

Juneau Parks and Recreation Youth Sports

Code of Conduct – General

All coaches and parents must abide by our code of conduct

There is a standard of conduct expected from every person associated with the Juneau Parks and Recreation youth sports program. Game and league rules control participant conduct on the field during league play. Participants must also be responsible for their conduct during practices and when not actively participating in a game. Appropriate conduct also relates to coaches, parents, referees, and Parks and Recreation staff. Inappropriate conduct can be any of the following, but is not limited to: hitting, pushing, verbal abuse, intimidation, alcohol or drug use prior to, or during games/practices and poor sports conduct, including arousing spectators against a referee, player, team, or Parks and Recreation staff. The Recreation Staff will deal with persons acting in an inappropriate manner.

- I will not yell at officials, coaches, other adults or my child while they are playing
- I will not ridicule anyone involved in a youth sporting event
- I will not curse or use abusive language
- I will not coach from the sidelines
- I will not use any form of electronic media (Facebook, Twitter, etc) to harass, verbally assault or bully any member of the Parks & Recreation program
- I will not disrupt coaches during meetings, games or practices
- I will demonstrate good sportsmanship by being supportive of all players, coaches and officials at every game, practice or youth sport event.
- I will remember that this program and game is for kids, not ADULTS

Please sign in the space provided. You are signing that you have read the P&R Code of Conduct to your child and will share this information with any friends and family members attending P&R games and will abide by the Code for the entire season:
