J.V.'s Are Second To None!

This year's jr. varsity cheerleader's advisor was Mrs. Morris. The girls were all sophomores, each with at least one years experience. They showed a lot of originality, and raised the spirit of all who attended the jr. varsity games. The cheerleaders practiced everyday after school, and on occasion, weekends. Their hard work and good spirits were well appreciated throughout J.D. High.

Varsity Cheerleaders

This years squad was composed entirely of juniors. Advised by Mrs. McHugh and managed by Gail Nygard, the girls did a fine job not only cheering for the boys ball games, but the girls games and wrestling as well. They're enough to make any school proud.

Homecoming Festivities

This year's Homecoming was marked with three spirit-filled days, sponsored by student council. With the bonfire collection and the choir concert on Thursday, the Homecoming was off to a great start. On Friday games were played by all three classes, the guys and girls drill team performed and Mel MacNeil and Mr. Peterson kissed the Art club pig. Afterwards, the snake dance led everyone to the bonfires, with pep band in action. That night the Crimson Bear's were victorious over the Wrangell Wolves. Saturday marked the crowning of the Homecoming King and Queen, after another victory for the Bears. Pat Costello and Valerie Ackerman were crowned King and Queen.

Big & Little Sis Banquet

The Big-Sister-Little-Sister is a traditional event held for the introduction of sophomore girls to the high school. Senior girls played big sisters on October 27, while senior guys micked their female classmates in a short skit following the banquet.

Surprise sisters!

Eeny Meney miney Moe, Pick a dish by the bowl.

You've got to be kidding!

Attention! Attention!

M*A*S*H*, the 1978-79 senior class play, was performed Nov. 30, Dec. 1&2. Looking at audience turn-out the play was definitely successful. All in all M*A*S*H was a smash!

Mac

Dear J-D High,

On the first day of school at J-D High three years ago, (has it really been three years?) we started the last leg of our journey through required education. Led by President Chris Brown, who gracefully accepted the traditional toilet seat from the class of '77, we were able to get off to a good start in our Sophomore year. Chris was loyally supported by Vice President Beth Vuille, Secretary/Treasurer Sheila Stansbury, and Representatives Henry Pacana and Kristine Furuness. Starting a long tradition of rowdiness, as Sophomores we won the Spirit Banner more often than either the Junior or the Senior class. That year, we helped collectively in hosting the S.E. Music Festival and the State Basketball Tournament.

Confident and secure, we stepped into the halls at the start of our Junior year looking forward to being upperclassmen. This year, Kristine Furuness moved us along with a little help from the Vice President, Cheryl Tyler; Secretary/Treasurer, Kathy Bradley; and Representatives, Ann Plotnick and Sheila Stansbury. Our enthusiasm showed through again as we continued to win the Spirit Banner along with the Spirit Week competition. Following former classes, we put on our musical of the year, "Oklahoma!" In the spring, we held our Junior Prom, setting the mood with "Harbor Lights".

At the start of our Senior year, we were greeted by the now familiar faces of our teachers. With all that they've had to put up with during our three-year term: late tests, first loves, lame excuses—they've stood by our classes and coaxed us along. Everyone got together in October for our "Last Dance", the annual Senior Ball. Helping to organize State Honor Band and Chorus and the S.E. Wrestling tournament were our officers: Lenny Sloper—President, Laura Reiger—Vice President, Kathy Taylor—Secretary/Treasurer, and Fred Olsen and Lisa Huntington, Representatives.

There didn't seem to be enough time to do everything, go everywhere, and talk over and share experiences with our class. But as we bid Mac a fond farewell, we look forward to the future with the enthusiasm the class of '79 has always had—and continue to move on.

As always,
the class of '79

Senior

Dave Young:

I went outside to sit alone, a seeker of the truth I called myself, no matter how hard I looked I couldn't find it. I must have been sitting in the wrong place.

Scot Archart:

"A light in the night is like salt and pepper!"

Rick Troyon:

"Age, like youth, is a condition, not a time!" P. David Cox

Betty Hughes:

Smile always, and you'll say more than most.

Laura Reiger:

There are no absolutes for something so relative as human life.

Cindy Sue Duval:

If little raindrops form mighty rivers, then it's the little things that count.

Michelle Grose:

God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference.

Mary Fleming:

Smile, it gives your face something to do.

