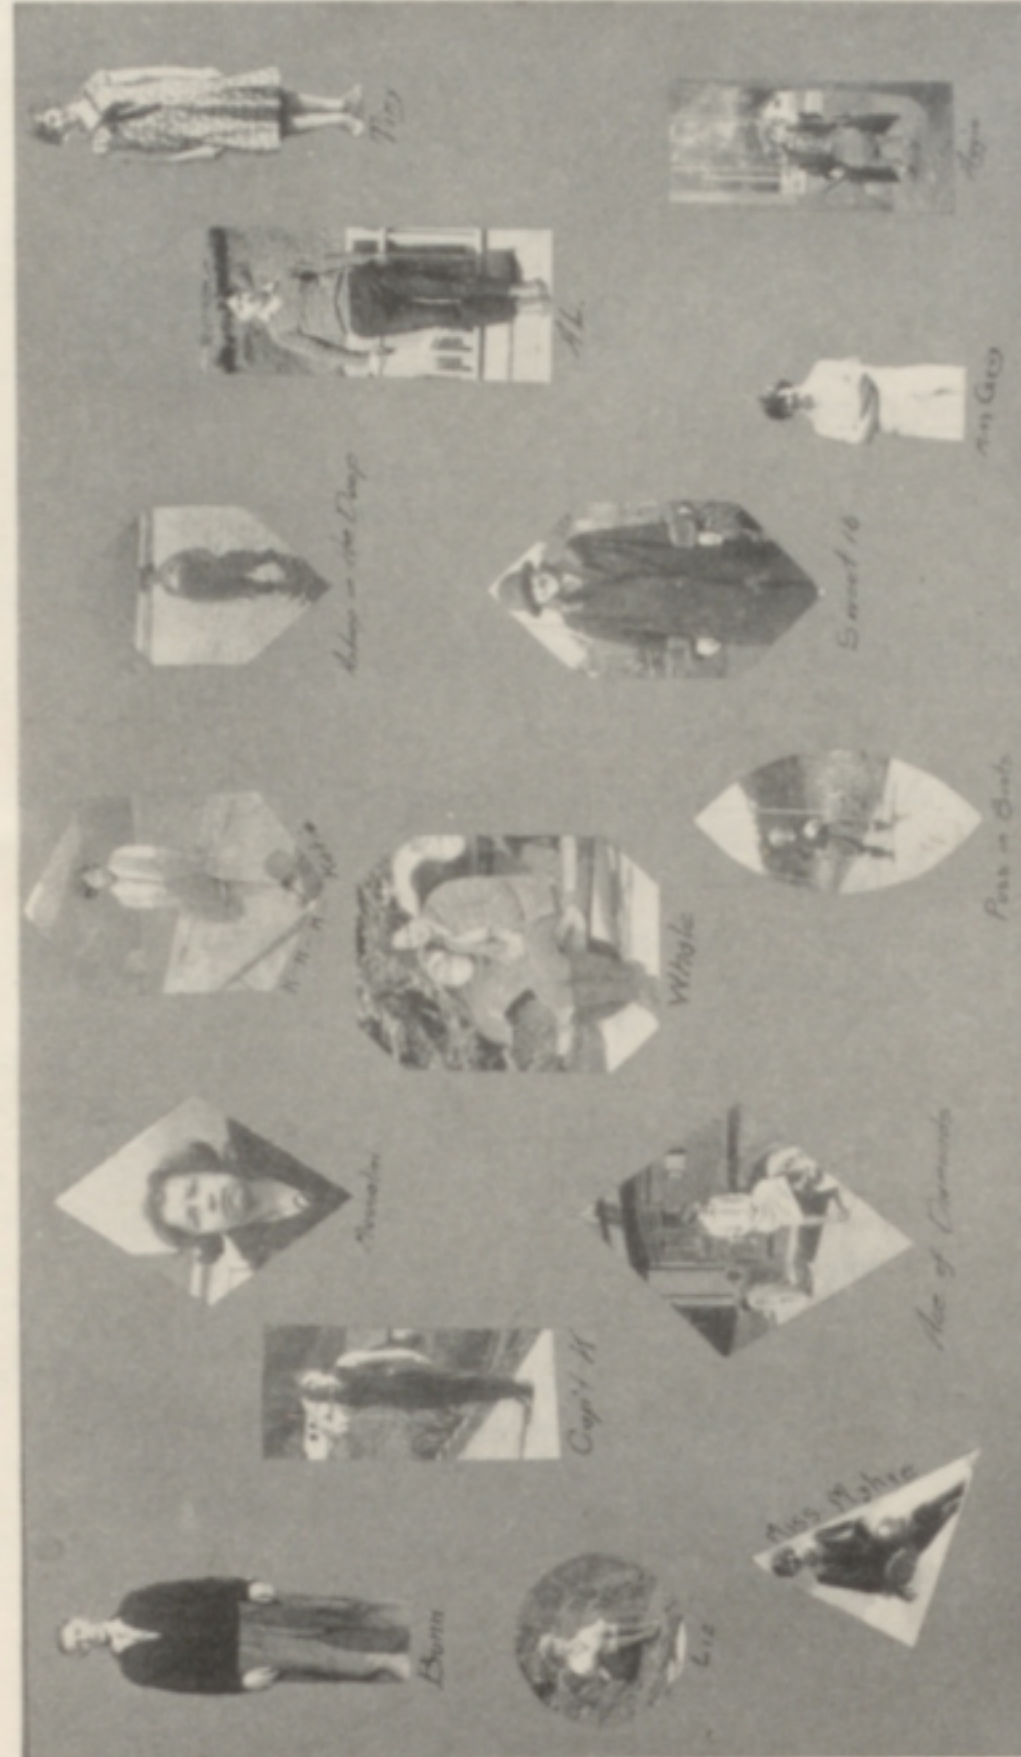

Apr. 7—My goodness, two more Weenie Roasts! The Freshies showed their true Juneau Spirit and held theirs on the dampest night they could find. The Juniors and two-fifths of the Seniors had the best time ever on a Roast out on Salmon Creek Point. Many are the ripping episodes that can happen on such an event.

April 14—Everything is ready for the Spanish Operetta. "Just a Pair of Beggars We" are the best ever.

Apr. 17—Those Beggars must have been "Flat" broke when they asked for "Help" the other night during the Operetta. That Bull Fight and the encore were surely great—no fooling.

Juneau-Douglas City Museum

- Apr. 21—The Seniors borrowed a "Bus Wagon" and celebrated in due fashion out at the cabin near the old Mendenhall School House. There are two pretty good cooks among the members of the class, but the dishwashers——!
- Apr. 30—That was some brass smelling contest held in the Chem room this morning. The subject still maintains the fact that a person can smell brass. I believe it, too.
- May 6—The Juneau kids are on their way to Ketchikan. Here's wishing them all the good luck going. Wish I was going along so I could record the happenings, but I guess I can't.
- May 10—Oh, Boy! School will be out the twenty-eighth of this month and won't I celebrate along with the rest! I hate to think of just four Seniors up there receiving their diplomas, but that is all there will be since Pat is gone.
- May 20—The kids are talking about a School Picnic. My, but they always have so much fun on their out of door events, I wish I could go with them.
- May 23—Examinations are just starting and there surely is a number of long faces around here—Cheer up, the worst is yet to come, you know!
- May 28—Well, I watched those four Seniors tonight and I hate to think that they won't be back again next year. The school will miss Ed in Athletics; the Science classes will miss Bobby, and everyone else will, too, 'cause he is always so good natured; the Orchestra will miss Pat since he has been a member for six years. Pat is also one of the best students J. H. S. has ever had. It will seem queer not seeing "Tiny" coming to school in the morning and at noon with a regular army of little tots with her, not much smaller than she is herself. The History Class will seem queer without Elizabeth to start the arguments and debates, and can you imagine a Weenie Roast without her? Oh, well, its all in a lifetime here at school. Now that nine months of school are finished again, there won't be very much excitement for me until September comes again. Well, so long, and have a good vacation.

ACTIVITIES

Society

The social events for the High School began in October with bacon roasts and ended in May with a bacon roast. Between the first and last roasts were included various forms of entertainments, all of which were successful and very much enjoyed by the students of the Juneau High School.

The first bacon roast of the year was given by the Seniors who are always ready for recreation of that type. Closely following this event was the Freshman initiation. The upper classmen got their heads together one day to devise ways to "treat the Frosh rough." Plans were carefully laid and at the end of the day of humiliation for the Freshies, the Seniors were willing to admit that they were good sports and would obey the rules made for them.

When winter approached and the weather became too wet for outdoor sports, a Student Body dance was given in the school gymnasium. All attended in their old clothes. Those who did not wish to dance spent the evening playing games and cards until refreshments were served. Many a lad, who knew nothing of the art of dancing was spirited away from a game by some fair one and was soon found dancing to the irresistible strains of the orchestra.

Because of the success of their first dance, the students decided to give another, which they did one Friday night after a double-header basketball game. The Douglas students were invited to join the party. At the close of the evening's merriment, refreshments were served.

About a month elapsed before the next dance took place, the Sophomore Hop which was given by the class of '28. The gym was cleverly decorated in blue and white. With excellent music and very good punch and cookies the Sophs demonstrated their ability to entertain.

The Freshmen could not allow the upper classmen to carry away all honors for providing successful entertainments, so they made preparations for their first social plunge in the form of a dance and proved themselves competent entertainers.

The most elaborate entertainment of the school term is the Junior Prom. On March fifth this enjoyable event was held at Elks' Hall. The hall was artistically decorated with red and white streamers. Delicious punch was served throughout the evening. A large crowd declared the dance one of the most successful affairs to be given by the Juneau High School students.

With the coming of gentle spring breezes and bright sunshine, clamors arose for "bacon and weiner roasts." Classes met often and announcements were made in the assembly for each member to bring a cup, spoon, and the necessary money to procure "eats" for the crowd.

The Seniors are veteran weinie roasters and theirs was the first of the season. Then followed a similar outing for the Sophs, Juniors, and Frosh.

The Sophs hiked towards Thane to find their camping place.

The Frosh seemed so anxious to go out into the great wide open spaces to prepare their dinner that it was impossible for them to wait for a clear day. They ventured forth in a downpour of rain and consequently returned home drenched, but well satisfied with their adventure.

The Juniors, who believe in having all of the comforts necessary to life, if it be possible to procure them, did not walk to their camping grounds as the others had done, but provided transportation to and from the scene of the roast.

Again the temptation to be out under the stars roasting bacon was too great for the Seniors, and one fine evening found them all prepared for the event. This time a phonograph was brought along to create extra amusement. Previous to this the only musical instruments carried on such occasions have been jazz whistles and combs.

The students of J. H. S. feel that their social calendar for this year has afforded them much pleasure.

—Elizabeth Madsen, '26.

"J" Bird

After completing its fourth volume, which consisted of twelve issues, the "J" Bird Staff finished its work for the term of 1925-26. The enthusiasm of the townspeople in subscribing and advertising made the "J" Bird a success financially.

The exchange department has shown our paper to be popular with schools in the States, more than two hundred papers regularly exchanging with the "J" Bird. Criticisms from other papers are always welcome because they help to improve our paper.

Girls' Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club has been very active this year and has contributed musical numbers to the orchestra concerts. In addition the Glee Club sang at two Parent-Teacher Association meetings. Although fewer in number than last year the voices are of a good quality and blend well.

The members of the Glee Club are as follows:

Sopranos: Grace Davis, Agnes Pademeister, Irene Burke, Grace Naghel, Evelyn Judson, Alma Weil, Elsie Jensen, Clara Krogh, Esther Davis, Elizabeth Madsen, Celia Larsen, Dagny Hagerup, Winnifred Carlson.

Altos: Margaret Kiloh, Elsie Baggen, Mable Sturrock, Wilhelmine Larsen, Natalia Kashevaroff, Elizabeth Pullen, Xenia Kashevaroff.

Accompanist: Iris Gray.

Boys' Glee Club

The Boys' Glee Club, an active though small body, made its first appearance at the second orchestra concert and was well received. It also has helped to make the chorus selections a success.

The Boys' Glee Club is composed of the following:

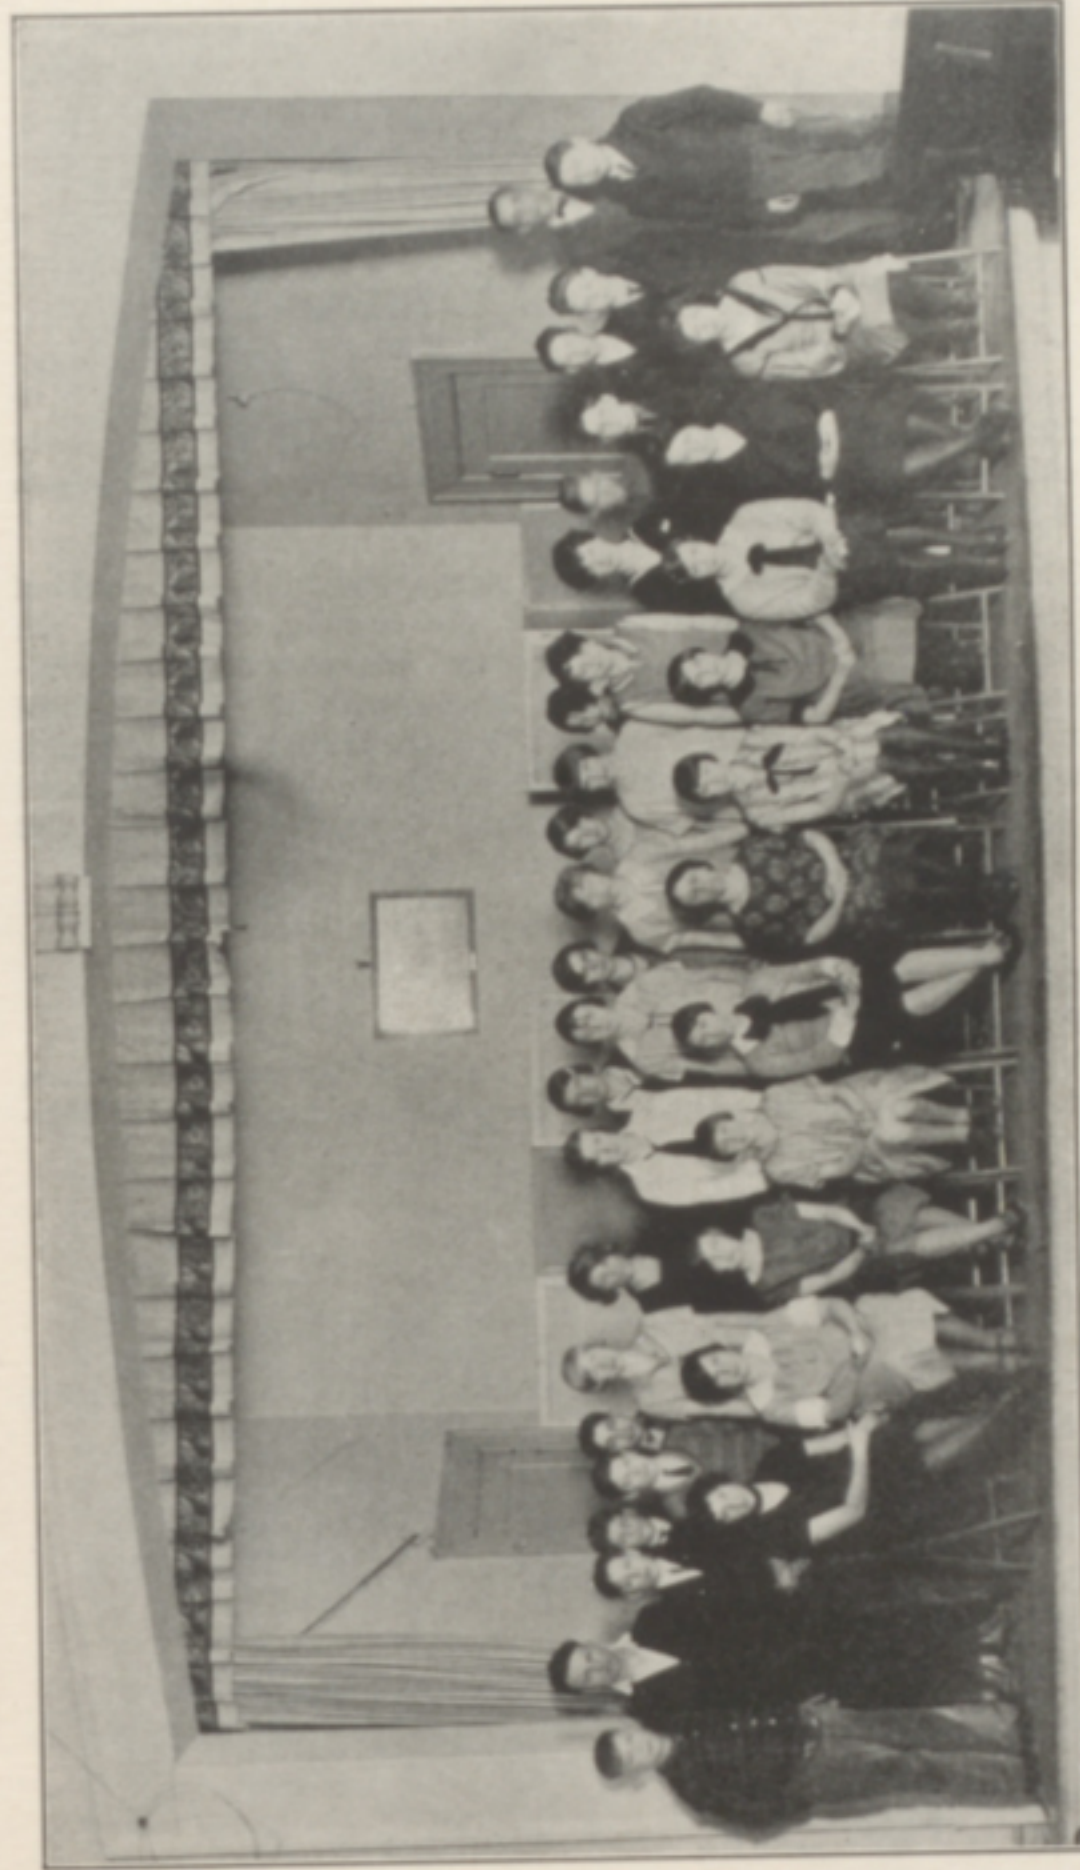

Tenors: Brian Harland, Einar Jackson, Robert Waggoner, George Mock, George Hall, John Stewart, Edward Mize, Charles White, Mike Saloum, Tom Redlingshafer.

Basses: Walter Heisel, Marvan Chase.

Accompanist: Gladys Naghel.

High School Chorus

This branch of the high school music is composed of both boys' and girls' glee clubs under the direction of Miss Pelz. The chorus has given a selection at each of the three orchestra concerts, many remarks of appreciation were heard from people in the audience.

Juneau School Orchestra

This organization is one of which any school may be justly proud. It is composed of twenty-six active members, most of whom have started under Mrs. Woods' instruction.

The orchestra appeared in public many times during the school year. It gave a concert for one of the evening sessions of the Teachers' Institute last September, rendered selections at two Parent-Teacher Association meetings, and jointly with the High School Glee Club gave three free Sunday afternoon concerts, all of which were well received by the public. It furnished music for the school play and for the two school operettas, "Christmas With the Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe" and "The Toreadors."

The instrumentation of the orchestra is as follows:

Director: Mrs. J. W. Woods.

Piano: Iris Gray.

Violins: Edward Naghel, David Ramsay, Gertrude Waltonen, Jack Secrest, James Ramsay, Celia Larsen, Irene Burke, Brian Harland and Helen Skuse.

Cello: Marie Meade.

Double Bass: Marvin Chase.

Flutes: Arthur Burke, Ben Stewart.

Clarinet: George Hall.

Saxophones: Clara Krogh, David Morgan.

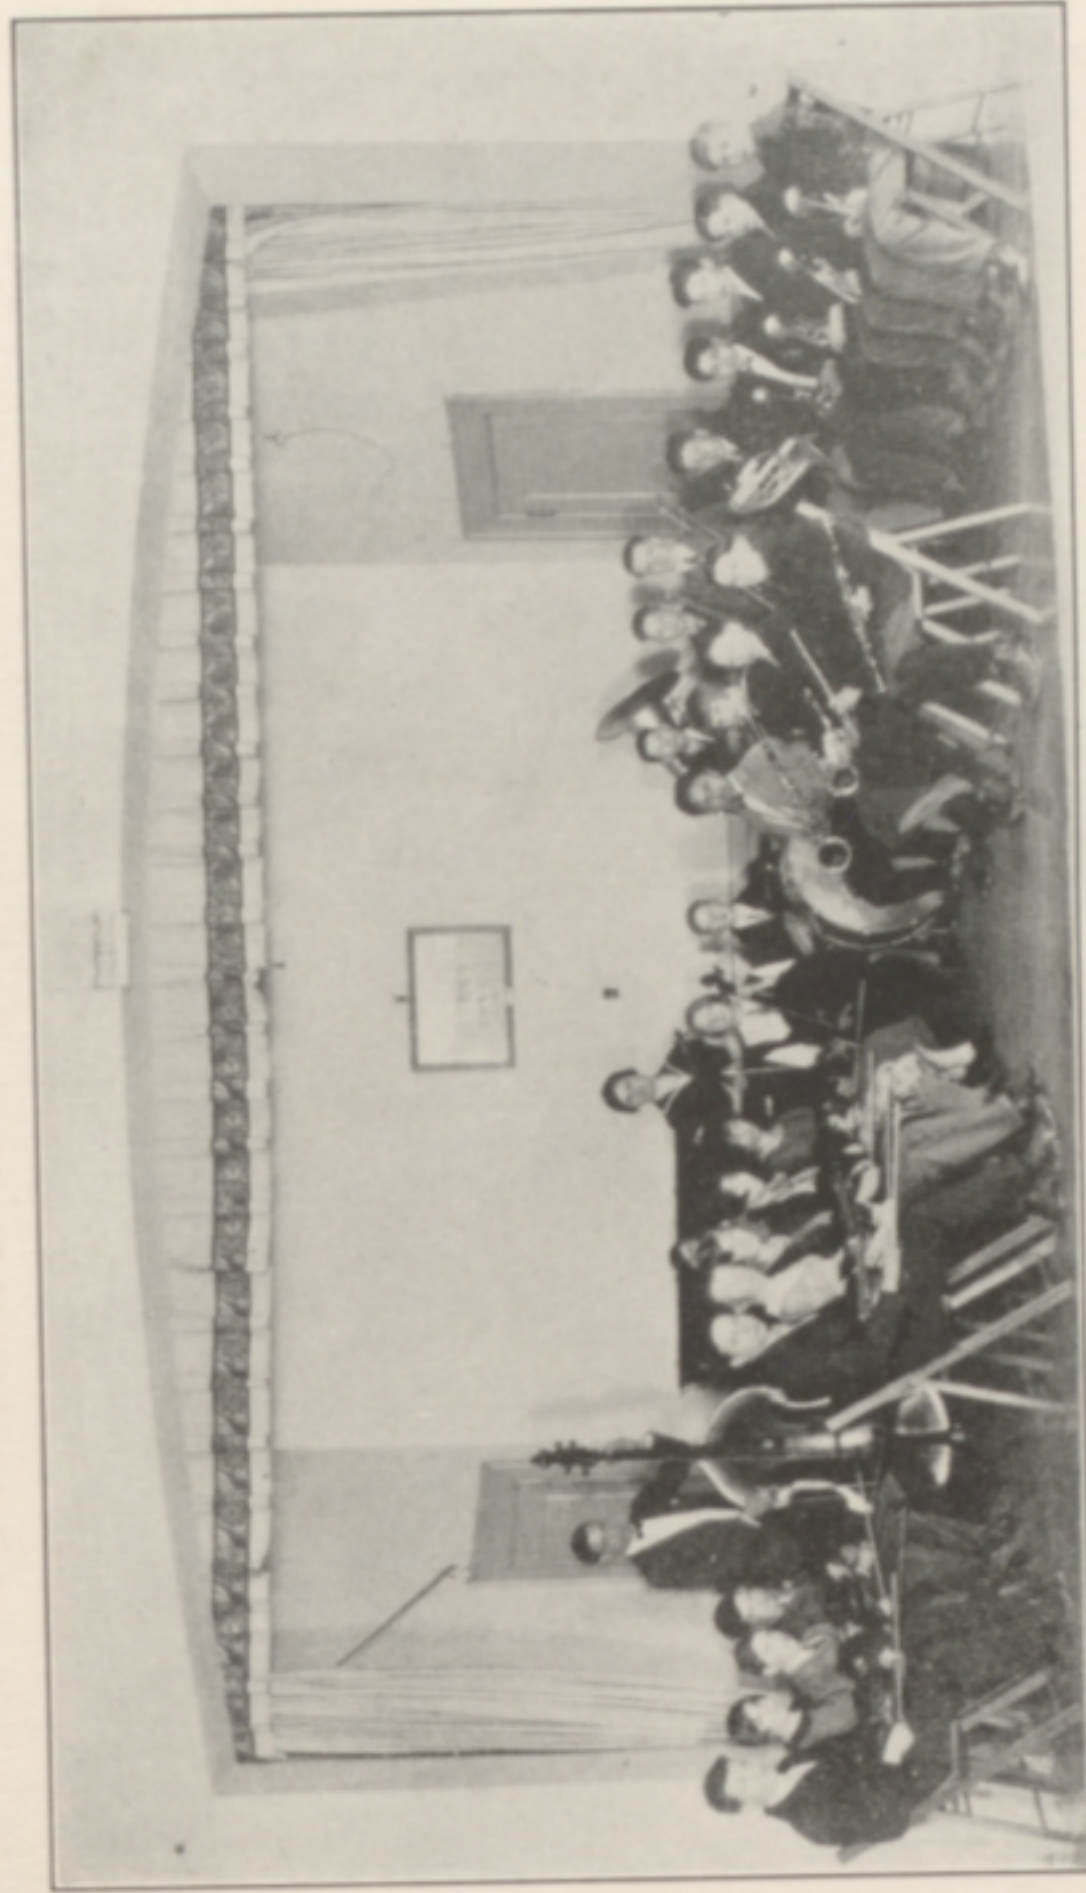

Cornets: George Mock, John Stewart, Mike Saloum, Robert Waggoner.

