The purpose of this section is to compensate the above-listed positions which do not receive additional pay or time off for holidays - see Article 10, Section 3.

The additional leave accrued under this article will be deposited into the employee's personal leave bank. An employee who receives this additional accrual may cash in up 90 hours of leave a year if they are assigned to work a 37.5-hour workweek, and 96 hours of leave a year if they are assigned to work a 40-hour workweek. Leave cashed in under the provisions of this rule are not be subject to the leave cash in provisions under Article 9.23 – Leave Cash In.

For purposes of this section, an additional day of leave per month equates to 3.5 hours of leave each biweekly pay period for an employee who regularly works 37.5 hours per week; and 3.7 hours of leave each biweekly pay period for an employee who works 40 hours or more per week.

9.2 – Unauthorized Leave

There is no accrual of leave for any pay period during which an employee is absent without approved leave. This includes but is not limited to periods of unauthorized leave without pay and disciplinary leave without pay.

9.3 – Leave Anniversary Date

Changes in the rate of accrual as provided in Section 1 shall take effect on the first day of the pay period immediately following the date on which the employee completes the prescribed period of service. This date shall be referred to as the leave anniversary date.

Employees working less than 15 hours per week do not accrue leave. Permanent and probationary employees working 15 hours or more, but less than 37.5 hours per week, shall accrue leave on a pro-rated basis according to a schedule established by the Human Resources & Risk Management Director.

9.5 – Minimum Use

Each employee shall take not less than one third of the leave accrued in the current calendar year by December 31st.

An employee shall be exempt from the minimum use requirement to the extent that such use would cause the employee's personal leave balance to be less than thirty days. Cash in and transfer of leave is not counted towards minimum leave use.

9.6 – Maximum Accrual

Leave accrued but not used shall accumulate to a maximum of not more than one hundred and fifty days on January 1st.

Leave in excess of one hundred and fifty days shall be paid out to the employee at the employee's current rate of pay.

One hundred and fifty days equates to 1125 hours for an employee working 37.5 hours per week and 1200 hours for an employee working 40 hours per week.

When calculating days under Article 9.6 for part time employees, the day shall be prorated according to their established Full Time Equivalent (FTE) position.

9.7 – Scheduling Leave

It is a mutual responsibility of the employee and the supervisor to schedule leave so that an employee has the opportunity to take the required minimum amount of leave and any leave that will exceed the one hundred and fifty day maximum accrual beginning with the first full pay period in January and ending with the last day of the pay period occurring fifty-two weeks later.

9.8 – Required Taking of Leave

The department director may at any time direct an employee to take accrued leave when such action is necessary to assure that the employee takes the minimum use required; or, that the leave which the employee is directed to take will be in excess of the one hundred and fifty days of maximum leave the employee is permitted to carry beyond the first day of the first pay period in January.

9.9 – Transfer of Leave

The Manager shall allow an employee to transfer leave to another person under the following conditions:

- (a) The recipient must either be:
  - (i) an employee who is absent for a family/medical leave reason and is on leave without pay and not retaining personal leave for use upon return from FMLA, or
  - (ii) a family member of a deceased employee, or
  - (iii) an employee who is absent due to the death of an immediate family member and is on Leave Without Pay. Immediate family member shall be defined in accordance with 20 PR 005 (21).
- (b) The donor employee shall have a remaining personal leave balance of not less than twelve days.
- (c) The donation is restricted to a maximum of thirty days or fifty percent of the employee's accrued personal leave, whichever is less.

Thirty days equates to 225 hours for an employee working 37.5 hours per week and 240 hours for an employee working 40 hours per week. Twelve days equates to 90 hours for an employee working 37.5 hours per weeks and 96 hours for an employee working 40 hours per week.

When calculating days under Article 9.9 for part time employees, the day shall be prorated according to their established Full Time Equivalent (FTE) position.

All future rights to compensation for such transferred leave used by the recipient are waived by the donor. Unused donated leave shall be returned to the donor.

Personal leave donated for use by another employee shall not be credited toward the donor's minimum leave use requirement.