Mason McLean:

The soul that establishes no aim loses itself.

Cheryl Davidson:

To be forever yearning for the future, is to waste precious moments now at hand.

Mark Petersen:

Man, like everything I digs a no-no!

Lisa Huntingon (Nelson):

"In him we live, and move, have our being . . . we are His children." Acts 17:28

Linnea Mahnke:

Without the sands of today, there can be no time tomorrow.

Sue Winton:

"Scattered pictures of the smiles we left behind. The smiles we gave one another. For the way we were."

Bambi Lesher:

Happiness is like a butterfly. The more you chase it, the more it will elude you. But if you turn your attention to other things, it comes and softly sits on your shoulder.

Robert Ramsey:

Plan your life years ahead, but live life a day at a time.

Ruth Ryan:

Don't let aggressive people get in your way of progress. You have just as much to contribute as they do.

Kathy Taylor:

"All things work together for good to them that love God." Romans 28

Linda Whitfield:

Life is a mystery, not a problem to be solved.

Kent Loving:

"Life is what it is. It passes the time."

Kim Mungle:

As you go through life, look for goodness, hope and strength in the hearts of others . . . But if they're not rich, forget it.

Thomas Logan:

"I could have danced all night."

Monty Norvell:

I am like a raindrop in this world, just a drop in the bucket.

Tamara J. Fry:

Fair winds and following seas.

Kristin Galdabini:

Heaven help me! I need it.

Joel Lupro:

Among those whom I like or admire, I can find no common denomination, but among those who I love, I can; all of them make me laugh.

Colin Cooper:

It does not matter what others think of you, so much as what you think of yourself.

MOTTOS

Kris Messerschmidt:

Be purple, obese and eat tarts. Live in a swamp and be three-dimensional. Be oblong and have your knees removed. Hi Mom.

Loren Cummins:

Sokata matski buttiska malinki, yaki dumfatski.

Deniece Jones:

Smiling may not change the world, but it sure does make life easier.

Kathy Bradley:

"Becoming is superior to being."

Kim Williams:

The time for change is now, for tomorrow you might be gone.

Todd Brooks:

Within us lies hope; within hope, the promise of tomorrow.

Sigrid Dahlberg:

One today is worth two yesterdays.

Celeste Thibodeau:

"You can always do more than what you believe is within him."

Daniel Mortensen:

Always think that you've tried your hardest ... but never know that you've done your best.

Bruce Calkins:

"Come skibby."

Boonie Howard:

Daisies bloom where they find room, and this is true of people too.

Mara Plume:

Let a smile be your sunshine and laughter be the warmth.

John Patton:

Shuck is the way of life.

Stephen W. Bratner:

Up the Dome ... shoot the ball ... BONK! ... that's the way to lose it all!

Aimee Bibb:

Learning is finding out what you already know. Doing is demonstrating that you know it. Teaching is reminding others that they know just as well as you. You are all learners, doers, teachers.

Judi Ann Robertson:

If at first you don't succeed, you're about average.

Suzan Armstrong:

"I can complain because rose bushes have thorns, or rejoice because thorn bushes have roses."

Marla Coon:

Don't judge people, accept them.

Beth Chilwood:

"Groovey Baby"

Kim Craig:

Happiness is not a gift
It's something to be earned.
To the seeker it is not a job
Just a habit learned.

Kurt Lutterman:

The hours of sleep are the most wasted four in the day.

Hans Hazelton:

Practice makes perfect, but nobody's perfect, so why practice.

Len Sloper:

If at first you don't succeed, go to the school board.

John Knight:

The years pass too quickly.
The people come and go.
Everything revolves around me.
And leaves me in a spin.

Lavina Riley:

Bye I-D.

See you around, didn't I tell you, you wouldn't hold me down.

Take good care of yourself you hear, don't let me hear about you sheddin' a tear.

You're gonna make it, you're gonna make it!
Remember me as a sunny day that you once had along the way.

Didn't I inspire you a little higher.
Remember me when I drink the wine of sweet success.
I gave you my best, I gave you my best.
Remember me as the fresh of spring.
Remember me as a good thing.

Thanks,
Lavina

With life in the fast lanes, this year's swim team placed third in S.E. Alaska. Marianne Harris and Heather Metcalfe placed to go to state. Heather Metcalfe, a sophomore of JDHS, who only had been diving for one month, placed first in S.E. and did an excellent job representing Juneau at state. Coach Bob Solow was very proud of his hard working, dedicated swim team. Mr. Solow felt that "We had a young team and we look for a better future."

Bringing more pride to J.D. high school, the Girl's Basketball team had a very good season. They traveled over all southeast, winning almost every game. Coached by Mr. McDowell and Mr. Buchanan, they were composed of three seniors, five juniors and eight sophomores. Practice was held from Monday to Friday after school, in preparation of overcoming all opposition.

The Boy's Jr. Varsity had a good season with lots of support from J.D. high school. With four returning members and six sophomores, the team traveled to Haines, Petersburg and Sitka. Coached by George Houston, practice was held Monday to Friday from 3:00 to 6:00 and on Saturdays.

Stake Yourself Out!

With six returning seniors, the Crimson Bears boys basketball team had an excellent season. Finding tough competition from Haines, their games often resulted in victories. Coached by Jim Hamey, the Bears traveled over all southeast bringing pride to J.D. High. At the Ketchikan tournament, the Crimson Bears went overtime to beat Seattle's Queen Anne's Grizzlies. In February, the Region Tournament was held in Sitka and in March that State tournament was held in West Anchorage. The team did an excellent job in both offense and defense at both tournaments.

Determination will get you there.

If you ever wanted to find excitement all you had to do was head for the nearest Juneau-Douglas track & Field meet. The boys track team ran their hearts out winning almost every meet and taking Southeast. The girls tried their hardest and got a good placing. The boys went on to State Meet, they didn't win but they sure broke a lot of records down here.

This year at J.D. the Gymnastics team completed their season for the second time in the history of the High School. Five Girls went to State Competition, they were Cindy Duval, Jeanine Spence, Stacy Wagnerspack, Beth Dewey, and Leslie Stell. J.D. can be proud of their performance. The guys so far are the only male gymnastic team in the state! With only losing 5 seniors this year and the growing interest in this sport, our school can look forward to an exciting new future in this sport.

FACULTY

REFLECTIONS

J.D. ADMINISTRATION

After completing his second year as principal of Juneau-Douglas High, Mr. Mercer is still sane. He has changed a lot of things and started new programs that he feels will improve the school. Thanks Mr. Mercer, and keep up the good work.

The assistant principal, Mr. Newell, has made it through another year at Juneau-Douglas High. Mr. Newell is responsible for all actions when the principal is gone, and when Mr. Mercer is in attendance the two split the responsibilities.

The secretaries of J.D. High are hard working and dedicated people. Along with typing memos, letters, and reports, they also do other things, like selling milk, answering phone calls, making up admit slips, and doing attendance. The secretaries of J.D. High have a great role in keeping the school operating properly. They all deserve our thanks.

MIRRORS OF

ORGANIZATIONS

Modern Dance

Modern Dance is a new class this year where students learn to express themselves in a constructive way. The class is held twice a week. The students learn both new and old dances and they are also learning how to express themselves in a new way. The reward is both physically and emotionally gratifying.

From left to right: Peter Branson, Sybil Davis, Sue Jurasz, Stacey McGee, Judy Siddal, Xan Woods

Drama Club

Drama is the class where you learn and discover what you can really do. The drama class studies and acts out plays. They learn mime and appear at assemblies.

Smile, you're on Kandy's camera!

This year J-Bird staff was lead by Kris Messerschmidt as Editor and Mr. Livitsanis as the advisor. They printed a paper every two weeks in which they covered all the school activities. Along with the Totem staff they sponsored the Pub Hop in which the J-Bird King and the Totem Queen were crowned. We look forward to having a future staff as comparable to this years.

J.D. Welcomes Exchange Students

Judy and Lone

Every year Juneau gets two or more foreign exchange students. This year J.D. high school received two girls, Judy Sudall from Australia and Lone Ibsen from Sweden. Judy and Lone both like to sing and are in Concert Choir. Both girls like Juneau very much and are happy with their hosts.

