Dear Patrons,

Hello and happy fall to you all. Enclosed are brief descriptions of some books recently added to our shelves that eagerly await check out. Some of these items have come to us due to our program's expansion; we have absorbed the patrons and regions of the state formerly served by the Fairbanks library so now we serve patrons all across the state of Alaska, hence our new name Alaska Mail Services.

In addition to the titles found on these pages, please remember that all of the materials housed in the Juneau Public Libraries are available to you including audio books, music and DVDs. Also, many of our remote patrons who have internet access are finding many of their needs met via Listen Alaska which makes e-books and audio books available electronically. You can browse our entire catalog and also access Listen Alaska at our website. Click on "Library Catalog" or "E-Books and Audio Book Downloads". One thing to note when searching the catalog is that as a Mail Service patron you should change the field at the upper left of the page from "All Collections" to "Juneau Area Libraries" before searching.

Our expanded department also means we have new and additional staff ready to serve you. Kate, Abe, Max, Ani and Marjie can all be reached in the various ways listed above. Please don't hesitate to contact us with questions, comments or requests.

Altered book by Isaac G. Salazar

Adult Fiction

Castaway Cove: a Shelter Bay Novel by JoAnn Ross

Single dad Mac is a late-night DJ. Divorced Annie dreams of the family she longs for while listening to his voice on the radio. Neither are ready to give their heart but can the people of Shelter Bay allow a perfect match to escape the magic of true love?

Quick Fix by Linda Grimes

This is the second installment of the original urban fantasy series featuring Ciel Halligan, an aura adaptor with a chameleon-like ability to step into the lives of her clients and fix their problems for them—as them.

The Small Hand and Dolly by Susan Hill

Two ghost story novellas: The Small Hand in which a bookseller is plagued by nightmares after stumbling across a derelict Edwardian house; and Dolly, in which an orphan is haunted by a spiteful cousin's act of rage.

Happy Mutant Baby Pills by Jerry Stahl

Lloyd finds a precarious balance between hack-work and heroin until he encounters a mysterious and troubled young woman and becomes complicit in her scheme to exact revenge on those who poison the populace in order to sell them the cure.

Joe Victim (Christchurch Noir Crime Series) by Paul Cleave

In this psycho-thriller, a sequel to The Cleaner, the infamous serial killer known as the Christchurch Carver is serving time in prison and may face execution. He's also the target of sinister forces inside and outside the prison.

Plum Deadly by Ellie Grant

Unjustly accused of cooking the books, Maggie retreats from a New York financial career to her hometown and a job at the family-owned business that bakes the best pies in the South. Maggie thought it challenging to make a perfect pie crust, but that turns out to be nothing compared with finding a murderer. . . .

The Butterfly Sister by Amy Gail Hansen

Ruby is haunted by memories of Tarble, the women's college she fled from ten months earlier, and the painful love affair that pushed her to the brink of tragedy. When a suitcase belonging to a former classmate arrives on her doorstep, Ruby is plunged into a dark mystery.

Love and Lament by John Milliken Thompson

A dauntless heroine coming of age at the turn of the twentieth century confronts the hazards of patriarchy and prejudice, and discovers the unexpected opportunities of World War I.

The Whole Golden World by Kristina Riggle

Seventeen-year-old Morgan Monetti shocks her parents and her community with one simple act: She chooses to stand by the man everyone else believes has exploited her, popular high school teacher TJ Hill.

If the Shoe Fits by Megan Mulry

Devon Heyworth, rakish brother of the Duke of Northrop, spends his life hiding his intelligence and flaunting his playboy persona. American entrepreneur Sarah James is unimpressed—the last thing she needs is larger-than-life royalty mucking about her business...

Adult Fiction

Almost True Confessions by Jane O'Connor

When freelance copyeditor Rannie Bookman arrives at the east side apartment of a reclusive author, she finds more than the final draft of the manuscript waiting for her: tied to the bed and strangled with an Hermes scarf is his half-naked body.

Friday's Harbor by Diane Hammond

The heartwarming and provocative sequel to Diane Hammond's Hannah's Dream, Friday's Harbor is the compelling story of a dying orca, the caring zoo that saves him, and the controversy that threatens his captivity.

The Life List by Lori Nelson Spielman

In this charming debut—perfect for fans of Cecelia Ahern's P.S., I Love You and Allison Winn Scotch's Time of My Life—one woman sets out to complete her old list of childhood goals, and finds that her lifelong dreams lead her down a path she never expected.

Merry Christmas Cowboy by Janet Dailey

On the Denver streets, Officer Paula Lewis is as tough as she needs to be. But this holiday season she's moonlighting at the Christmas House, where she learns that the best gifts are second chances, happy endings, and the kind of love that makes every day warm and bright.

Under a Blackberry Moon by Serena B. Miller

Days after giving birth alone in the Northwoods, a recently widowed Chippewa woman stumbles into a lumber camp in search of refuge and sustenance. Come summer, Skypilot is sent to accompany Moon Song and her baby on the long and treacherous journey back to her people.

Mrs. Jeffries Sallies Forth (A Victorian Mystery) by Emily Brightwell

If you like Downton Abbey, you'll love Mrs. Jeffries! Everyone's awed by Inspector Witherspoon's Scotland Yard successes, but they don't know about his secret weapon—his housekeeper, Mrs. Jeffries.

The Invention of Sarah Cummings (Avenue of Dreams, Volume 3) by Olivia Newport

Olivia Newport brings us to the place where class, social expectations, and romance come together. Follow the intrepid Sarah as she searches for true love in a world of illusions.

Texts From Bennett by Mac Lethal

Kansas City rapper Mac Lethal has a problem—Bennett—his 17 year-old wannabe gangsta cousin who uses drugs and foul language, claims to be 13% black, and swears he speaks "da female language." But when Bennett and his mom lose their home, Mac's got their backs.

Pirates of the Timestream by Steve White

Pirates of the Caribbean meets time-traveling heroes and godlike aliens. This sequel to Sunset of the Gods and Blood of Heroes sees Commander Jason Thanou leading a team back to the Caribbean of the 1660s to investigate an anomaly.

Drawn Into Darkness by Nancy Springer

Liana is running away—from her divorce, from her past, from herself. But in the swampy hinterlands of the Florida panhandle she encounters an abducted child. Does she have what it takes to thwart a wily, depraved psychopath for whom abuse is a way of life...and killing is routine?

Plague Ship by Leonard Goldberg

This bestselling author continues his pulse-pounding Ballineau/Ross medical thriller series. When a mysterious and potentially fatal illness strikes a luxury Caribbean cruise, every passenger is at risk—including Dr. David Ballineau, his young daughter, and his girlfriend, nurse Carolyn Ross.

Rutherford Park by Elizabeth Cooke

For the Cavendish family, Rutherford Park is much more than a place to call home. It is a way of life marked by rigid rules and lavish rewards, governed by unspoken desires. But on Christmas Eve 1913, as the clouds of war gather on the horizon, an epic tale of longing and betrayal is about to unfold...

Adult Fiction

A Time for War by Michael Savage

The US is under secret attack and only Jack Hatfield, a TV host hounded from his position by left-wing forces in the media for speaking the truth, suspects the danger. With the help of an idealistic staffer at the Office of Naval Intelligence, he pursues a trail leading to an entrepreneur who has sold out his country.

The Savage Dead by Joe McKinney

It starts in a laboratory. A man-made strain of flesh-eating virus. Created by a power-hungry cartel. Capable of turning victims into brain-dead carnivores. Smuggled aboard a cruise ship that's about to set sail. No one will be spared if the outbreak isn't contained - and the dead outnumber the living...

The Black Ace by G.B. Joyce

Hatred, blackmail, and murder—a Brad Shade hat trick. The Black Ace reunites us with our favorite NHL scout and accidental sleuth, with plot twists, wisecracks, and an ending that could only come from G.B. Joyce.

Aesop's Fables by Aesop

Aesop was a slave and storyteller who lived in ancient Greece around 620-564 BC. Numerous stories and tales have been credited to him and have been shared throughout the world. Many use animals as the main characters to convey deeper meanings and morals that have become ingrained in our cultural—and personal—belief systems.

Library Trivia

Asinius Pollio (76 B.C. - 40 B.C.) established the first PUBLIC library in Rome, Italy. Julius Caesar first planned to establish a public library during the golden age of Latin literature (70 B.C. - 14 A.D.). While he was unable to meet this goal, his close friend Asinius Pollio was successful and became the first to "make men's talents public property".

Children & Teens

The Raven Boys by Maggie Stiefvater

A supernatural thriller of a different flavor. Born into a psychic family but with no psychic ability of her own, Blue is warned that she will cause her true love to die. No problem! She doesn't believe in true love. But now caught up in the strange world of the Raven Boys, she's not so sure. Grade 8 & up.

Monstrous Beauty by Elizabeth Fama