Mellophone: Judson Whittier.

Trombones: Clarence Dunn, Tom Redlingshafer.

BBb Helicon Bass: Arthur Judson.

Drums and Bells: Winfield Pullen, Jr.

Juneau School Band

The Juneau School Band, consisting of nineteen members, was first organized two years ago and has taken an active part in the instrumental music of the school. It appeared at two Sunday afternoon concerts and during the basketball season it furnished music for all the local school games. It was especially active during the Inter-School Meet held here the latter part of February, and added "pep" and enthusiasm to the evening games. Much favorable comment was heard from both visitors and locals.

The membership and instrumentation of the band is as follows:

Director: Mrs. J. W. Woods.

Flutes: Arthur Burke, Ben Stewart.

Clarinets: George Hall, Carl Jensen, Brian Harland.

Saxophones: Clara Krough, David Morgan.

Cornets: George Mock, Robert Waggoner, George White, Mike Saloum, John Stewart.

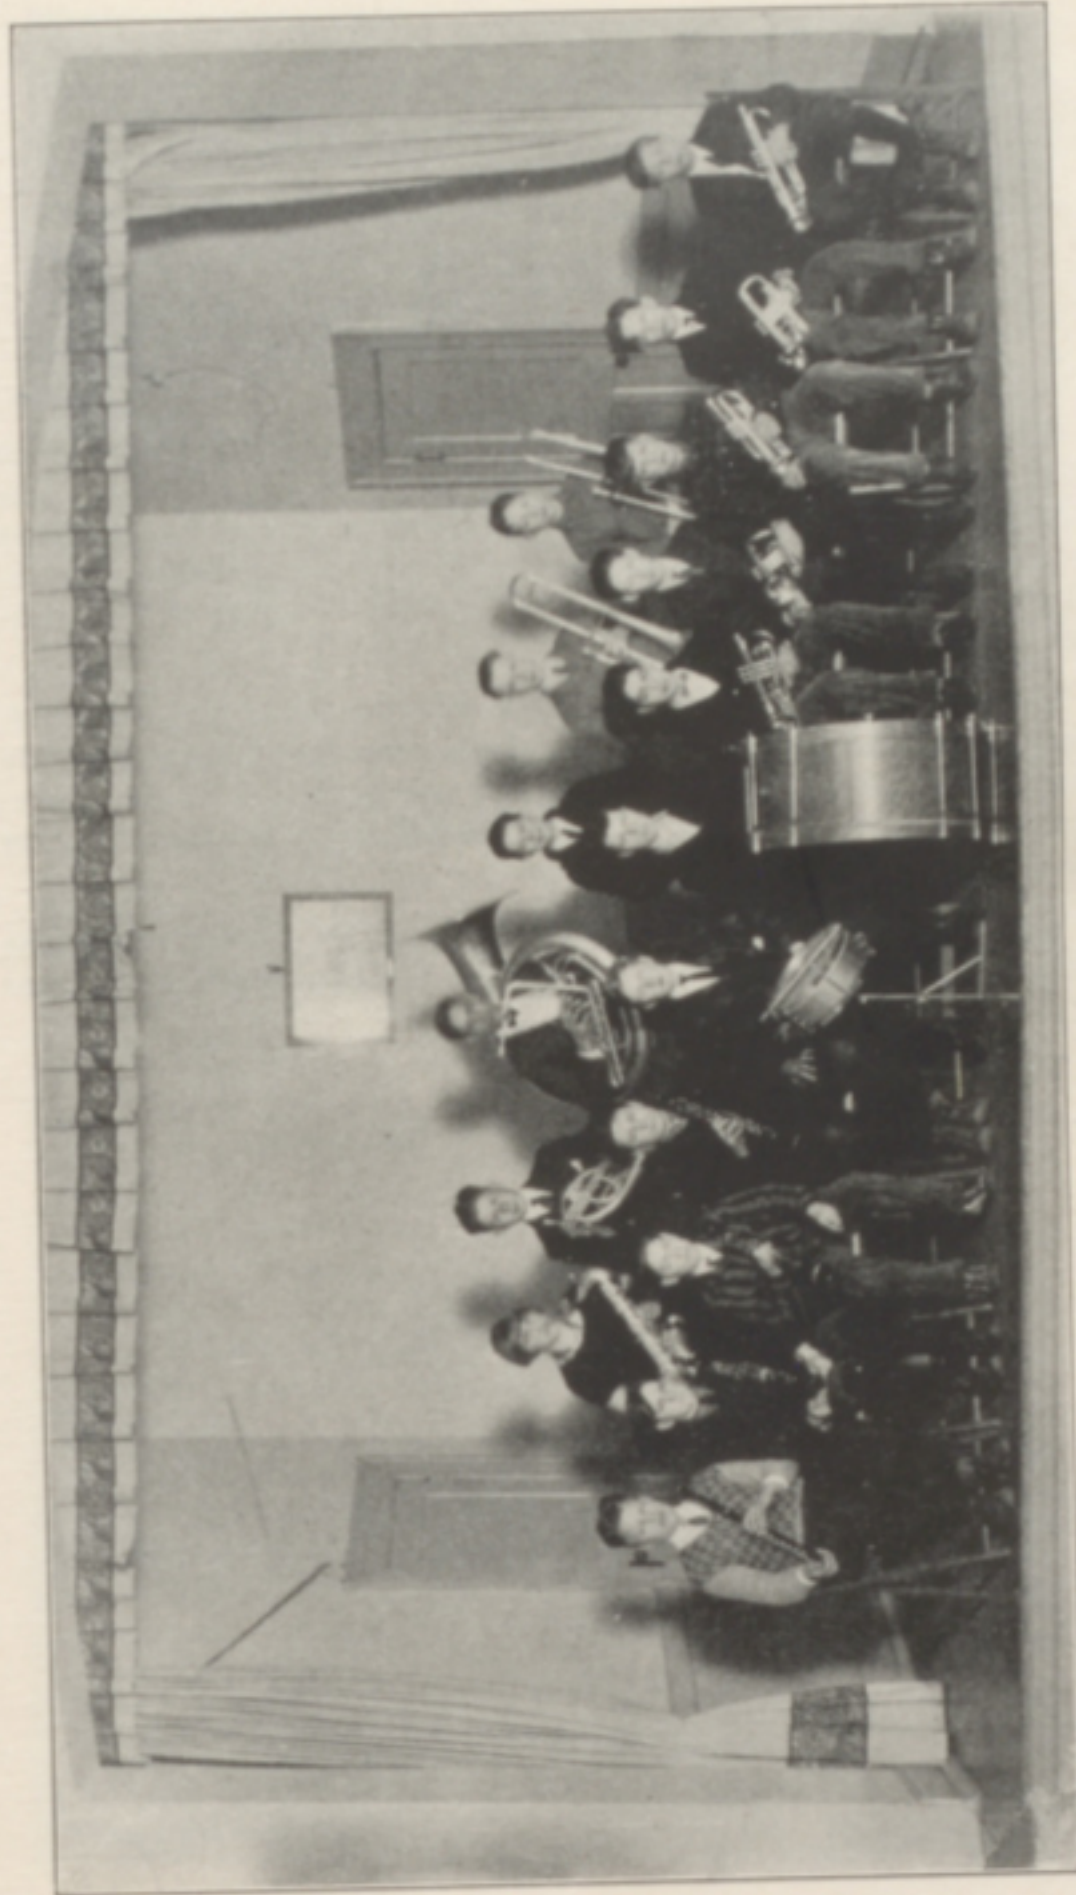

Mellophone: Judson Whittier.

Trombones: Clarence Dunn, Arthur Judson, Tom Redlingshafer.

BBb Helicon Bass: Marvan Chase.

Snare Drum: Winfield Pullen, Jr.

Bass Drum: James Ramsay.

"Eliza Comes to Stay"

The first event for the raising of funds for the Inter-School Meet was the play "Eliza Comes to Stay" by H. V. Esmond. The play was given on December 4th and 5th at the Palace Theatre by the students of the High School and showed the result of careful training on the part of Miss Cook and the diligence of the members of the cast.

Mildred Warwick as Eliza Vandam, "the little golden-haired, blue-eyed cherub" who arrives as a legacy for the Honorable Sandy Verrall created a great sensation when she walked into the apartment of Sandy Verrall in the most non-descript costume seen on the stage in Juneau for a long time.

The Honorable Stoop Verrall was played by Ed Garnick. He acted his part very well and caused the audience much amusement by his expostulations.

The characters and managers were:

Dorothy	Mildred Warwick
The Honorable Stoop Verrall	Ed Garnick
Alexander Stoop Verrall	Walter Heisel
Montague Jordan	Robert Mize
Herbert, a valet	Harold Brown
A deliveryman	Robert Livie
Lady Pennybroke	Grace Davis
Miss Vera Lawrence	Natalia Kashevaroff
Mrs. Alloway, nurse	Evelyn Judson
Director	Lois Cook
Business Manager	Pat Naghel
Stage Manager	John Spickett
Property Mistress	Wilhelmina Larsen

"The Toreadors"

"The Toreadors" an operetta in two acts by Otis M. Carrington was presented by the high school students on April 16th and 17th at the Elks' Hall. The play was under the direction of Mrs. J. W. Woods, who has charge of the instrumental music department.

The operetta was a Spanish one and proved a great success as an entertainment as well as financially. The songs were very catchy and the lines clever. A special feature was the mandolin obligato played by Mildred Warwick and Gertrude Waltonen. The music was furnished by the orchestra under the leadership of Mrs. Woods.

Walter Heisel, in the role of the Spanish gentleman, had a difficult part to portray and carried his acting off very creditably. He made a big hit in his songs, which were very clever.

Alma Weil and Evelyn Judson as the two daughter of Senor Dictorio, were charming as two Spanish señoritas.

George Mock and Arthur Judson, who played the part of the beggars who later masqueraded as toreadors were amusing and acted very well.

Jackson Rice and Marvan Chase played the part of the suitors for the hands of Benita and Juanita and did their parts professionally. They had a number of difficulties but finally succeeded in winning the hands of the girls.

Dolores and Maria, the friends of Benita and Juanita were played very creditably by Irene Lundstrom and Grace Davis.

The cast and management follows:

Senor Dictorio, wealthy farmer, admirer of toreadors	Walter Heisel
Benita, daughter of Senor Dictorio	Evelyn Judson
Juanita, daughter of Senor Dictorio	Alma Weil
Juan, wealthy young Spaniard, suitor of Benita	Jackson Rice
Pablo, friend of Juan and suitor of Juanita	Marvan Chase
Senor Swateo, beggar masquerading as a toreador	George Mock
Senor Whackeo, beggar masquerading as a toreador	Arthur Judson
Dolores, friend of Benita	Irene Lundstrom
Maria, friend of Juanita	Grace Davis

Spanish Dancers: Grace Naghel, Gladys Naghel, Elizabeth Pullen, Natalia Kashevaroff.

Chorus of Girls: Elsie Baggen, Winnifred Carlson, Esther Davis, Dagny Hagerup, Elsie Jensen, Xenia Kashevaroff, Margaret Kiloh, Wilhelmina Larson, Elizabeth Madsen, Agnes Pademeister, Mabel Sturrock, Elizabeth Terhune.

Chorus of Boys: Charles Femmer, Brian Harland, Einar Jackson, Edward Mize, Tom Redlingshafer, Charles White.

"Christmas With the Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe"

The operetta "Christmas With the Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe" by Gardener and Jewitt was presented by the combined High School and grade students on December 21 and 22 at the Elks' Hall. Mrs. J. W. Woods supervised the production of the operetta and achieved another success. The High School Orchestra furnished the music for the play.

Goody Green, the Old Woman in the Shoe was played by Harriet Barragar. She was very good in her role and managed her many children very well.

Walter Heisel, had the important part of Santa Claus and made a big hit with the children. He played his part in a jolly way and made every one feel the spirit of the occasion.

Mother Goose was played by Alma Weil. She came flying in on her broom at an opportune time to help entertain the children. She did some clever dancing and earned the applause of the audience.

Evelyn Judson, as the Fairy Godmother brought her fairies with her to help Goody Green. She acted with Santa Claus and Mother Goose to give the children a merry Christmas.

Grace Davis, who played the part of the Sleepy Fairy, had a small part in that capacity but she did it creditably and her Sleep song made a good impression on the audience.

The two little pickininnies Coal and Charcoal, played by Jim Cole and Sonny Gray caused much laughter by their funny antics.

The entire cast and management follows:

Goody Green, the Old Woman in the Shoe.....	Harriet Barragar
Santa Claus.....	Walter Heisel
The Fairy Godmother.....	Evelyn Judson
Mother Goose.....	Alma Weil
Sleep Fairy.....	Grace Davis
Coal.....	Jim Cole
Charcoal.....	Latimer Gray

Children of Goody Green (in numerical order)

1. Jane	Grace Davis
2. Max	George Mock
3. Climax	Brian Harland
4. Rosie	Eunice Newman

The Call of the Sea

Whenever the waves in fury dash upon the shore—
I hear the bounding billows—

calling me—

The voice from the deep that I adore;
Would that I could—

answer thee.

A wild thrill; a desire to live—and sail!
To feel the cool spray on my cheek; the sea breeze in my hair—

A longing to bound before the gale;
To hold the wheel;—defy the storm—

"Out there!"

The voice is ever calling me—
It haunts me in my dreams;
I turn, try not to heed,
"Come and be free."
How clear it seems.

Shall I heed this command of soul?
Before the mast my father has sailed—

For many a year;

His spirit lives with me—
Like him, I shall respond

The day is near.

The Fifth Annual Inter-School Meet

Ketchikan was the winner of the Fifth Annual Inter-School Meet, for the first time during its history. The Juneau delegation was a close second losing by only one point.

The meet was held this year in an all together different manner from that of previous years. The first events, Girls' and Boys' Basketball and Debate were held in Juneau during February. In April the various schools contesting sent in their finished products in Manual Training, Sewing, Written English and Typing to different places as named by the Board of Control. On May fourth the Juneau representatives in Track, Orchestra and Declamation left Juneau for Ketchikan returning six days later.

Of the ten trophies offered, Juneau has in her possession two, Ketchikan six, and Douglas one. The cup offered for Debate remains unclaimed as the result of the debates was a tie between Juneau and Ketchikan.

DEBATE

Ketchikan and Juneau tied for first place in Debate. The Juneau contestants were Mildred Warwick and Evelyn Judson. Wrangell and Ketchikan debated first in Juneau, Kay Hi winning both debates with a two to one decision. Juneau and Ketchikan debated, Kay Hi winning the first debate with a two to one decision and Juneau the second by a two to one decision, thus tying the honors.

SEWING

Elizabeth Madsen and Irene Lundstrom representing Juneau, captured first place in sewing which was judged in Petersburg; Ketchikan taking second and Douglas third.

TYPING

Mable Sturrock of Juneau, ranked first in the Typing contest; Ketchikan took second place and Wrangell third. The papers were judged at Douglas.

MANUAL TRAINING

Carl Jensen of Juneau won second place in Manual Training; Ketchikan ranking first and Douglas third. The contest was judged at Wrangell and all three of the products sent in were said to be very well made.

WRITTEN ENGLISH

The Written English papers were judged at Skagway, Douglas winning first place, Ketchikan second and Wrangell third.

DECLAMATION

Elsie Baggen, who represented Juneau in declamation, won second place in that event. She chose Mark Twain's "Death Disk" which she gave in a very effective manner.

ORCHESTRA CONTEST

The Inter-School Meet Orchestra contest was held in the high school auditorium at Ketchikan, May 6th. Juneau was represented by twelve students elected from the School Orchestra, as follows:

Director: Mrs. J. W. Woods.
Piano: Iris Gray.
Violins: David Ramsay, James Ramsay, Gertrude Waltonen.
Cello: Marie Meade.
Double Bass: Marvan Chase.
Saxophone: Clara Krogh.
Flute: Arthur Burke.
Clarinet: George Hall.
Cornet: George Mock.
Trombone: Clarence Dunn.
Drums: Winfield Pullen, Jr.

The following program was given by the Juneau Orchestra during the contest:

"March Militaire" (Warming-up Selection) Schubert
"Prelude" Rachmaninoff
"Lustspiel Overture" Keler-Bela

The judges for the contest were: Mr. E. J. Dyer, Dr. R. V. Ellis and Miss M. Foosness, all prominent Ketchikan musicians. First place was unanimously awarded to Juneau and second to Ketchikan. Only two schools took part in this event.

BASKETBALL

Douglas took first place in girls' basketball, and Juneau took second winning from all the teams but her told rival, Douglas. Petersburg won third place by defeating Wrangell.

In boys' basketball first place was taken by Ketchikan, Wrangell ranking second and Douglas third.

TRACK

The Juneau contestants in track this year were Ed Garnick, David Ramsay, Fred Orme, James Ramsay, Harold Peterson and Marvan Chase. Ed Garnick, Juneau's star athlete, this year, carried the bulk of the work. Two records, that of Broad Jump and Shot Put, of previous years were broken.

Juneau-Douglas City Museum

100-yd. Dash—Garnick (J) first; Chase (J) second; Haldane (K) third. Time, eleven and four-fifths seconds; 1924—eleven seconds.

50-yd. Dash—Haldane (K) first; Garnick (J) second; Ridley (K) third. Time, six and one-tenth seconds.

220-yd. Dash—Garnick (J) first; Chase (J) second; Haldane (K) third. Time, twenty-seven seconds.

100-yd. Hurdles—Haldane (K) first; Ridley (K) second; Orme (J) third.

220-yd. Hurdles—Haldane (K) first; Ridley (K) second; Garnick (J) third. Time, thirty-two and three-fifths seconds.

Broad Jump—Garnick (J) first; Peterson (K) second; Ridley (K) third. Distance, nineteen feet, breaking the record of 1925 of eighteen feet, five and one-half inches.

High Jump—Frederickson (K) first; Garnick (J) second; Peterson (J) third. Height, five feet; record of 1924—five feet, three inches.

Half-mile Relay—Ketchikan, first; Juneau, second. Time, one minute and fifty-six and four-tenths seconds.

Half-mile Run—Falkner (K) first; Bold (K) second; D. Ramsay (J) third. Time, two minutes and thirty seconds.

Mile Run—Falconer (K) first; D. Ramsay (J) second; Bailey (K) third. Time, five minutes and forty-one and three-fifths seconds.

Pole Vault—Haldane and Ridley (K) ties for first; J. Ramsay (J) third. Height, eight feet and nine inches.

Shot Put—Haldane (K) first; Ridley (K) second; Garnick (J) third. Distance, thirty-seven feet, ten and one-half inches, breaking the record of 1925 of thirty-six feet, nine inches.

Girls' Basketball

The first call for basketball was issued by Superintendent Keller the latter part of November. About fifteen girls answered the call and much credit is due them for helping to make the team a winning one.

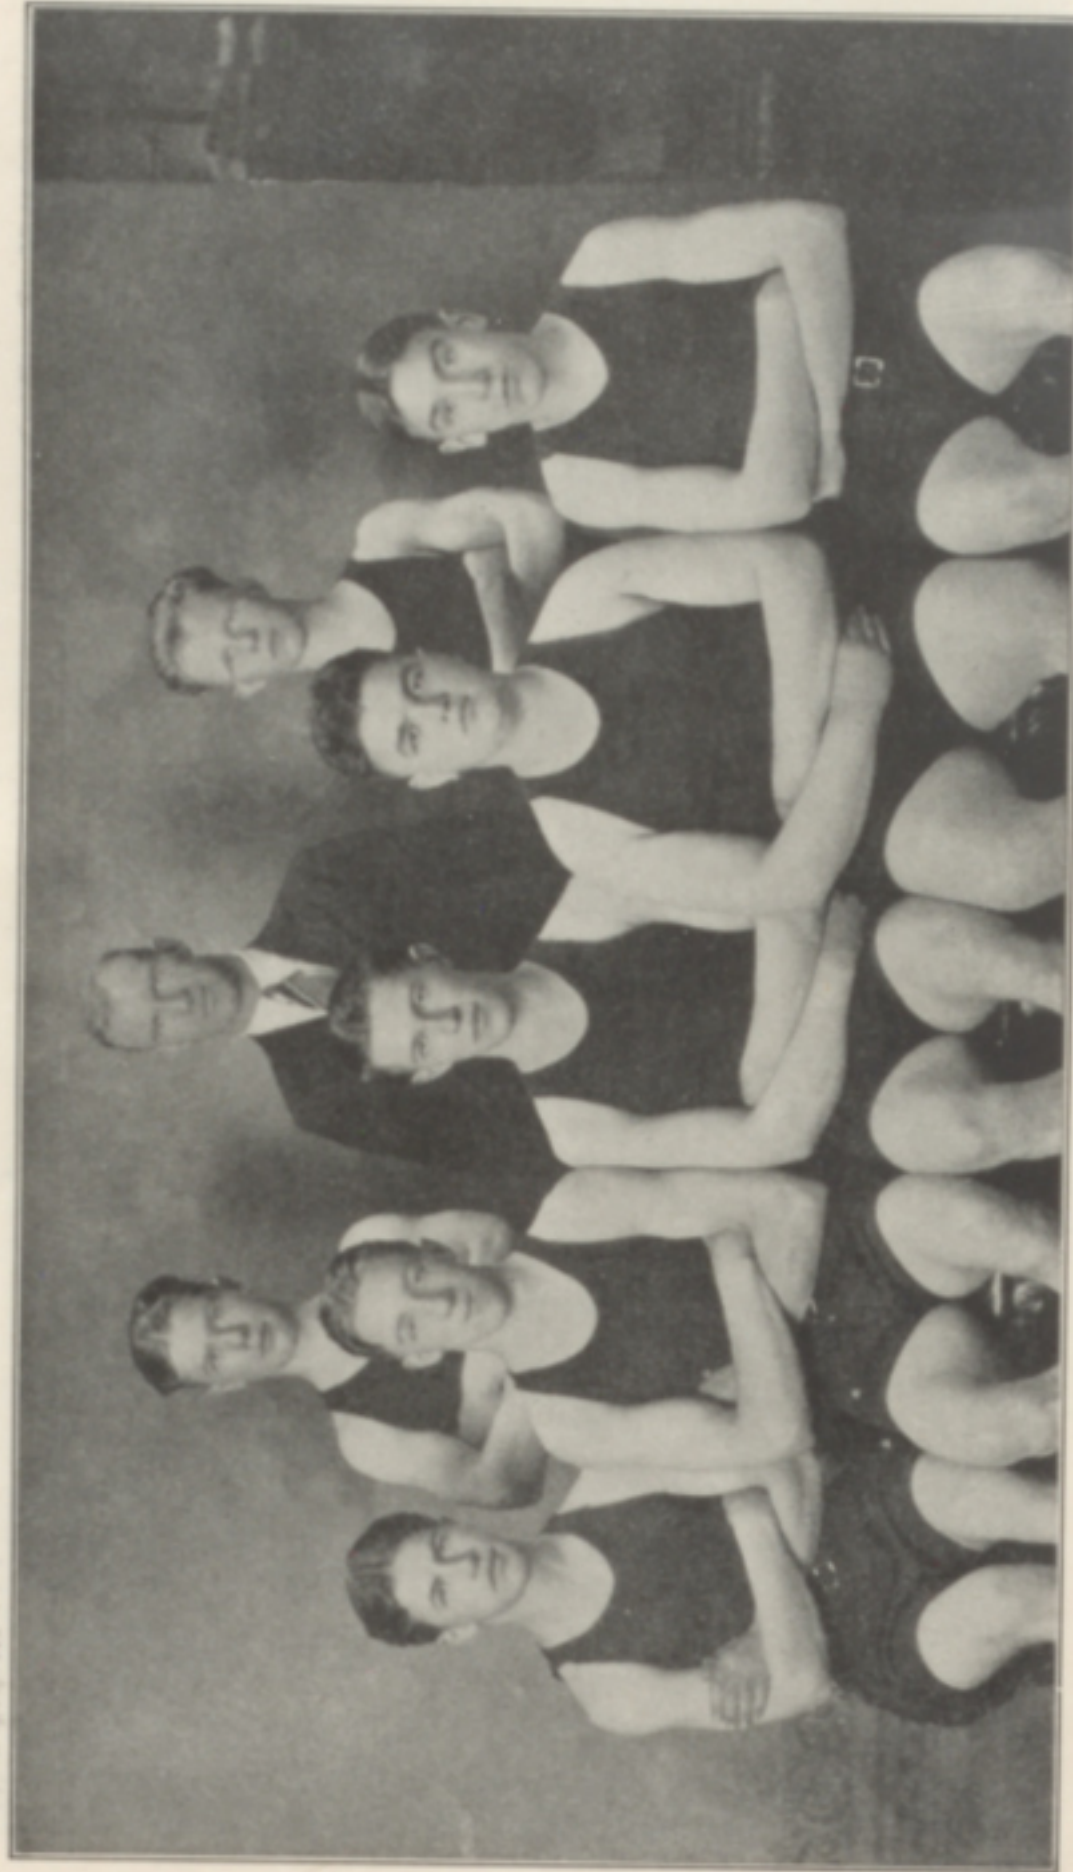

The girls' first game was staged in the school gymnasium, January 15, 1926. The Juneau aggregation played a very fine game, the main feature being the clean pass work. Douglas was in good form and put up a good fight for the game. The Juneau group proved too much for Douglas, winning by 22-14.

The second game was held at the "Nat" in Douglas. Juneau played a good game but was not up to the pace they set the previous Friday. In spite of all the attempts to win the game Juneau lost to Douglas, 14-18.

The third game of the channel series was played in the A. B. Hall. Juneau showed flashes of real basketball and by winning this game, won the channel championship. Juneau won an easy victory, the score being 38-25.

The girls who succeeded in making the team this year were Hansena Campen, Alma Weil, Irene Burke, Agnes Pademeister, Mildred Morrison, Katherine Messerschmidt. Subs—Esther Davis, Elsie Baggen, Wilhelmina Larson, and Natalia Kashevaroff.

Boys' Basketball

Soon after the opening of school came the call for basketball players and a large number of students turned out. From this group the High School team was selected. The boys' team this year played a larger number of games than they have played for several years previous and won the championship from Douglas.

The defenders for J. H. S. in basketball for this year, were:

Ed Garnick	Center
James Connors	Forward
Chris Ellingen	Forward
James Orme	Guard
Fred Orme	Guard
David Ramsay, Alfred Lundstrom,
Robert Livie	Subs

J. H. S. 22—ALUMNI 10

The speed of the J. H. S. five was an important factor in the winning of the first game of the season. The team showed up exceptionally well against a team of men who had defended J. H. S. in the past.

J. H. S. 20—D. H. S. 10

The second game for the J. H. S. team was the first of the season with the old rivals, D. H. S. The superior team work and an edge on shooting won the game for J. High.

J. H. S. 10—DOUGLAS FIREMEN 16

In this game the Hilltoppers played to a tie and in the three minutes overtime the Douglas cagers made three baskets. It was one of the fastest games of the season.

J. H. S. 15—W. H. S. 7

J. H. S. won this game from the visiting team, the Wrangell High School, by a double score. The splendid sportsmanship of the losers was a marked feature of the game.

J. H. S. 17—D. H. S. 14

Wearing their new scarlet and black suits for the first time, J. High celebrated the event by defeating their old rivals. Superior team work won the game for them.

J. H. S. 14—DOUGLAS EAGLES 16

This was one of the closest games of the year. Both of the teams put up a good fight, but the superiority of the older players won for them the game. This was one of the best games of the year.

J. H. S. 9—D. H. S. 18

The J. H. S. quintet was a little too confident in this game and lost to the Douglas five. The game was close up to the second half when Douglas spurted ahead.

J. H. S. 11—D. H. S. 9

In the closest game between Juneau and Douglas for years, J. High defeated Douglas High in an over-time game, thus winning the championship for the season.

J. H. S. 7—DOUGLAS EAGLES 27

The Douglas Eagles walloped the Juneau five by a big score. The inability to score shots cost the High School five the game.

J. H. S. 20—CHILKOOT BARRACKS 9

Although outweighed by the Cooties, the School five easily overcame the handicap by a large margin. The excellent passing and checking were features of the game.

Boys' "J" Club

President	Ed Garnick
Vice-President	Chris Ellingen
Secretary-Treasurer	James Connors
Advisor	Mr. N. I. Baker

The "J" Club is a High School organization to which students who have earned a "J" in athletics can belong. When school opened the Boys' "J" Club had but three members: Ed Garnick, Chris Ellingen and James Connors, but through basketball and track David Ramsay, James Orme, Fred Orme, Marvan Chase, James Ramsay and Harold Peterson will be added to the list.

