INFORMATION RELEASE

Subject: Police Memorial Location Change

Date: 05/16/2008

From: Sergeant Campbell

Case or Incident: PSA

Summary:

On October 1, 1962, President John F. Kennedy declared May 15 as National Peace Officer Memorial Day and the week containing May 15 as National Police Week. In keeping with the traditions established since then, the Juneau Police Department will hold its annual Police Officers Memorial Ceremony on Friday, May 16, 2008 at 12:15pm on the lawn of the Alaska State Museum.

The ceremony will honor police officers who give their lives for the people of their community especially those who live and work in Juneau. Senator Kim Elton will give the keynote address and the Juneau Police Department Honor Guard will present the Colors.

*****UPDATE*****

Due to sever weather the location of the Police Memorial has been changed from the State Museum to the City and Borough of Juneau Assembly Chambers. We apologize for any inconvenience that this last minute change might cause.

Any charges reported in this press release are merely accusations and the defendants are presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty.
