Today's gender diverse population is more visible in society than in times past. Schools, families, and communities are learning ways to optimize the inclusion of trans and nonbinary youth. Questions are plentiful, answers are sometimes harder to find.

Please join guest speaker Aidan Key and the Juneau Human Rights Commission as we delve into this 21st century conversation.

Aidan Key is the founder of Gender Diversity, a national organization providing education to K-12 schools across the nation. He is also the founder of TransFamilies.org which provides support to families of gender-diverse children across the nation.

Key has served hundreds of schools and districts – including the Juneau School District – by providing strategic planning, policy development, and training for staff, administrators, and parents.

The Greater Seattle Business Association honored Key as the Humanitarian of the Year (2017) and Seattle Magazine selected him as one of Seattle's Most Influential People of the Year (2019). His work has been featured in national media including: The Oprah Winfrey Show, Larry King Live, and Fresh Air with Terry Gross. He is the author of Trans Children in Today's Schools (Oxford University Press, 2023).