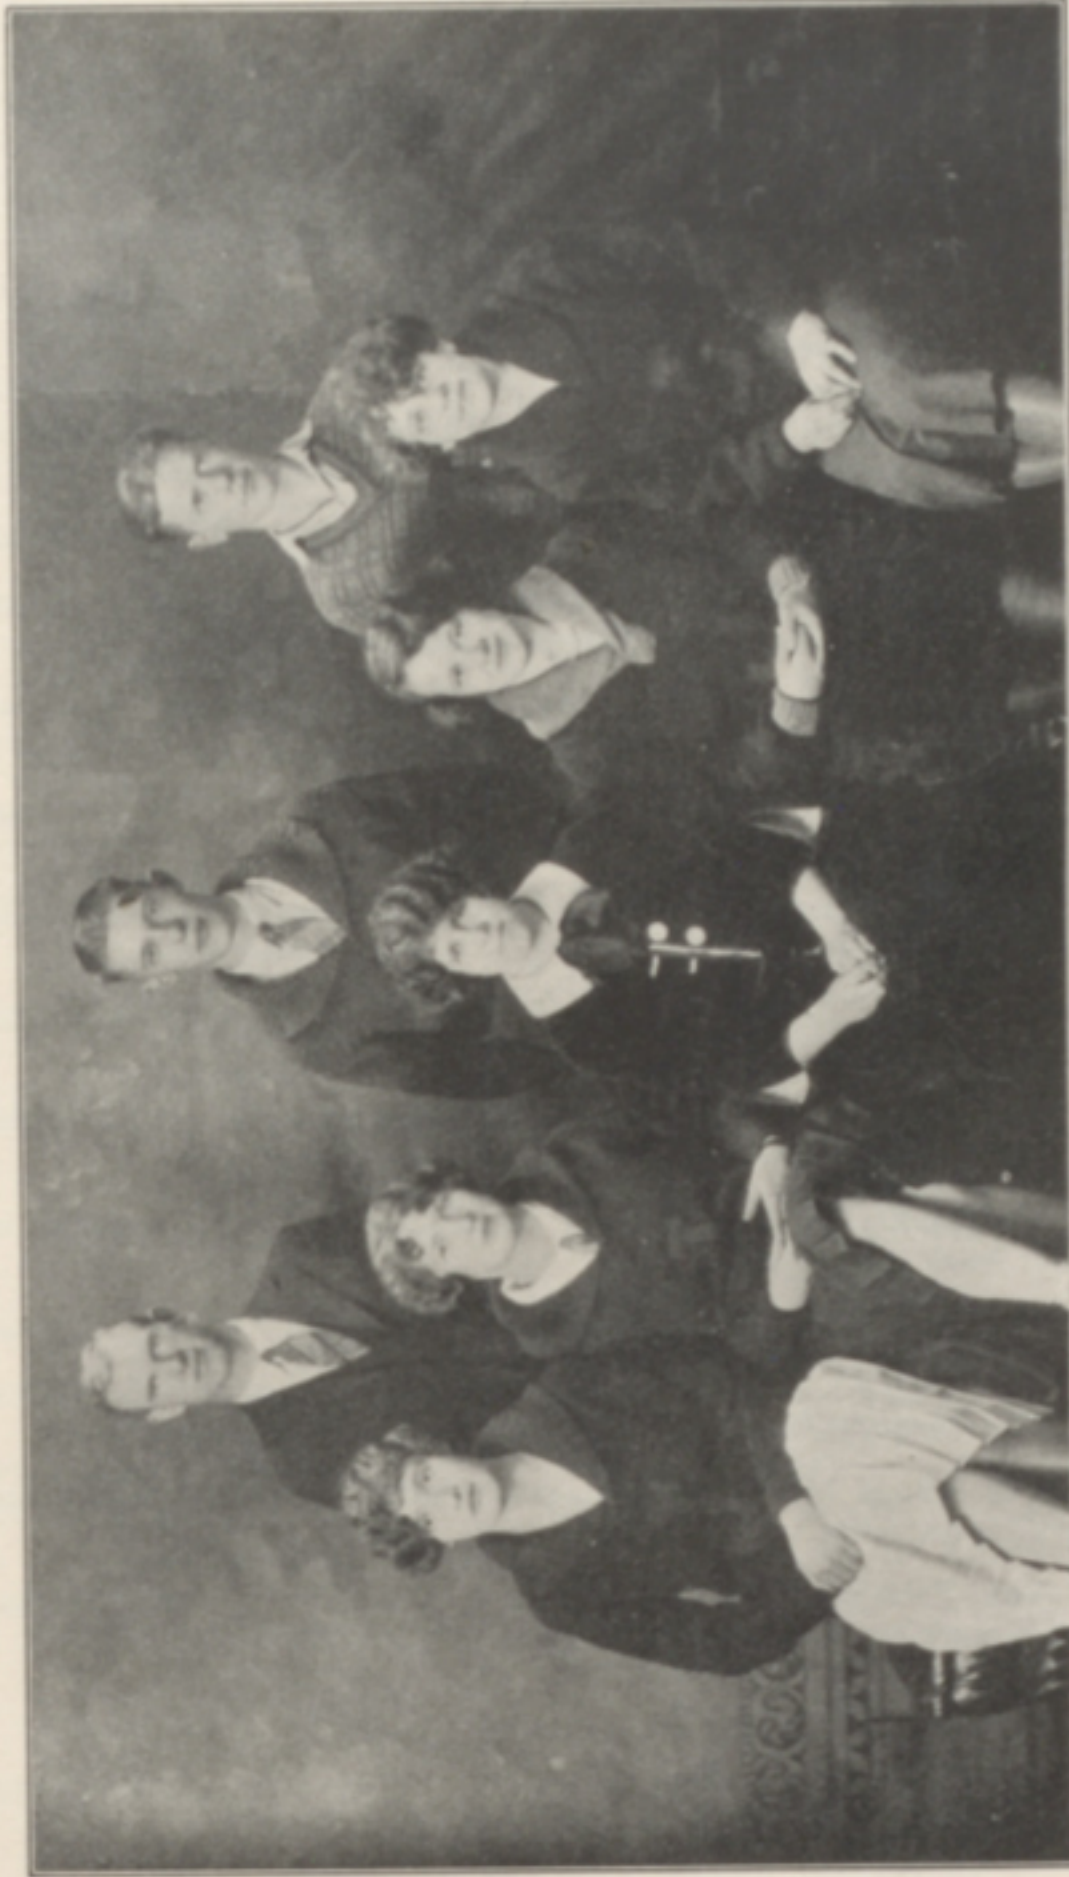

Girls' "J" Club

At the beginning of the first semester the girls organized the "J" Club. A meeting was called to order and the following officers elected:

President	Hansena Campen
Vice-President	Alma Weil
Secretary-Treasurer	Mildred Morrison
Advisor	Miss Gray

The members of the "J" Club are: Agnes Pademeister, Alma Weil, Mildred Morrison, Hansena Campen.

This year four new girls won letters through basketball and are now eligible to enter the doors of the "J" Club. These girls are: Katherine Messerschmidt, Wilhelmina Larsen, Esther Davis and Irene Burke.

Exchanges

The Acropolis, Newark, N. J. Three cheers for your athletic department! It is a peppy one.

The Archieve, Philadelphia, Pa. Your artists are very original.

The Brown and White, Catasauqua, Pa. Congratulations! Your editorials are the best to be found in any exchange.

The Carter Chips, Chelsea, Mass. The stories in your December issue added the necessary pep to your book.

The Cherry and White, Williamsport, Pa. Your Junior issue was interesting.

The Echo, Easton, Pa. Your literary department is exceptionally good.

The Flood Tide, Petersburg, Alaska. Your Freshman issue deserves credit.

The Laurel, St. Bonaventure, N. Y. This book is the largest on our exchange list.

The McKinley Mirror, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. The material in your book is well arranged.

The Nebraska Alumnis, Lincoln, Nebr. The photos in your March issue were very clear.

The Racquet, Portland, Me. You have some promising poets.

The Stikine Messenger, Wrangell, Alaska. Though small, your book is attractive.

The Triangle, Kenosha, Wisconsin. The snaps from foreign lands were clever.

Jokes

The world is old and likes to laugh,
New Jokes are hard to find;
A whole new editorial staff,
Can't tickle every mind.

So if you find some ancient joke,
Decked out in modern guise:
Don't frown and call the thing a joke,
Just laugh—don't be too wise.

Mr. Baker (after particularly dumb class):
"Class dismissed—don't flap your ears as you go out."

An old prospector who had lived in Alaska many years went on a visit to Seattle with his dusky bride. One evening they entered a restaurant to have dinner. Sam as was the man's name, looked at the bill of fare saying:

"Well now Susie, there is turkey with cranberry sauce, spring lamb with mint sauce, and chicken with giblet gravy. You can have anything you want. Take your choice."

Susie gently replied: "I'll take porcupine."

HOW TO REDUCE

Push away from the table three times a day.

GUESS WHO?

I know a boy who's lanky,
Long and lean and pale;
His hair hangs o'er his visage
Like a Spanish lady's veil.

He plays in the Juneau Hi School Band,
And makes an awful noise;
He's a popular "Sheik" with all the girls,
And is envied by all the boys.

He wears light pearl gray trousers,
And bright and gaudy hose;
And why this kid is such a whizz,
Ask him—he's the one who knows.

James R: Where are you going?
Grace D: To see if Mr. Keller will let me drop citizenship.

HEARD IN BIOLOGY

Mr. Reiersen: We will now name some of the lower species, beginning with Livie.

James Connors: Girls may be puzzles but I'd never give them up.

HOW ABOUT IT?

Senior—classy, sure are keen
Juniors—bossy, are a scream
Sophomores—sassy, it's not a dream
Freshman—grassy, Oh so green!

OUCH!

Oh Ma! Come here quick!
Well, what is it, Mary?
Looky, Johnny ate up all the raisins from that sticky brown paper.

WHAT'R YA GONNA DO?

Gladys N: (reading her own poetical composition before the class):

It happened about noontime,
When all people went to corrode;
That Jack thought of fishing,
As he walked down the road.

Miss Myhre: (interrupting):
What do you mean by corrode?

Gladys N:
Well, I had to find a word that rimed with road and meant "to eat" and it says in the dictionary that corrode means "to eat."

Miss Myhre: (resignedly):
Continue reading!

Mollie sat upon the stove and it was hot-to-Mollie.

Pat (during dinner): Grace, I'll bet that you're not washing the dishes now.

Grace: No, I'm not. Gladys is. How do you know?

Pat: I noticed the difference in the finger prints on my plate.

She: Why didn't you tell me what kind of a boy he was?

Her: I told you he was a poor fish.

She: Yes, but you didn't tell me he was an octopus.

Our principal has a quiet, soothing voice, which sounds like a lullaby to our little hero. He spent the first part of the lecture in scribbling initials on his desk and counting the snowflakes. After he had tired of this pastime, he tried gazing at the interested ones. Alas and alack, he could not keep awake. Then abruptly he heard something startling.

"I wish to announce," Mr. Baker said, "that there will be no more quizzes for the rest of the term."

Our studious Brownie merely sighed more deeply in his slumbers, for now, he knew, he was surely asleep.

A diamond scarf pin goes to the stude who asked the instructor to open the windows, as he could not sleep unless the room was cold.

THE LOW DOWN

A frivolous young frosh, desiring a drag to the greatest social success of the school year—the Prom, began hopefully seeking a date. Ravishing Freshman Beauties were unconsidered except one, who was bestowed an invitation from the "Sheek." What was his bewilderment and dismay when the object of his desires failed to comprehend. On explanation he was unmistakably refused.

Losing a little of his confidence but none of his generosity at this blow he ventured forth. His second victim, a Junior this time, being a stranger in town, was taken by surprise and completely overwhelmed. Nobly rising to the situation she summoned her failing strength and waveringly gave her "I'm sorry but—."

Growing wild-eyed by their surprising actions, and as the time was getting short, he clutched the girl nearest him and hysterically pleaded his cause. Moved by pity for the struggling lower classman, she steeled herself to the horrible deed of refusal. Dazedly finding his way to the window, he fell through three stories and hit the sidewalk. But being accustomed to blows by this time, he managed to appear at the Prom in solitary majesty!

In the near future when your fears and suspicions are aroused by a dreamy-eyed delivery truck ambling romantically along the overhung and moonlit Glacier Highway, may you rest assured for the driver will be merely one of our future graduates getting in some practice for his first date.

Isn't it strange how a little "X" in citizenship placed artistically on the bottom of a report card can so transform habitual orators into a state of petrification?

There is no substitute for MUSIC

Even the Maestro must admit that once he too was "just a boy"

The Maestro who leads a great orchestra or thrills an audience from concert stage is after all only a boy grown up. He is a great musician because someone encouraged and helped him likely in his youth. Only through the opportunity for expression is genius ever discovered.

Are you giving your boy the opportunity to study a musical instrument? Music is one of life's highest callings. Certainly no single accomplishment gives such lasting joy and satisfaction. Let us advise you in the selection of his instrument. A small down payment secures it.
