

Some Totem Poles around Juneau

Can you find these poles? Check them off when you've seen them!

Downtown

- Four Story Totem
Location: Outside Juneau-Douglas City Museum, Fourth and Main Streets
Carver: Haida carver John Wallace of Hydaburg, 1940.
- Harnessing the Atom Totem
Location: Outside Juneau-Douglas City Museum, Calhoun and Main Streets
Carver: Tlingit master carver Amos Wallace of Juneau, 1967, installed 1976
- The Wasgo Totem Pole or Old Witch Totem
Location: State Office Building, Main lobby, Eighth Floor, Fourth and Calhoun Streets
Carver: Haida carver Dwight Wallace, 1880, installed 1977
- Friendship Totem
Location: Juneau Courthouse Lobby, on Fourth Street between Main and Seward
Carver: Tlingit carver Leo Jacobs of Haines, in association with carvers from the Alaska Indian Arts Inc. of Port Chilkoot, mid-1960s.
- The Family
Location: Capital School Playground, Seward and 6th Streets
Carver: Tlingit artist Michael L. Beasley, 1996
- Box of Daylight and Eagle/Bear Totems
Location: Sealaska Corp. Building, One Sealaska Plaza
Carver: Box of Daylight: Tlingit carvers Nathan Jackson and Steven Brown, 1984.
Eagle/Bear: Haida artist Warren Peele, 1984.
- Raven and Tl'anax'eet'ák'w (Wealth Bringer) Totem
Location; Mount Roberts Tramway, 490 S. Franklin St.
Carver: Tlingit carver Stephen Jackson of Ketchikan, raised in 2000
- Aak'w Tribe Totem
Location: Juneau Douglas High School commons, 1639 Glacier Ave.
Carver: Tlingit carver Nathan Jackson, with the assistance of Steven C. Brown, 1980-81
- Legends and Beliefs, Creation of Killer Whale and Strongman Totems
Location: Goldbelt Place, 801 10th St.
Carvers: Tlingit carvers Ray Peck and Jim Marks, 1981
- Raven and Eagle Totem
Location: Federal building lobby, 709 W. Ninth St.
Carver: Tlingit carver Amos Wallace, 1966
- Eagle Thunderbird Totem
Location: Mount Roberts Tramway Mountain House
Carvers: Tlingit carvers Doug & Michael Chilton, 2014
- Raven and Eagle Poles, Áak'w (Auke) Kwáan
Location: Gajaa Hit, Village Street and Willoughby Avenue
Carvers: Haida carvers Joe and TJ Young of Hydaburg, raised in 2014
- The Governor's Totem
Location: Outside the Governor's Mansion, 716 Calhoun St.
Carvers: Tlingit carvers Charlie Tagcook, of Klukwan, and William Brown of Saxman, 1939-40

Four Story Totem Pole

Douglas

- Raven Pole
Location: Gastineau Elementary School,
Carver: Mentor carver Fred Fulmer Sr. and apprentice carvers Jeffery Isturis and Herb Sheakley, 2017

- Yanyeidi Gooch (Wolf) Totem
Location: Savikko Park, Sandy Beach
Carver: Lead carver Nicholas Galaninof Sitka, 2018

Between Valley & Downtown

- Kaa Kaatch A Dei Kusawatx.ye
(How Our Uncle Would Raise His Nephews)
Location: Vocational Training and Resource Center, 3239 Hospital Drive
Carver: Tlingit carver Wayne Price of Haines, 2001

Valley or Beyond

- Yax-te (Big Dipper) Totem
Location: Auke Village Recreation Area
Carver: Tlingit carver Frank St. Clair of Hoonah, 1941, and two local carvers employed by the Civilian Conservation Corps

- Raven and Eagle Totems
Location: University of Alaska Southeast campus
Carver: Eagle: Haida carvers Joe and TJ Young of Hydaburg, 2010; Raven: Four Tlingit carvers from Haines, 1964, raised at UAS in 1993.

- Haa Dachxana'i Yan Kahidi (Our Children's House)
Location: Thunder Mountain High School Commons
Carver: Tlingit carver Wayne Price of Haines, 2009

- Fred Meyer Totems
Location: Main entrance to Fred Meyer, 8181 Glacier Highway
Carvers: Tlingit carvers Mick and Rick Beasley

Harnessing of the Atom