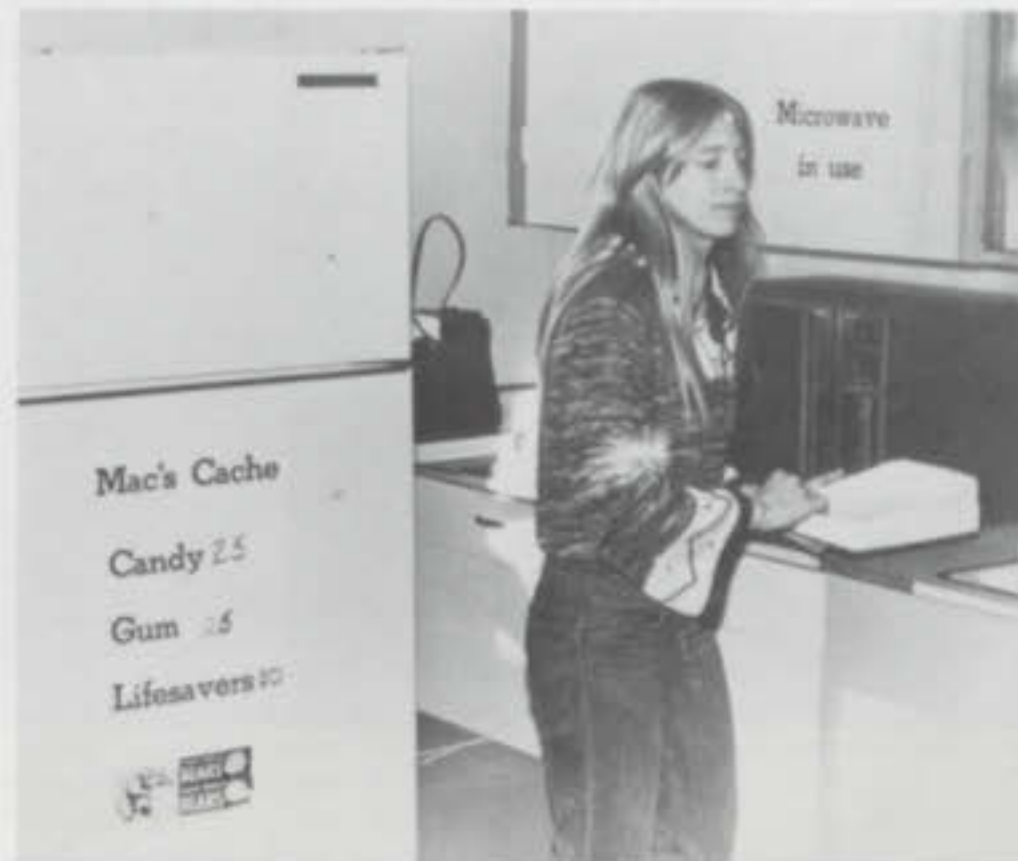

Lone works on a English report.

FHA/Hero

Your hotdog-or your life!

Future Homemakers of America is a UDC student organization functioning as integral part of the Home Economics Education Curriculum that operates on the school system. This year the 20 members again ran the Snack Shack at brunch and lunch. Advised by Mrs. Schmeige, FHA traveled to Anchorage to the FHA convention.

Wrestlettes

Wrestlettes did an excellent job of boosting J-D wrestler's spirits this year. Advised by Mary Herold, they kept score and time at the matches, supplied dinners for both the home team and visiting teams and passed out oranges. The Wrestlettes sent five or six girls on each out-of-town trip to help out as needed.

Jaunita hands out Sunkist's.

J.D. High Hits The Slopes

Top to Bottom: Xan Woods, Judy Mason, Carrie Funk, Michelle Grose, Mary Mcketa, Kris Messerschmidt, Dave Young, Colin Cooper, Rick Pruitt, Stan Hubbard, Laura Reiger, Stacey McGee, Laura Trollan, Rick Troyon, Greg Anderson, Richie West, Larry Pontious, Bob Horchover, Eric Ostling, Joel Lupro, Theresa Drems, Joy Miller, Roy Mitchell, Jenny Smith.

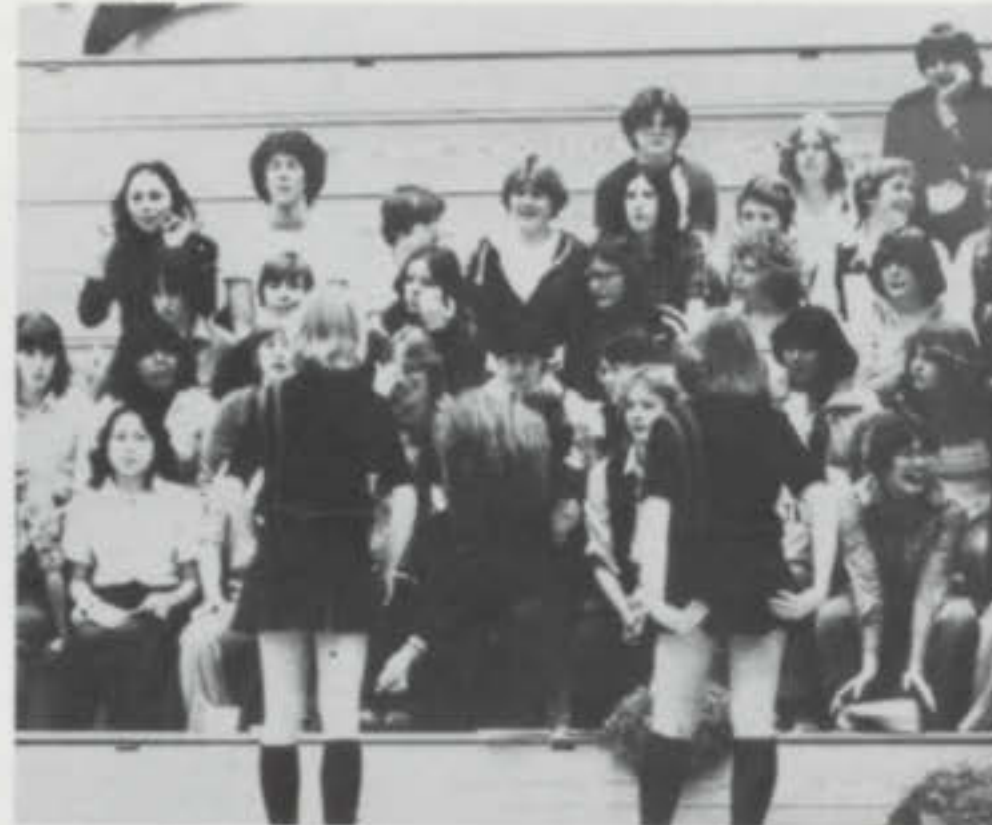

Sun Valley-here I come!

Advised by Mrs. Kelton, this year's Ski Club had a full membership. Colin Cooper was elected chairman, secretary was Joy Miller, Treasurer was Bob Horchover and the committee chairmen were Rick Troyon and Sheri Kroll. The club was self-supporting, having dances and a bake sale.

Rowdy Rooters

"The Rowdie Rooters" was the new name chosen for the J.D. pep club this year. The whole idea of the club was to bring spirit all through the school, not just to attend the Basketball games. They did such things as make posters, put on skits, and cheered at all the sports events. We can all look forward to another successful year for the Rowdy Rooters!

Learning new cheers

Front row: Kurt Letterman, Alexa Wilkinson, Cindy Hedges, Aone Carmen, Susan Leon, Heather Metcalfe, Mary-Ann Sigmiller, Annalisa Barril, Seony Ferrier, Tracy Hill. The MacMillan chapter of the National Honor Society is alive and well at J.D. High. There are about 30 members this year. Members of the National Honor Society are chosen on a basis of character, scholarship, service, and leadership. This year the members decided to be a service organization. Their annual Quiz Bowl was again a success.

Advisor: Mr. L. Peterson

Advised by Mrs. Belflower, Associated Student Body is in charge of housing, transportation, and social events led by each class. The sophomore class was responsible for the Sophomore Variety Show, the Juniors for the Junior Prom and Junior Class Musical and the Seniors were in charge of the Senior Ball and Senior Class Play. Student Council met every other Tuesday in the library.

This year's 1978-79 Totem staff was headed by Cindy Duval and Linda Whitfield, with advisor Pat O'Grady. The yearbook had on the staff three sophomores, six juniors, and eight seniors, who did an excellent job on turning out the yearbook. After much debate, the editors managed to have color included in the senior section. The seniors leave the staff with an optimistic attitude towards future Totems.

Drill Team

This year's Drill Team had a total of twenty-five girls. They traveled to Sitka for the Southeast in February. The team members worked hard this year, practicing for pep assemblies and Varsity basketball. With Mrs. Cook as advisor, the girls had plenty of support. Only three girls were lost this year so we can look forward to another successful season next year.
