Candidate Filing

2.2 Official Candidate Statement

Official candidates can provide information to the Clerk's Office for publication on the CBJ website. Write-in candidates do not have the option of providing an official candidate statement.

It is optional for candidates to file an official candidate statement with the Clerk's Office. If no official candidate statement is filed by the deadline, the CBJ website will state the candidate's name as it appears on the ballot, office sought, contact information for the candidate, and the statement "Candidate chose not to file a statement".

Content:

Candidates can provide biographical information, position statements, or other relevant information.

Biographical information suggestions include: Name as it appears on the ballot, office sought, residence address, mailing address, email address, website address, age, occupation, spouse or partner's name, children's names, place of birth, length of residency in Juneau, communities lived in, education, military service, political or government work, business or professional work, nonprofit work, boards served on, and special interests. Candidates may include biographical information outside of these suggestions.

Position statement suggestions include: why you're running for office, your top issues, and/or what you hope to accomplish. Candidates may include information outside of these suggestions.

Staff may reject any portion of an official candidate statement containing obscene, libelous, profane, slanderous, or defamatory material (CBJ Code 29.07.055(c)).

Form:

Information provided to the Clerk's Office must be typed and submitted electronically.

Candidates may submit in an email, word document, PDF, or other electronic and typed form.

The Clerk's Office will take the information provided, turn it into a PDF, and upload it to the CBJ website. Content should not exceed two pages.

Candidates should include a recent headshot. Photos should be taken within the last 5 years and limited to the head, neck, and shoulders of the candidate. Vertical photos are preferred.

No changes to the information provided will be allowed after the deadline except for obvious spelling or typographical errors.