This cash value shall then be divided by the regular hourly rate of the recipient and the recipient's medical leave bank shall be credited with that number of hours which are a result of the calculations.

Medical leave shall not be transferred to personal leave or be credited to any employee other than the employee who earned such leave. If the provisions of this Section increase the tax liability of any individual other than the recipient of the donation, this Section will be void and the parties shall meet immediately for the purposes of negotiating a replacement.

9.10 – Scheduled Use of Personal Leave

An employee may take personal leave at any time that business permits with the prior approval of the department director or the employee's supervisor who will make a good faith effort to respond in a timely manner.

9.11 – Unscheduled Use of Personal Leave

An employee may take personal leave for medical reasons when the employee's department director or supervisor is satisfied that the employee is sick or disabled to the extent that the employee cannot attend to the employee's regular duties. The employee shall promptly notify the relevant supervisor or department director when taking unscheduled personal leave.

An employee shall take personal leave for medical reasons when the employee's presence on the job would jeopardize the health of the employee or fellow employees.

Scheduled work on the sixth or seventh consecutive day will be for a minimum of two hours duty and pay.

11.6 – Call Out

This section does not apply to employees paid on a salary basis and does not apply to employees whose regular work schedule is less than 37.5 hours per week.

(A) Work that requires the employee to report to a worksite during nonscheduled hours.

(1) In scheduling extra duty, excluding extension of the employee's regular shift, the Employer shall notify the employee not less than twenty-four hours prior to the commencement of the extra duty. If less than twenty-four hours notice is given the extra duty shall be treated as "call out".

(2) The minimum call out compensation for the employee on stand-by duty shall be two (2) hours. The minimum call out compensation for the employee not on stand-by duty shall be two and one half (2 ½ ) hours. It is understood that employee not on stand-by but called out for work shall receive the additional ½ hours pay in addition to any hours worked beyond the minimum call out pay requirement.

(4) The call out period shall begin when an employee:

- (a) reports to the employer's facility where work is to be performed, or

  - (c) enters the employer's vehicle to travel to the work location, whichever occurs first.
- (5) The call out period shall end when the employee completes the work associated with the call out, or arrives at his or her residence if assigned to drive the employer's vehicle, whichever occurs last.
- (6) Stand-by pay ceases while an employee is being compensated for call out.

- (8) When an employee is called out to duty and less than two (2) hours of actual work is performed (when on standby) or the two and a half (2.5) minimum compensation (when not on standby) , the difference between the actual time worked and the two hour minimum compensation shall be recorded as show-up compensation. Show-up compensation does not count towards leave accrual or meeting the overtime eligibility threshold.

(B) Work performed on the telephone from home

- (1) When an overtime eligible employee receives a phone call at home that requires substantive engagement, the employee shall be compensated at the appropriate rate of pay. For the purposes of this provision "substantive engagement" is defined as providing information to assist another employee in accomplishing that employee's work assignment. "Substantive engagement" does not mean responding to a telephone call regarding the employee's availability to work, an attempt to locate CBJ property, or some other inquiry that is quickly answered.
- (2) The employee shall be compensated for actual time worked, but no less than thirty (30) minutes. If an employee receives additional phone calls within the thirty (30) minute time frame, but does not work beyond thirty (30) minutes from the time the initial telephone call was received, no additional pay will be warranted. If additional phone calls are received beyond the thirty (30) minute time frame, a new thirty (30) minute window will begin. The preferred manner of payment shall be as wages. The department director will consider an employee's request to have overtime credited as compensatory time. No compensatory time other than that earned during pay periods starting between November 12 through December 31 may remain credited to the account of any employee after the first day of the first pay period starting in January.

The Employer shall pay an employee at the employee's regular rate of pay for all time that is deducted from an employee's compensatory time account.

An employees credited compensatory time may not exceed 100 hours at the beginning of any pay period. If an employee's earned overtime posted as compensatory time at the conclusion of a pay period would cause the maximum to be exceeded, all such excess hours shall be paid as overtime wages.

