WALK

On Saturday, May 10, 2008, the March of Dimes will be conducting a march.

The march will take the following route remaining on the sidewalks for a majority of the walk:

Beginning at the Alaskan & Proud Supermarket parking lot on West Willoughby Avenue at 10:00 AM, the group, staying only on the sidewalk, will walk along Glacier Hwy to 10th Street. From 10th Street, the group will walk across the Juneau-Douglas Bridge, then on to Douglas Highway. They will walk along Douglas Highway until reaching the scenic point turn-around across from David Street, where they will turn around and walk back to the Juneau-Douglas bridge. The group will walk across the Juneau-Douglas bridge, crossing at Egan Highway and 10th Street and continue on 10th Street. From 10th Street, the group will turn right on Glacier Highway and continue until reaching the parking lot of the Alaskan & Proud Supermarket for the conclusion of the march at approximately 1:00 PM.

There will be approximately 75 people in attendance.

All questions concerning the above event should be directed to the event organizer, Janie Odgers at (907) 276-4111.
