The victim, a 15-year old local male said he had been walking home by himself along Mendenhall Loop Road, by Trinity Drive. The two suspects had approached him from the area of Mendenhall Loop Road and Stephen Richards Memorial Drive. As they contacted the victim, one of the suspects held the victim from behind as the other brandished a handgun at him in a threatening manner. They then forced the victim to hand over personal items, which he had in his pockets. The two suspects then fled back towards Mendenhall Loop Road. The victim was not physically injured.