Compensatory time may be taken with the prior approval of the supervisor and when the absence will not cause the Employer any additional personal service hours. An employee may use compensatory time in lieu of personal leave as long as the scheduling is approved.

11.8 – Shift Differentials

This section does not apply to employees paid on a salary basis.

Employees who are assigned to work swing, graveyard or weekend shifts, are eligible for shift differentials:

ARTICLE 18

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

18.1 – Exclusive Remedy

This procedure shall be the sole and exclusive means of settling disputes and disagreements between the parties.

18.2 – Grievance Defined

A grievance shall be defined as any controversy or dispute involving the application or interpretation of the terms of this Agreement arising between the Employer and the Union. A permanent employee may grieve disciplinary actions.

This procedure shall not be available to probationary employees in any case involving discipline or administrative separation from service for failure to satisfactorily complete the probationary period.

Disciplinary actions are those actions defined in 13 PR and shall include letters of reprimand, suspension, demotions for cause, step reductions and/or dismissal. This list may be modified by changes to 13 PR.

18.3 – Procedural Steps

All grievances shall be processed on the grievance forms provided by the Employer.

Should the Employer not comply with the time limits specified in this Article, the grievant may immediately refer the grievance to the next higher step. Failure of the grievant to comply with the time limits will result in the waiver of the grievance.

The parties shall first attempt to resolve their disputes informally. If this method is unsuccessful, the following steps shall be followed in processing grievances:

Step 1 - A grievance shall be initiated as follows: by the grievant submitting the grievance on the grievance form to the grievant's first level of supervision outside the bargaining unit within 14 days of the act which gives rise to the grievance. The supervisor shall discuss the grievance with the grievant and provide a written response within 7 days.

Step 2 - If resolution is not reached at Step 1, the union may submit the grievance to the department director within 14 days of the supervisor's response or the date the response was due, whichever is earlier. Within 7 days the director shall meet with the grievant and his/her union representative to discuss the grievance and shall provide a written response within 14 days of the meeting.

Step 3 - If resolution is not reached at Step 2, the union may submit the grievance to the City Manager within 14 days of the director's response or the date the response was due, whichever is earlier. Within 14 days the City Manager shall provide a written response.

Class action grievances shall be defined as grievances affecting union members in more than one department. Class action grievances shall be originally filed at Step 3.

Grievances involving the suspension, demotion, step reduction or dismissal of a permanent employee shall be filed directly at Step 2.

Grievances brought by the Employer shall be filed upon the union with the Union Representative, of whose identity the Union will keep the Employer apprised on a periodic basis.

Step 4 - If resolution is not reached at Step 3, the union may submit the grievance to arbitration in the following manner: Within 21 days of receipt of the City Manager's response at Step 3 or the date the response was due, whichever is earlier, the Union shall deliver to the City Manager a written demand for arbitration. Within 7 days, the Union and the Human Resources & Risk Management Director shall meet in an effort to select an arbitrator. If an arbitrator has not been agreed upon within 7 days thereafter, the parties shall jointly contact the U.S. Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (USFMCS) or the American Arbitration Association (AAA) to request the names of eleven qualified arbitrators. The parties shall then proceed alternately to strike names from the list until one name remains and that person shall become the arbitrator. The arbitration shall commence at a location within the City and Borough of Juneau at a time selected by the arbitrator and agreed upon by the parties.

The arbitrator will hear only matters regarding the application or interpretation of a specific article of this Agreement or a claim that an article or articles have been violated. The arbitrator shall have the power to return a grievant to employee status with or without the restoration of back pay or mitigate the penalty as equity suggests under the facts. The arbitrator shall have no authority to rule contrary to, expand upon, or eliminate any of the terms of this Agreement nor to award damages which are punitive in nature. Within 30 days of the completion of the hearing the arbitrator shall provide the parties with written findings of fact and conclusions of law, if any, and the complete rationale for any award. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties.

Each party shall bear its own expenses associated with the arbitration. The arbitrator shall assign his/her fees and expenses to the losing party, i.e., either to the Union or to the Employer, and if there is no losing party, the fees and expenses shall be born equally between the parties.

23.4 – Cost Containment
