

COVID-19 Short-Term Rental Assistance Program Program Description

In response to the COVID-19 crisis and the economic impacts on Juneau households due to the loss of employment and the inability to cover rent, CBJ has created the COVID-19 Short-Term Rental Assistance Program.

$200,000 has been made available to assist workforce housing renters (up to 120% AMI).

Alaska Housing Development Corporation (Gruening Park) in partnership with Gastineau Human Services will operate the program, similar to a rental assistance program already in place. Funds will be passed through the Juneau Community Foundation.

Key components of the program include:

- A focus on households where a member has lost their job and are unable to meet rent;
- Income limits up to 120% AMI to include workforce housing; and
- Program to cover rent only (no damages, down payment, utilities, late fees etc.).

The program will require the following documentation for all household members:

- Proof of lay-off status or reduction in employment due to COVID-19;
- Current 30-day bank statement;
- Copy of lease;
- Copy of late notices;
- Release of information;
- Proof of any income the last 30 days; and
- Complete application packet

To apply for the rental assistance program, please contact Shari Partin, Program Coordinator at:
