2025 Walking Tour Descriptions

Historic Downtown Juneau Tour

This walking tour covers about 10 city blocks of the downtown business district and bordering neighborhood. Participants will learn about Juneau's first inhabitants, view totem poles, hear tales of prominent personalities from the early days, and see how the thirst for gold changed the landscape of downtown Juneau. Tour begins and ends at the City Museum. Includes admission to the City Museum and a 20% discount on select items in the museum store.

Alaska State Capitol Tour

The Alaska State Capitol Building in Juneau has served as the symbol and seat of government for more than ninety years and continues to be a working Capitol today. The building hosts the Alaska Legislature, the offices of the Governor of Alaska and Lieutenant Governor of Alaska, and houses an impressive collection historical and contemporary Alaskan art. Tour the interior of the Capitol and learn about the building's architecture, the art collection, the Alaska Legislature, and some of the people who helped to shape Alaska's political history. This tour starts in the Capitol lobby. No tours on Saturdays or Sundays.

Evergreen Cemetery Tour

Evergreen Cemetery was established in 1891 in what was then a location outside of the residential and commercial areas of downtown Juneau. In 1892 volunteers constructed "Cemetery Road" (currently known as Calhoun Avenue) to connect downtown Juneau to the cemetery. Now surrounded by neighborhoods, Evergreen Cemetery is the final resting place for over 8,000 Juneau residents including many people who played an influential role in Juneau's history. Participants will walk from the City Museum down the old "Cemetery Road" to the cemetery to learn about the cemetery's history and to hear stories of some of the notable people buried there. Includes admission to the City Museum and a 20% discount on select items in the museum store.

Downtown Juneau Geology Tour

This tour highlights the general geology of downtown Juneau and how local geology has influenced Juneau's downtown development and history. The walk is about 1.5 miles in length and will begin at the City Museum. Led by local tour guides, Dr. Cathy Connor, retired Professor of Geology University of Alaska Southeast, and Juneau Naturalist Richard Carstensen. Includes admission to the City Museum and a 20% discount on select items in the museum store.

True Crime Tours

Offering 2 different tours led by former Juneau criminal reporters, Ed Schoenfeld and Betsy Longenbaugh: Capital Killers is about 1.5 miles and focuses on historic cases in Juneau from the first half of the twentieth century. Tour starts and ends at the City Museum. Limited to 15 participants. Death-in-Douglas: Participants will walk about 2 miles while hearing about seven murder cases in Douglas and Treadwell from the first half of the twentieth century. This tour starts and ends in Douglas. Limited to 15 participants. Includes admission to the City Museum and a 20% discount on select items in the museum store.
